May 3, 1975

Conference convened: The special session of the North Carolina Annual Conference was called to order at 10:00 AM by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn, Resident Bishop of the Raleigh area. The Conference was opened by the singing of hymn 470, "God of Grace and God of Glory". The seat of the special session was Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Invocation: The invocation was given by Rev. Wallace Kirby.

Welcome: Bishop Blackburn welcomed the delegates to the conference.

Bar of Conference: James Coile moved that the sanctuary of Edenton Street United Methodist Church be the bar of the conference. This was passed.

Official Roll: James Coile moved that the registration cards that were distributed to the delegates be the official roll. This was passed.

Rules: The conference was reminded that this was a special session of the one hundred forty-ninth conference; and that the rules would be the same as those of that conference which met in June at Methodist College.

Seating and Registration: The Bishop had the seating of the delegates arranged for voting while the Conference sang hymn 287, "We Are Climbing Jacob's Ladder". Registration cards were distributed by tellers, and filled out by the lay and clerical members of the conference. The conference sang hymn 267, "Open My Eyes That I May See"; while the registration cards were collected.

Purpose: Bishop Blackburn stated that the purpose of the Special Session was to consider a resolution from the Division of Higher Education.

Resolution: Rev. Kenneth Hite, Chairperson of the Division of Higher Education presented the following resolution: "Be it resolved that the North Carolina Annual Conference embark on a three year fund raising campaign to raise $400,000 to help North Carolina Wesleyan College meet her current financial crisis; that a goal be set to raise $200,000 by September 1, 1975, $100,000 by

The Late 1800's saw the incorporation of a square tower in the architectural form which served as both vestibule and steeple.

September 1, 1976, and the last $100,000 by September 1, 1977; that the foregoing be contingent on the ability of the trustees of North Carolina Wesleyan to provide assurance that the following two conditions be met by May 16, 1975: 1) assurance that the remainder of the 1-¼ million dollars in new money to guarantee operation during the next three years be provided by the Rocky Mount Community and other sources which may be available to the trustees. 2) assurance that at least 400 students will be enrolled for 1975-1976.

Recommendation: Ray C. Euliss, Chairperson of the Committee on Finance and Administration presented the recommendation of the Council on Finance and Administration. Their recommendation follows.

"In the light of Disciplinary responsibilities of the Council on Finance and Administration to the North Carolina Annual Conference, and in view of the current financial status of the North Carolina Annual Conference, the Council on Finance and Administration recommends that the North Carolina Annual Conference in special session on May 3, 1975, not approve the request from the Division on Higher Education for a three-year fund raising campaign to raise $400,000.00 for North Carolina Wesleyan College.

Furthermore, the Council on Finance and Administration does not feel that a major fund raising effort for any single institution of higher learning of the Conference would have the substantial support of the member churches at this time."

Admendment: Rev. Paul Carruth made the following motion as a substitute for the Division of Higher Education Resolution. "The North Carolina Conference shall consolidate its support of colleges within the bounds of the Conference to one college, which shall be a senior college."

Second: Brian Gentle made a second to Carruth's resolution.

Motion: Vernon Tyson moved that Carruth's resolution be tabled. This was seconded by Cecil Robbins.

Point of Order: Langill Watson raised a point of order and asked that the statement of the purpose of the special session be reread. It was done. Tyson's motion for tabling of Carruth's resolution was carried. Henry Godwin, lay delegate from Southport, spoke for the Division of Higher Education Resolution.

Amendment: Frank Lloyd submitted an amendment to the Division of Higher Education Resolution. "I move that we raise $1,00,000; $400,000 for Wesleyan, $400,000 for Methodist College, and $200,000 for Louisburg College." Andy Ringler, youth delegate from New Bern District, made the second.

Information: Rufus Stark asked for more information on the matter of the state's interest in purchasing Methodist College. Dr. Pierce, president of Methodist College, was given an opportunity to reply to Stark's question. He read a letter informing Methodist College that the state had not considered this matter. W. T. Lamm, lay delegate from First Church, Wilson, spoke against Lloyd's motion. Langill Watson spoke against Lloyd's motion. Lloyd's motion was defeated.

James Auman spoke for the Division of Higher Education Resolution. Dr. J. S. Blair, Jr., lay delegate of Wallace, spoke against the Division of Higher Education Resolution.

A.D. Byrd, Jr. asked the question as to how closing Wesleyan would affect the church's credit rating, and what progress has been made to produce the 400 students mentioned in the Division of Higher Education Resolution. Ray Euliss replied to Byrd's first question, and J. Phil Carlton replied to Byrd's second question. Gary Whitcomb, student at Wesleyan, and member of SOS (Save our School) spoke for the Division of Higher Education Resolution.

Motion: Charles M. Smith made a motion to refer the resolution to a committee. It was seconded from the floor. Clarence Warren opposed the motion to refer. F. B. Everett, lay delegate from Scotland Neck, spoke for the Division of Higher Education Resolution. Bob O'Keef spoke against referral. Henry C. Ferrell, lay delegate from Jarvis Memorial, Greenville, spoke for referral. A.D. Byrd spoke against referral. James Auman spoke against referral.

Previous Question: Grier Garrick moved the previous question on all before the Conference. Question prevailed. Motion to refer was defeated.

Motion to Adjourn: Wade Goldston moved to adjourn until 2:00. It was seconded from the floor. His motion was defeated.

Resolution Read: The Bishop asked the secretary to read the Division of Higher Education Resolution. It was done.

Implementation: The Bishop stated that the Division of Higher Education would develop plans for the implementation of the conference's action.

Adjournment: Announcements were made and the conference sang "Blest Be The Tie". The Bishop pronounced the benediction.

Regular Session—Daily Minutes

FIRST DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

Monday, June 2, 1975

The prelude, "Carillon," by Roberts, was played by Gregory L. Bell, Organist of the day, from Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church in Wilmington.

Conference Convened: Bishop Robert M. Blackburn, Resident Bishop of the Raleigh Area, called to order The North Carolina Conference of the South-eastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church at 1:30 p.m. following the singing of the traditional Conference hymn, Number 336, "And Are We Yet Alive?" and the prayer of invocation. This was the one hundred fiftieth session of The North Carolina Annual Conference and the eighth session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church. The 1975 session was convened at Methodist College, Fayetteville, North Carolina. In his third session as presiding bishop, Bishop Blackburn brought a stirring challenge to the packed floor of Reeves Auditorium as lay and clerical delegates gathered in large numbers for the opening session.

Welcome: Mayor Pro Tem, Mrs. Beth Finch, brought greetings on behalf of the Mayor and city council of the City of Fayetteville in welcoming the Conference. Bishop Blackburn responded to Mrs. Finch's cordial welcome with warm words of appreciation and then introduced Dr. Richard W. Pearce, President of Methodist College, who spoke words of welcome on behalf of the college. He emphasized that this was the Church's college and that he was glad to welcome not only the Annual Conference but all church meetings to the grounds. He also welcomed the Conference on behalf of the Board of Trustees and students. Dr. Pearce gave special recognition to the Reverend William Lowdermilk who made special arrangements for the Conference, and the Conference responded with applause.

Host District: Bishop Blackburn introduced the Reverend H. Langill Watson, Superintendent of the Durham District who served as host District Superintendent of the host district for this session of the Annual Conference. Watson brought greetings to "this blessed community of memory and hope." He brought greetings to guests, to delegates, to the ministers and their wives and all of those who have come seeking the unity of a session of The North Carolina Annual Conference.

Special Word of Welcome: Bishop Blackburn recognized Bishop and Mrs. Henley. He also recognized his wife and Mrs. Pearce. Members of the press were welcomed and invited to meet personally with the Bishop. The Conference responded with applause at appropriate places.

Organization of The Conference: Jim Colie moved that the main floor and stage of Reeves Auditorium be the bar of Conference. It was approved.

Official Roll: Colie moved that the cards as signed at the registration tables by both lay and clerical members of the Conference be designated as the official roll of the Conference. This was approved.

Those Officially Excused from The Annual Conference Session: Coile read the roll of those who had requested and received from the Episcopal office a certificate of excuse from the Annual Conference session.

Official Program: Coile moved that the program contained in the Book of Recommendations and enclosed in the delegates' packets and as amended by the presiding bishop be designated as official program. This was done.

Rules: Coile moved that the rules of the Conference be those printed on pages 5 through 8 of the 1974 Journal. This was accepted.

Motion: Paul Bunn entered into discourse with the Bishop as to the appropriateness of a motion regarding the casting of the "Roman ballot" as required by the Rules of the Conference. He inquired as to whether this was a decision of the General Conference or the Annual Conference. Conference Secretary responded for the Bishop stating that it was an Annual Conference rule. At that time Bunn requested that he be recognized for a motion to which he would speak if the motion received a second. Bunn moved, "I move that we accept a system of voting that will count as valid any name appearing on a ballot that is the name of an eligible candidate so long as that name appears only once on any single ballot, so that a person—lay or clerical—may vote for ten or as few persons as he wishes without invalidating that vote." The motion was seconded. After brief discussion by the Bishop concerning the legality of such a motion and a request for the question by the Reverend Langill Watson the vote was taken and the motion was defeated.

Motion: Peter Sorant of Aldersgate United Methodist Church, Chapel Hill, offered a motion concerning the revision of the Rules of the Conference concerning the clarification of special sessions of the Annual Conference. The motion was as follows: "The rules of order and procedure for the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church shall apply to the annual Conference as regularly scheduled and to all called sessions of the Conference." A discussion ensued between the delegate and the Bishop concerning the meaning of the motion which concerned the Chair's ruling at the one day session of the Annual Conference recently held at Edenton Street United Methodist Church. The lay delegate felt that greater information should have been provided more than 24 hours in advance. Al Fisher responded to clarify the motion and spoke in agreement. The question was called and the motion carried.

Nominations From The Cabinet: Rev. J. H. Miller called attention to the nominations of the Cabinet found on pages 4 and 5 of the Book of Recommendations. On page 4, Norwood L. Jones, chairperson, should be added to the Committee on Investigation. On page 5, Committee on Tellers, Group A, Clerical, under the New Bern District, the name of W. J. Martin should be substituted for James A. Auman. Under Lay Tellers for the Greenville District the name of William Haddock should be substituted for that of Howard Harris. In the Wilmington District, the name of DeLeon Fennell should take the place of Mrs. DeLeon Fennell. With these changes Miller moved the election of the nominations of the Cabinet. They were approved.

A Special Guest: Bishop Blackburn recognized Dr. James Stokes, Editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, and press representative from the Advocate to bring greetings and remarks. Dr. Stokes addressed the Conference briefly and urged support of the Advocate.

Report of the Division of Ministry: The Bishop recognized the Rev. W. W. Sherman, Jr., chairperson of the Division to present the report. Sherman presented the report in part and moved that the words "probationary membership" be substituted for the words "full membership" at the end of the last sentence of the first full paragraph on page 81 of the Book of Recommendations. It was seconded and passed.

A further motion was made by Sherman to exempt certain candidates for Associate Membership even though they have not completed the five year course of study or other current requirements for Associate Membership and further, that this remain in effect for a period of two years. It was seconded. Willie Teague requested that the names of those who were to be exempted should be read so that there might be no misunderstanding as to who was receiving this favored treatment. Bishop Blackburn made the request that this list be held in abeyance and not be cut off until the District Superintendents could meet and ascertain that everyone who should be placed on the list has been placed on the list. Sherman responded that those to be on the list should be only those who have 60 hours of academic credit toward an AB or BS degree. These are people who have 60 hours, not those who are going to have it, but those who actually have it at this point in time. The Bishop directed that each District Superintendent check his own list and report by tomorrow.

Sherman presented the registrars of the Lay Pastor Section with Robert F. Bundy giving the report. Names were listed on pages 81 through 88 of the 1975

Conference Program and Book of Recommendations. Corrections were made and the men were introduced to the Conference by Bishop Blackburn. (For names, see Condensed Minutes.)

The Rev. Robert Drew referred the Conference to the same section of the Report by giving the names for the full connection section and distributed mimeographed sheets to make necessary corrections. Corrections were made and the men were introduced to the Conference by Bishop Blackburn. (For names, see the Condensed Minutes.)

All names were introduced for approval. Motion was made and the names were passed. This constitutes the calling of Questions 20a, b and c; Question 30a; Question 26; Question 27; and Question 29.

Members Received Into Full Connection; Bishop Blackburn called Members to be received into Full Connection before the altar of the Conference and asked them the historic questions preceding acceptance into this status. The Bishop pronounced the class as being received into full membership with all the rights and privileges pertaining thereto.

Passing of Character: The District Superintendents were questioned as to the passing of the character of all the ministerial members of the Conference. All were passed except one. The character of each District Superintendent was also approved and the report was accepted. Question 18 was considered to be satisfactorily answered by Bishop Blackburn.

Continuing the Report of the Division of Ministry: Bishop Blackburn called on the Rev. E. M. Thompson who asked Question 28, "Who are discontinued as Probationary members?" (See Condensed Minutes.)

Thompson then called Question 37, "Who have been received by transfer?" (See Condensed Minutes) Bishop Blackburn asked all those answering Question 37 to come forward and be recognized. They came and received a round of applause from the Conference.

Question 38 was called, "Who have been transferred out?" (See Condensed Minutes)

Question 39, "Who have had their Conference membership terminated?" was called. (See Condensed Minutes)

Question 41 was called, "Who are the supernumerary ministers and for what number of years consecutively has each held this relation?" (See Condensed Minutes)

Question 42 was called, "Who are granted sabbatical leave?" (See Condensed Minutes)

Question 45 was called, "What members in Full Connection have been retired?" (See Condensed Minutes)

Rev. W. W. Sherman asked all Lay Pastor serving charges in the North Carolina Annual Conference for the first time to stand and be recognized. They did so and the Conference gave them a round of applause.

Sherman moved the adoption of the Report of the Division of Ministry as presented to date and after the recognition of the Associate Members, those portions of the report of the Division of Ministry contained in the Book of Recommendations, pages 80 through Question 30 on page 88, and excluding those questions which have been delayed for later asking, was moved, seconded and approved by the entire Conference.

Committee on the Lay Worker: Bishop Blackburn presented Mrs. Grier Garrick, chairperson of the Committee on the Lay Worker, for presentation of the report found on page 79 of the Book of Recommendations. Mrs. Garrick offered the following correction: Change "Director of Christian Education" to "Associate in Christian Education" beside the name of Miss Mary Eugenia Beaty. Add Mrs. Alma Offutt, Queen Street United Methodist Church, Kinston (Director of Music). With these changes, Mrs. Garrick moved the adoption of the report. It was approved.

Special Committee Appointed: Bishop Blackburn appointed a committee on Parliamentary Procedures with Reginald Ponder as chairperson, James Coile, Phil Carlton, Stacy Weaver, Jr. and Tom Strickland.

Announcements: The Conference Secretary, Rev. James Coile, made announcements.

The Call to Communion: The call of the Conference to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion was given by Bishop Blackburn and specific directions were given by host District Superintendent Langill Watson.

Recess: Bishop Blackburn called for a ten-minute recess to make preparations for the celebration of the Sacrament.

Recess Concluded: Bishop Blackburn called the Conference to order and announced that preceding the service of Holy Communion we would observe our sacred Memorial Service. He called for the singing of Hymn 48, "How Firm a Foundation." Mrs. Beth Marshburn Bell sang "God My Shepherd Walks Beside Me," by J. S. Bach.

James Coile read the Roll Call of Our Honored Dead to answer Question 40, "What ministers have died during the past Conference year?" (The list is included in the Condensed Minutes.) In answer to the question, "What ministers' wives have died during the past Conference year?" Coile read their names.

Rev. James H. McCallum gave the Memorial Address. The service concluded with the singing of Hymn 93, "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing."

The Sacrament of Holy Communion: Bishop Blackburn, assisted by the District Superintendents, celebrated the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

Conference Reconvened: Bishop Blackburn called on James Bailey, chairperson of the task force to study election procedures, to present the report directed by the 1974 meeting of the North Carolina Annual Conference. Bailey spoke to his report which appears on pages 71 and 72 of the 1975 Book of Recommendations. Bishop Blackburn accepted Bailey's report with thanks and then called upon the Conference Secretary, James Coile, to read the certification document contained in the Book of Recommendations on page 58.

CERTIFICATION OF DELEGATES

I hereby certify that the number of delegates to be elected to the 1976 General and Jurisdictional Conferences from the North Carolina Annual Conference, based upon the requirements of Paragraph 601, 602, and Judicial Council Decision No. 388 are as follows:

General Conference:

Ministers to be elected 10 Laypersons to be elected 10

Total Delegation 20

Jurisdictional Conference:

Additional Ministers to be elected 10

Additional Laypersons to be elected 10

Total Jurisdictional:

Ministers 20 Laypersons 20 Total Delegation 40

Reserve Delegates to Jurisdictional Conference:

Ministers 5 Laypersons 5

Prior to the taking of the first ballot, the Bishop gave instructions to both lay members and clerical members as to the rules for voting. Russell Stott inquired as to the ruling concerning what constituted a defaced ballot. Bishop Blackburn suggested there is no need to have extensive debate on this, that voting in excess of the number required, voting illegibly, voting in a lesser number than required, and voting in a manner in which the name was struck through will constitute defaced ballots. Both Brian Gentle and M. K. Glover spoke to the question. George Forehand spoke to the issue giving the Jurisdictional and General Conferences include Native American and Black representatives. The motion was seconded. Brother Lowry spoke to his motion, speaking of the good that had been done in terms of racial inclusiveness as the Conference has moved forward. Bishop Blackburn ruled that the Discipline said nothing about a specific mandate to elect any particular number of any particular group, but encouraged each person to follow his own conscience and the recommendations of the task force. A. F. Fisher spoke to the resolution. Bishop Blackburn asked that Reginald Ponder, chairman of the Parliamentary Committee, speak to the legitimacy of the motion. The ruling was that Lowry's motion would have to lie upon the table for 24 hours before it could be voted upon. James Coile read from the Discipline to give further clarification before the taking of the ballot. The question was posed as to whether a last name was sufficient for the ballot. The answer was given that a last name must be preceded by an initial or first name or some identification.

First Clerical Ballot: The first Clerical Ballot was taken.

First Lay Ballot: The first Lay Ballot was taken.

Benediction: The benediction was pronounced by Bishop Blackburn at 5:50 p.m. and the session adjourned until 7:25 p.m.

First Day, Evening Session

Monday, June 2, 1975

After the singing of a hymn and the invocation, James M. Marshall led the North Carolina Conference Ministers Chorus in singing, "Lord God We Worship Thee," by Bach.

Bishop Blackburn presided over the services of ordination. He introduced the speaker of the evening, Bishop James W. Henley. Bishop Henley gave a dynamic sermon to the candidates for ordination.

W. W. Sherman and Robert Drew presented to the Bishop the names of the Deacons to be ordained, calling Question 31. (See Condensed Minutes.) The Deacons were duly ordained.

W. W. Sherman and Robert Drew presented to the Bishop the names of the Elders to be ordained, calling Question 33. (See Condensed Minutes.) The Elders were duly ordained.

Bob Baldridge presented the name of Lay Worker Irene Gattis for consecration. Bishop Blackburn led in the service of consecration for Lay Workers and she was so consecrated. (See Report of the Committee on the Lay Worker.)

The Service of Ordination came to a close with the pronouncement of the benediction.

Recess:

Business Session: After a brief recess, the Bishop called the Conference to order in a business session and asked for the singing of Hymn No. 224, "Blessed Assurance."

Bishop Blackburn called upon the Conference Secretary, James Coile, to give a report on the counting of the ballot. Secretary Coile reported that it would be 30 minutes to an hour before there would be a report. Bishop Blackburn gave the assembled Conference a choice of waiting or calling for adjournment and reconvening tomorrow morning. The overwhelming vote of the Conference was to adjourn and reconvene for the reading of the ballot tomorrow morning and the taking of a second lay and clerical ballot for delegates for General Conference.

Announcements: James Coile made announcements.

Benediction: The benediction was given by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn.

Speight, Bishop Blackburn called upon churches to continue to bring hymnals for the use of the Annual Conference and expressed gratitude to those that had already made such a contribution.

Following Dr. Early's presentation, the Conference accorded him a standing ovation.

The Bishop called for all members of the Cabinet to stand and praised them for their leadership. They, too, received an ovation from the Conference assembled. The Bishop accorded Charles Mercer the same honor.

Announcement of Appointments: The Bishop announced the following appointments: Greenville District Superintendent, R. T. Commander; Raleigh District Superintendent, Warren B. Petteway; Rockingham District Superintendent, Clyde McCarver; Wilmington District Superintendent, James Auman. The Bishop requested that these four new District Superintendents stand and they, too, were accorded a round of applause.

Recognition of Conference Preacher: Bishop Blackburn recognized Dr. Leonard Griffith who will be our Conference preacher.

Report of The United Methodist Women: Bishop Blackburn recognized Mrs. D. K. Fry, president of United Methodist Women, for her report. The report as contained on pages 105-106 of the Book of Recommendations was expanded by the inclusion of personal testimonies and by the use of an audio-visual presentation in the cause of the mission programs supported by the organization.

Report of Division of Lay Life and Work: Grier Garrick, Conference Lay Leader, brought the Report of the Division of Lay Life and Work. (See Section V) New officers were adopted. The report was approved. Bishop Blackburn expressed appreciation for the work of Grier Garrick.

Report of Committee on Selection of Layperson of the Year: Stacy Weaver, Jr., chairman of the Sub-Committee of the Division of Lay Life and Work, brought this report. He asked Bishop Blackburn to present the plaque for Layperson of the Year to Jim Watkins, Lay Leader of the Rocky Mount District. Watkins responded to a standing ovation on the part of the Conference with words of appreciation.

North Carolina Council of Churches: Bishop Blackburn presented Sam Wiley, president of the Council, for remarks and greetings on behalf of and from that ecumenical body within our state. Wiley expressed appreciation for the support of the Conference and expressed one concern in particular, that of the Viet Nam refugees who have come to this country. He stressed the need of Church World Service to obtain additional funds in the help of resettlement of these people. He challenged members of the Conference to help in every way they find possible.

Withdrawal of Motion: Harvey Lowry stood to request that his motion of Monday afternoon concerning the inclusion of Native American and Black minorities be withdrawn. It was done.

General Council on Ministries: Dr. N. W. Grant brought a report from the General Council on Ministries. Grant's report was accepted. (See Section V)

Council on Ministries: The report of the Council on Ministries was presented by Charles Mercer. Mercer dealt first with the material contained in the Book of Recommendations beginning on page 45 and extending through page 57. Following the adoption of Section A, the first 15 items, Bishop Blackburn called The Order of the Day, that the program might proceed as printed. The remainder of the Conference Council on Ministries program would be carried over into the afternoon.

Conference Sermon: The Conference joined together in singing, "Ask Ye What Great Thing I Know?" John Cline led in prayer. Bishop Blackburn introduced Dr. A. Leonard Griffith, pastor of Deer Park United Church, Toronto, Canada, and presented him to the Conference for the Conference Sermon for Tuesday morning. Dr. Griffith spoke, using as his text selected portions from the Book of II Kings.

Resumption of the Order of The Day: At the conclusion of Dr. Griffith's sermon, the Conference Council on Ministries resumed its report. Bob Baldrige spoke to Section B of the report quoting Items 16-33.

S. A. Chalk, Jr. raised a point of order in regard to the recommendations. He questioned whether a group was to be adopted at a time or an individual number. Bishop Blackburn replied that we were adopting as a group but now is the time to make exceptions by number if it was the desire of the Conference. Chalk referred to Items 22, 26, and 28. He was concerned about the financing of these Items. Chalk was concerned about general church funding. Grier Garrick referred to the concern as being one over the program concerning the Call For Peace and the Self Development of Peoples and asked Chalk if that was not his main concern. Chalk responded that it was. Mercer explained that this was one of our priorities for The Quadrennium and that all agencies were requested to take these priorities into consideration as they planned their programs. Chalk expressed a concern over the entire program throughout the General Church. Bishop Blackburn explained the theme as adopted by the last General Conference to Chalk and mentioned that our Conference's participation in the Call would be discussed at the later program. Chalk moved that Sections 22, 26 and 28 under general heading B be deleted. The motion was seconded by A. F. Fisher. Chalk proposed to speak against these Items for his full allotted ten minutes and if necessary be granted an additional ten minutes. The Bishop called for a parliamentary decision. Chalk was granted an additional ten minutes which would take us to the time of adjournment. James Bailey called the previous question concerning the Chalk amendment. The Question was ordered. The Chalk amendment was defeated. Russell Stott asked Baldrige about the mandatory nature of Item 22. Baldrige replied that it was part of the general program of the General Church. Section B was moved, seconded and adopted.

Privileged Recognition: Bishop Blackburn recognized representatives of the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and asked Dr. Randall Lolly, president of that institution, to address the Conference. Dr. Fred Sandusky, Registrar of the Seminary, was introduced.

Kermit Wheeler announced the names of the retirees and Bishop Blackburn presided as each retiring minister was recognized in turn and given an opportunity to address the Conference. Chalk offered a substitute motion concerning Items 42, 27, 49 and 67 which relate to and include the Call For Peace and Self-Development of Peoples. He moved that these Items be delegated from Section D of the Conference Council on Ministries report. The motion was seconded and Chalk was granted the right to speak in favor of his motion to delete. Under direct questioning Peterson turned Chalk's questions over to A. F. Fisher. Fisher and Chalk exchanged comments concerning the nature of the Call for Peace and Self-Development of Peoples. Presentation Concerning Plans for the Wesleyan College Campaign: Bishop Blackburn presented Rev. Langill Watson and Judge Phil Carlton to present plans implementing the action taken at the recent Special Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference held at Edenton Street United Methodist Church in Raleigh. Wesleyan College and the City of Rocky Mount having met the prerequisites set by the Conference for the campaign have now set into motion the necessity of the North Carolina Annual Conference's undertaking its part to raise $400,000.00 for North Carolina Wesleyan College. The Bishop introduced Langill Watson to make a presentation on behalf of the committee established by the Division of Higher Education to be in charge of raising the funds for North Carolina Wesleyan. Watson supervised the distribution of brochures to the Conference assembled. Judge Carlton addressed the Conference to this specific need. Judge Carlton gave a grateful and gracious presentation responding to the generosity of the Conference in its action and assured the Conference that what had been done in the Rocky Mount area was possible only because of the action of the Conference. He spoke of a bright and permanent future for Wesleyan College. Langill Watson explained that the proposal for financing was a quota system based on a percentage derived from the total money raised in 1973. Sunday, June 22, 1975, has been designated as "College Campaign Sunday." After the presentations by Watson and Carlton there was ample opportunity for the asking and answering of questions concerning the campaign. Reginald Ponder raised the question of allowing this matter to lie upon the table for 24 hours. Bishop Blackburn responded this was a matter that had already been debated and this was simply a progress report. Dr. O. K. Ingram moved that the report be accepted with gratitude. It was seconded and adopted.

Call for a Hymn: Bishop Blackburn called for the Conference to rise and join in the singing of Hymn No. 217, "He Leadeth Me."

Dr. T. Marvin Vick was recognized representing The Methodist Home for Children. Dr. Vick made the offer to come and speak in any church to tell the story of The Methodist Home for Children. He recognized the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of The Methodist Home for Children, Mr. L. Merritt Jones, to present the report.

Hill called upon Dr. Joseph F. Coble, Executive Director of The Methodist

Retirement Homes, Inc., to present the report for the Homes. Coble gave a report emphasizing the growing number of aging and our church's responsibility and how The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., a corporation of the Conference, is attempting to help in eastern North Carolina through the development of a new Health Care Center to add to the facilities in Durham and an additional facility in Lumberton. Coble emphasized the continuing need for benevolent gifts to help those who do not have the funds to care for themselves. He reported that 20 years ago this September, the Durham Home opened its doors with space for 40 persons and by the end of this Conference year the Homes would have room for more than 400.

Hill presented Vassar Jones who represented SEMAR (Southeastern Methodist Agency for the Retarded.) Jones reported on the extensive new programs occurring in the Southeast underwriting the costs of helping the mentally retarded. Many of these are church based as an increasing number of churches in all of our Conferences become sensitized to the work of SEMAR and the urgent needs of the mentally retarded. A. P. Hill moved the adoption of the report on pages 54-56. James Bailey asked for a clarification regarding Item 17 on page 56. Bailey stated that the question should be worded to give Annual Conference approval, but since no financing from the Conference was requested there should simply be approval, without any further imposition of authority. Hill responded that the Trustees of The Retirement Homes would be given the authority to explore and seek out funds but that no decisions could be made until there was Annual Conference approval. Coble explained the need for change so that government funds might be applied for. The change was not made. The name of James Bailey was proposed to be substituted for that of Robert M. Ward on the Board of Trustees of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., term to expire in 1978. This amendment to the report was adopted. The entire report was adopted.

Commission on Archives and History: The Bishop introduced Ralph Hardee Rives who spoke to the aims, projects, and needs of the Commission. He emphasized that there were two Methodist shrines within the bound of the North Carolina Annual Conference. C. M. Mitchell offered an amendment to the report of the Commission on Archives and History and it was accepted by the chairperson to be appended to the recommendation indicated on page 54 of the Book of Recommendations. The Conference accepted the recommendation as amended.

Bicentennial Celebration: Dr. Rives presented Dr. O. K. Ingram who spoke to the concerns for the celebration of the Bicentennial of the Carolina Circuit to be held in a joint special session of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Annual Conferences in the Cameron Indoor Stadium of Duke University on Saturday, April 3, 1976. The celebration will also mark the Golden Anniversary of the Duke Divinity School, and will be one of North Carolina United Methodism's celebrations of the National Bicentennial. Dr. Ingram presented to Bishop Blackburn the original drawing of the Logo or trademark of the Bicentennial of the Carolina Circuit. Dr. Ingram introduced Dr. James Hull who will be a director of the special celebration. Dr. Hull addressed the Conference. Lawrence Lugar gave explicit directions as to how the churches of the Conference could contribute to the Bicentennial celebration and C. Franklin Grill made a final plea for maximum participation in the celebration. Preston Jones requested that a Black member be represented on this Commission to insure the recognition and continuity of the history of our Black Methodism. Bishop Blackburn said that he would insure that this was done as well as a similar assignment in the Western North Carolina Conference and that a Native American would also be appointed to the Commission.

Smith presented the mimeographed text of a resolution on unconditional amnesty submitted by the Conference Board of Church and Society. Peter Sorant from Aldersgate United Methodist Church, Chapel Hill, spoke to the issue. He made the following statement in a resolution in addition to the mimeographed statement: "Whereas, it is stated in the 1972 Discipline of The United Methodist Church: 'Since the prison population of the world in the developed and in the developing nations is already taxing the world's supply of food, minerals and water, we urge an emphasis upon the quality of life rather than number of children...and further, we support the worldwide distribution of reliable contraceptive information and devices;' and, Whereas, the tragedy of world hunger continues; and, Whereas, the problem of world hunger cannot be easily separated from the issue of population; Now, therefore, be it resolved, that The North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church advocates a clear and active public articulation of the position of The United Methodist Church as outlined in Paragraph 73, sub-paragraph H of the 1972 Book of Discipline to all our Christian and non-Christian brethren."

Bishop Blackburn ruled that both the mimeographed resolution concerning amnesty and the Sorant resolution reproduced above concerning population control would be before us properly tomorrow afternoon.

Committee on Resolutions and References: Herman Winberry presented the report of the committee which included a study of the resolutions to go from this Conference to the General Conference as recommendations of the Conference at large. The first resolution presented concerned world hunger. It was suggested that the word "spiritual" and "physical" hunger be added. The amendment was not accepted by the Board of Church and Society. The amendment was moved, seconded and it carried. The resolution as amended was passed by the Conference assembled and remanded to the attention of the General Conference, meeting in 1976.

Charles Mercer introduced Simeon Cummings to present Section F, beginning with Item 80 and continuing through 101. Dean Morton commented on Item 83, stating that, while we should be concerned about Black evangelism, we should also find pastors. He noted that at least one Black church was without a pastor for the coming year. Dr. Robert Cushman made a motion regarding Item 95, that for the year 1975-76, the Committee in charge of study consider the problems of Southeast Asia and of the Middle East. The motion was seconded. Cushman felt that the smoldering ruins of Southeast Asia were important. He also felt that the Middle East should be viewed from the Christian perspective, beyond considerations of energy and oil. Cushman's amendment was accepted without dissent. Rufus Stark clarified the point by mentioning that these were church-wide studies. That was the reason for the specific titles. J. H. Crum spoke to Paragraph 86 and requested that each church's Administrative Board be requested to report to the church conference as to whether or not it was an inclusive church. Crum made his suggestion an amendment. It was seconded. Rod Randolph asked for clarification. The idea of the motion was to find out if the churches actually had members of more than one race. Jack Crum moved that Item 86 be amended to read: "that each local church administrative board shall report to the District Superintendent at the 1975 Charge Conference the extent of 'inclusiveness' in their church, that is, whether the local church has members of more than one race." Langill Watson stated it would be better if Crum and others have their amendments written out and brought up before they were made. Crum agreed and apologized to the Conference. The question was moved. The vote was taken and the Crum amendment lost. Ralph Fleming asked questions of Dewey Tyson concerning the program of Evangelism for the coming year.

Announcement: Secretary James Coile requested the Conference to use the specially prepared forms for amendments and on coming to the microphone to give their name and charge.

Continuation of Report: Charles M. Smith requested information as to whether the Board of Global Ministries would send out a mailing concerning the resettlement of Vietnamese Refugees. The Bishop responded that he had just received a mailing on this and that it would be out soon giving specific details. Millard Warren spoke concerning Item 99 and said that he had heard of numbers of people who wanted to make payments to the Ten Dollar Club, Phase II, but had not received notices and wondered if they could be put on the mailing list. Mercer stated that it would be necessary for them to sign a new pledge card for Phase II of the Ten Dollar Club and then they would be sent a notice. Section F was moved and adopted in full.

C. F. Grill was introduced to present Section G, Item 102-107. Rod Randolph asked that information concerning Item 106 be sent to all local churches. Reginald Ponder moved in regard to Item 106 that the word "session" be deleted and the word "celebration" be included. The Council accepted Ponder's request without the necessity of vote. Section G was passed and this concluded the report of the Conference Council on Ministries.

Result of Ninth Clerical Ballot: The result of the ninth Clerical ballot was announced. There was no election.

Wise offered an amendment that Greensboro College and High Point College be stricken from the distribution in the amounts listed at the top of page 63. His motion was seconded. Stan Smith spoke against the amendment. Marvin Vick spoke against the amendment, pointing out the interrelatedness of these colleges with our Conference were written into their charters. Luther Cobbel spoke against the amendment. A substitute motion was offered by Sam Brown that "of the amounts at the top of page 63 that $6,736.00 be taken from Greensboro College and High Point College and added to Bennett College." The motion was seconded. Discussion included information that Bennett College has access to the Black College Fund and a rather generous endowment, whereas Greensboro and High Point Colleges were in need of the funds allocated. The question was called and sustained. The Brown substitute failed as did the Wide amendment.

Nominations of College Trustees: Kenneth Hite Presented the nominations of college trustees. Additional nominations were made from the floor. Much debate ensued concerning the legality of nominations from the floor. One delegate stated that "not to have the right to nominate from the floor would be like taxation without representation." Bishop Blackburn ruled that nominations from the floor were legal. Reginal Ponder questioned the procedure for voting on nominees in such a case. The question of additional women trustees was raised. Since the presentation of the entire matter was not clear, it was deferred until later in the Conference by common consent.

Kenneth Hite made a request concerning the funds raised for the Wesleyan College Campaign. He stated that he felt it would be wise to exclude such funds from the churches' total money raised for the purposes of computing the Single Figure Apportionment. The matter was referred to the Council on Finance and Administration.

Result of the Eleventh Clerical Ballot: The result of the eleventh Clerical ballot was announced. N. W. Grant was elected as a delegate to General Conference and this concluded the voting on the Clerical delegates to General Conference.

Jernigan, D. P. Patton, James P. Rickards, John Blue, John Pearsall, John C. Britcher, David Powell, Nevin D. Synder, Miles Murphy, Jr. and Wes Aitken. Hunter, pastor, received the award for the church with over 1000 members. The Caswell County Parish was given the award for a parish situation. Charles H. Hutchinson accepted. All four of these charges were recognized with an ovation by the Conference and the presentation of plaques certifying their being church of the year in their respective categories.

Wednesday, June 4, 1975

Kelly J. Wilson, Jr., convened the meeting of the North Carolina Conference Brotherhood. L. C. Vereen led in the singing of Hymn No. 306, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." Kelly Wilson led in prayer. Wilson recognized J. K. Bostick who gave the Treasurer's report as listed on page 58 of the Book of Recommendations. The motions as carried on pages 57 and 58 of the Book of Recommendations were seconded, discussed and approved. Wilson called on as many as would to give words of encouragement and Joe Bostick was given a round of applause in appreciation for his fine work. Nominations for the Brotherhood were presented by Paul Carruth, Jean Hood and E. M. Thompson and are as follows: Kelly J. Wilson, Jr., president; J. C. P. Brown, vice president; Joseph K. Bostick, secretary-treasurer; for trustees; James H. McCallum, G. Robert McKenzie, Jr., terms to expire 1977; R. Stewart Brodie, Jonnie S. Huggins, terms to expire 1979; John S. Paschal, R. Conference Convened: Organist for the afternoon was Mrs. Marilyn H. Johnson of Centenary United Methodist Church, New Bern. For a prelude she played "Suite in G Minor," by Handel and "Allegro-Largo-Allegro" by Handel. Bishop Blackburn called on the Conference to stand and sing Hymn No. 159, "I Am Thine, O Lord." The Invocation was given by Rev. Bruce Taylor, pastor of the Pleasant Grove United Methodist Church in Raleigh.

Bishop's Committee on Higher Education and Strategy: Bishop Blackburn presented Warren Petteway to the Conference to present the report. He referred to the extensive study made and published in the Final Report of the Committee which had been published and distributed to both the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences prior to this session of the Annual Conference. Paul Carruth, chairperson of the Sub-Committee on Legal Concerns explained the method by which trustees are nominated, approved and elected by the Conference. He explained that there was a difference between nomination and election. Annual Conference elects. If it chooses not to elect the Boards of Trustees, it may reject those so nominated and return the names to the Boards of Trustees through the Division of Higher Education with suggestions for other names. Reginald Ponder replied to Paul Carruth by questioning as to whether the matter had really been resolved. Petteway answered that it would be when the report was adopted. Ponder asked how charters could be amended so that the Conference could give input into these vital matters. Carruth answered but his answer did not satisfy Ponder. Tom Collins spoke to the issue stating that the charters were amended approximately five years ago to give more participation by the Division of Higher Education in the affairs of the Conference. Dr. Luther Gobble called attention to an error in the book on page 100 concerning the date of the charter of Greensboro College, stating that it dated back to 1838 and not 1905 as indicated. Stark and Randolph spoke against Ponder's suggestion that the charter be amended, stating they felt it to be out of order and that the work of the Bishop's committee had been done wisely and well. Petteway referred to the program report on pages 69, 70, 71 of the Book of Recommendations and moved its adoption. Al Fisher proposed a motion to be a substitute Item 6: "Resolved that the Division of Higher Education present to the 1976 Annual Conference a plan by which the Boards of Trustees of our three colleges can be consolidated into one Board of Trustees and a plan by which the necessary charter revision can be made to facilitate the consolidation." The resolution was accepted by the Division to become a part of the report. Ed Earnhardt spoke extensively against the Church's involvement in the college enterprise stating that he firmly believed that there should be involvement of the Church in the college. His contention was that we were in the "Jesus business" and not in the "college business." E. F. Everett spoke in opposition to Earnhardt's statement. Edward M. Gunter made a motion seconded by Vernon Tyson to amend Item 8 on page 70, to add the words "with the consultation of two students from each of the three respective institutions." The addition to the report was accepted by the committee. Francis Bradshaw moved the previous question. It was sustained. The report was accepted and adopted.

Election of Trustees: Bishop Blackburn called for the election of trustees for the colleges listed on pages 63-64. This had been postponed from an earlier hour. The motion was accepted by the Conference.

Committee on Continuing Education: Herman Winberry gave the report for the Committee calling attention to Seminars on Preaching and the special Seminar Tour to be offered again this summer. Winberry recognized those who had participated in the continuing education programs of the Conference during the past year. Out of his report Winberry lifted special commendation for the Duke Endowment and for that part of the Endowment which had provided so much for the continuing education of ministers of this Conference.

Resolution: Winberry presented a resolution calling on the trustees of Duke University to continue full tuition grants to the children of Methodist clergy. This, he reported, was in keeping with the establishment of the Indenture by James B. Duke. (See Section V, Group C).

Wallace Kirby explained that tuition scholarships are not a part of the Duke Indenture. Winberry responded that the committee felt that it was in the spirit of the Indenture. David Bradlye, professor at Duke and a clerical member of the Conference, explained that the change in the policy was a matter of survival for Duke University in these hard times. Rufus Stark spoke in opposition to the resolution. The resolution passed.

Duke Endowment: A. F. Fisher presented the report for the Duke Endowment and its ministry throughout North Carolina.

J. M. Ormond Center for Research and Planning: Dr. Robert Wilson reported for this organization, emphasizing their facilities and availability for planning for rural churches throughout eastern North Carolina. The formal report has been presented for inclusion in the Conference Journal.

School for Lay Pastors: Dr. Paul Mickey addressed the Conference on behalf of the ministerial Course of Study School.

Duke Pastors' School: Al Fisher reported for the Board of Managers of the Duke Pastors' School and urged attendance at this year's school. Dr. O. K. Ingram followed Fisher in speaking on the continuing education program offered by Duke Divinity School. Dr. Ingram is to take the post formerly occupied by Dr. McMurry Richey in the organization development of the program.

Ministerial Education Fund: Wilbur Jackson presented the report. He referred to the report of the committee on pages 90-92 of the Book of Recommendations and presented it for consideration. He particularly emphasized the fact that our Conference had paid 100% of its apportionment for the Ministerial Education Fund. The report was adopted.

Board of Managers: Herman Winberry acted on one remaining item of business for the Committee on Continuing Education that was to select two nominees for the Board of Managers for the Pastors' School. The nominations were E. M. Thompson and Paul Boone. The Conference adopted their nomination and they were elected.

Regional Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry: Langill Watson discussed the fundamentals of campus ministry and the fact that he was involved in over ten campuses in North Carolina. Watson referred to the nominations beginning with page 64 and continuing through 68 in the Book of Recommendations.

Point of Personal Privilege: Bishop Blackburn recognized Langill Watson and granted him excuse from the evening session since it was his anniversary and referring to his remarks of the previous evening presented him with a corsage to give to his wife, whereupon he recognized Mrs. Watson and gave both of them his best wishes on behalf of himself and the Conference. The Conference gave a round of applause.

Joint Committee on Disability: Clyde McCarver presented the report of the committee. The report was adopted.

The Board of Discipleship: Wallace Kirby presented Dewey Tyson to speak on behalf of the Division of Evangelism. Tyson moved the appointment of Tommy Tyson as Conference Evangelist for the coming Conference year. This was done. Tyson spoke to the issue of evangelism at some length with a personal testimony that the failure of evangelism today was a failure of personal commitment to an abiding belief in the Saviourhood of our Lord Jesus Christ and a willingness to spread the good news. On the brighter side, he emphasized that he felt a sense of renewal was spreading across the Church.

The Division of Worship: W. D. Sabiston presented a report for information. Sabiston discussed the work of the Division during the year and his report was accepted by the Conference.

The Division of Education: Christian White spoke to the concerns of Christian Education and particularly the Sunday School. He noted the decline in membership and attendance continued but not at the same accelerated approach as was so evident a few years ago. He asked for adoption of the program as presented in the Book of Recommendations, and it was so adopted. THIRD DAY, EVENING SESSION

Wednesday, June 4, 1975

Organist for the evening was Mrs. Marilyn H. Johnson of Centenary United Methodist Church, New Bern. The combined choirs of Saint Paul United Methodist Church, Goldsboro, and Craven County Methodist Chorus were directed by James M. Marshall. After the prelude which included Choral Improvisations, Opus 65, by Karg-Elert, "To Thee, Jehovah, Shall I Sing," "After a Trial," and "Praise the Lord, O My Soul" the choir sang the Introit, "Lift Up Your Heads," by Yarrington. John Maides welcomed the congregation on behalf of the Division of Stewardship. Franklin Grill led in prayer. The Anthem, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," was sung by the choir. Bishop Blackburn introduced Dr. Oral Roberts, President of Oral Roberts University of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Dr. Roberts preached to one of the largest crowds of North Carolina Methodism ever assembled in Reeves Auditorium on the campus of Methodist College. His stirring message was based on the story of Shadrack, Meshack and Abednego and on the general theme of the fiery furnaces of life. Following the sermon the offering was taken. The choir sang as an Offertory, "Gloria," from the 12th Mass by Mozart. After a closing hymn and a benediction the Conference was recessed for five minutes.

Conference Convened: Bishop Blackburn called the Conference to order.

Result of the Fourteenth Clerical Ballot: The result of the fourteenth Clerical ballot was announced. There was no election.

Fifteenth Clerical Ballot: The fifteenth Clerical ballot was taken.

The Committee to Study the Cost of Parish Travel: Mr. William Cable spoke on this special study committee established by the last Annual Conference. Al Fisher was introduced by Mr. Cable to make the report beginning on page 103 of the Book of Recommendations and continuing through the top of page 105. In the interest of fairness and for open and complete discussion, Fisher requested the privilege of reading and discussing the report line by line. After a detailed explanation, the Bishop called for the Order of the Day to report a ballot.

Result of the Eleventh Lay Ballot: The result of the eleventh Lay ballot was announced. There was no election.

Frank Lloyd spoke in favor of the report. Frank Lloyd moved that under the recommendation of page 104, number 4, and the top of page 105, the words be changed to read, "... formula, but not to exceed $1,800.00, with the exception in addition a charge with excessive travel be allowed to deduct an additional $720 for each 8,000 miles traveled over 18,000 miles." The motion was seconded. A. K. King spoke to the question of the necessity for travel allowance vouchers and the bookkeeping involved therein. He questioned the necessity for this. His specific question was, "Is the IRS allowance a better formula than the travel voucher formula?" Frank Lloyd spoke in clarification of his amendment. Sam McMillan offered a substitute to the effect that the entire amount expended for travel would be deducted from the Single Figure asking. The actual motion was "to put a period after the word formula on page 105 in the Book of Recommendations." There were two speeches against the substitute motion. Kermit Braswell spoke to insure that the mileage count by each church would be accurate. The previous question was called and sustained. The McMillan substitute lost. The Lloyd amendment also failed. Russel Wagner spoke in favor of A. K. King's comments in regard to the problem of division and the clerical expense involved in keeping such records on a small charge. F. B. Everett of the Scotland Neck Church spoke in favor of increasing ministers' salaries with no "ifs, ands or buts." Tommy Faggart moved that we postpone this issue until 1976 Annual Conference. The question was called on the Faggart motion to postpone. The Faggart motion was defeated. Al Simonton asked whether the Single Figure would not suffer. Fisher responded that there are many items exempted from the Single Figure each year and that it was the opinion of the Committee that this would not cause it to suffer. Al Fisher asked that to Item (1) in the Study on page 104, to the end of the last sentence should be added "and estimated travel." In Item (4) the last sentence should be followed with "for each pastor." These were additions by the Committee.

The Lloyd amendment was seconded. Several speeches were made pro and con concerning the Lloyd motion. The question was called and it seemed that the Lloyd amendment lost. The result of the vote was: 228 for the amendment and 198 against the amendment. Elliott, Fisher and Dunn spoke to the needs of people at Soul City. The Conference was urged not to get caught up in the emotion of the session but to give it careful consideration. The report of the Division of Missions was adopted as amended.

The Conference approved the overall recommendation from Interreligious and Ecumenical Concerns.

Mrs. Jerome referred to last year's resolution concerning withdrawal from the National and State Councils of Churches which was sent to the Conference from Morehead City. Since the Commission rejected the Morehead City resolution, Mr. Chalk of the Morehead City congregation rose to defend the Morehead City resolution, and spoke against the National Council of Churches. Mrs. Jerome spoke to explain in detail the work of the National Council of Churches and why the commission felt it was necessary to reject the Morehead City resolution. After Chalk's concerns were answered there was a call for the previous question. It was sustained. The Conference voted nonconcurrence with the Morehead City resolution. On page 73, McDonald asked that under Section II, 2, after the words "expense allowances" the words "(excluding travel)" be inserted to make that section of the paragraph read: "... and expense allowances (excluding travel) are included as salary . . ." The report was moved and seconded. C. Maness Mitchell rose to make a statement concerning the report and a motion that was accepted last year. RALPH D. WELLONS

Ralph D. Wellons, missionary, Christian educator, pastor, was born in Needmore, Indiana, 28 January, 1891. Eighty three years later, having completed the years of a life of remarkable service, he died May 22, 1974, at the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham, North Carolina.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Willafred Howe Wellons of the Methodist Retirement Home, Durham; one son, Alfred Wellons of New Bern, N.C.; two daughters, Mrs. Rebecca W. Rissmiller of Matawan, New Jersey, and Mrs. Janet W. Smith of Fayetteville, N.C.; one sister, Miss Blanche Wellons of Greenwood, Indiana; and nine grand-children. The funeral service was held in Durham, N.C., by the Reverend L.E. Blackburn, assisted by Rev. L.C. Vereen. Burial was in Maplewood cemetery in Durham, N.C.

Dr. Wellons was educated in the public schools of Indiana and received from Indiana University the BA and MA degrees. His PhD in education was received from Columbia University in New York City. While serving as a missionary in India, he completed the requirements for ordination in the Methodist Church, and he was ordained an elder in the Methodist Church in India.

Married on 18 August 1914 to Willafred Howe of Bloomington, Indiana, he and Mrs. Wellons spent twenty-six years under appointment of the Methodist Board of Missions. The focus of their years in India was Lucknow Christian College, and for the last ten years there, he was president of the college. For reasons of health, they retired from service in India in 1942. Dr. Wellons became president of Pembroke State College (University) in Pembroke, N.C., in 1942, where he served until 1956, when he retired again. It is to his credit that during the time he served as president, it grew from a two-year normal school to a four year fully accredited college, and opened its doors to all races, rather than to only Indians as it was before. He served pastoral appointments in Winter Park, Florida, from 1956 to 1964, then retired a third time and moved to the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham, N.C.

Because of the unusually wide range of their years of Christian work, Dr. and Mrs. Wellons literally had friends around the world. Because of the firm conviction Dr. Wellons had as to the worth of Christian education, he worked always with the fruitful linkage of church and college in mind. Recognizing the great value of a life lived in so many areas, both geographically and spiritually, and recognizing the great value of a life so dedicated in Christian service, those who knew Dr. Wellons best rejoice at what was accomplished through him, and recognize the distinct sense of personal loss in his death.

LESTER ARCHIE TILLEY
1903—1974

Lester Archie Tilley was born in Orange County, North Carolina, on April 9, 1903. His early education was in the public schools of Orange County and Glade Valley High School. Upon graduation Lester was called to teach in an elementary school. After one year he pursued his education at Duke University and completed his Bachelor of Arts work in 1929 and his Bachelor of Divinity in 1935. Realizing his call to the ministry, Lester joined the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church in 1929. He was ordained an Elder in 1931. On April 28, 1925 Lester married Beatrice Elizabeth Murphy, who continued as his life companion throughout the following years. Lester's appointments included: Hemp (Robbins) 1929-30; Haw River 1930-33; Newton Grove 1933-37; Spring Hope 1938; Ayden 1938-42; Roanoke Rapids, First, 1942-46; Morehead City, First, 1946-51; Rockingham, First, 1951-56; Smithfield Centenary 1956-60; Jacksonville, Trinity, 1960-64; Longview Gardens, Raleigh, 1964-68. Retirement was granted by the North Carolina Conference in June 1968.

Retirement did not end the ministry for Lester. In June 1969 he accepted the invitation to be Minister of Visitation at Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh and served in that important ministry until his declining health forced him to stop in 1973. His death followed soon after on June 2, 1974, appropriately as he was preparing to attend the session of the North Carolina Methodist Conference.

To attempt to characterize Lester's ministry would be to describe a true loving pastor. One incident while he was Visiting Minister at Edenton Street so perfectly tells of his great love and concern for people. I was calling on a very dear shut-in and at the conclusion of my visit, the dear lady said, "Dr. Vick I appreciate your visit so much and don't wish to offend you but you are so busy. If you will just see that Brother Tilley comes by to see me, you won't have to take time with me. You see, Brother Tilley and I speak the same language". No greater truth was ever spoken. Brother Tilley spoke the true language of a loving pastor. Though often tired and with a weary body, he moved among his people with compassion and love. Brother Tilley is remembered from Robbins to Edenton Street, Raleigh for his untiring service to people.

Lester was an artist with words and in his little spare time wrote poetry. His written work constitutes a great gift to the generations yet to come. Among his collected verses is "I'M GLAD", which seems to speak of Lester and give us a true picture of his heart.

I'm glad, so glad, God loved us so,
That He His Son did give,
And that Son to the cross did go,
That you and I might live!

It is so grand, so great, so sweet,
God's love, mercy and grace,
How can we wait until we meet,
And see Him face to face?

But we can know his presence here,
Companionship sublime,
If we to Him stay ever near,
And serve Him all the time!

O what a joy with Him to roam,
His work and will to do,
Until at last He calls us home,
And we start life anew!

Lester A. Tilley

Lester is survived by his wife, Beatrice Murphy Tilley, and four children, Lester Archie Tilley, Jr.; Kenneth Grey Tilley; Eloise Grace Tilley; and Michael Eugene Tilley. God called and Lester answered on June 2, 1974.

RICHARD DALLAM SHINKLE

The Reverend Richard Dallam Shinkle was born in Covington, Kentucky, August 15, 1904. He died September 10, 1974, following a year of declining health. Funeral services were conducted from Centenary Methodist Church on Wednesday afternoon, September 11, 1974, by The Reverend Ernest R. Porter and The Reverend Harold F. Leatherman.

During his early years he attended a military academy in Kentucky. He enlisted in the Civil Air Patrol during World War II and flew numerous missions on submarine patrol in the Gulf of Mexico while stationed in Corpus Christi, Texas. He also was a base officer of the CAP in this same town. It was in Corpus Christi too that he met and married the former Maxine Bailey of Monterey, Mexico, who is his only survivor and continues to live in New Bern, North Carolina.

HOWARD PETERSON POWELL

1897—1974

Howard Peterson Powell was born July 11, 1897 near Clinton, North Carolina. He was the son of Luke Best Powell and Lessie Boone Powell. Howard did not escape the rugged chores of farm life even though he was the youngest child in a family of four boys and one girl. Indeed, in later years he kept a container of Sampson County soil on his desk to remind him of his rural roots. Following his conversion, he joined the Keener Methodist Church.

Howard attended Trinity Park School, now Duke University in Durham, and Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky. In 1938 High Point College bestowed on him a Doctor of Divinity Degree.

On June 17, 1926 he was married to Eunice Claire Rich of Graham. They have a son, Howard Peterson Powell, Junior. Early in their marriage, Mrs. Powell's mother, Mrs. Lettie McCoy Rich, came to live as an integral member of the family. Theirs was a home in which "Open House" was held each Christmas and where every day of the year was given to hospitality. Howard Junior married Janet Huepenbecker of Battle Creek, Michigan. They now live in Raleigh and have three daughters: Carolyn, Valerie and Sharon.

Dr. Powell joined the Western North Carolina Conference at Greensboro in November, 1924 and served the following appointments: First Methodist Church, Spray, 1924-27; First Methodist Church, Murphy, 1927-31; First Methodist Church, Marion, 1931-35; First Methodist Church, Asheboro, 1935-39; Dilworth Methodist Church, Charlotte, 1939-47. Then he transferred to his home Conference to serve the Edenton Street Methodist Church of Raleigh until his retirement in 1962.

Dr. Powell was a member of the Conference Board of Missions and also the Board of Evangelism. He was elected a delegate to the 1948 General Conference. Beyond the bounds of the Methodist Church, the Disciplined Order of Christ elected him president of the Southeastern region and president of their National Board.

In his retirement years, as long as health permitted, he gave himself to preaching in revivals and spiritual life retreats. He had printed on his personal letterhead "Redeeming love has been my theme, and shall be till I die." Death came on July 13, 1974. He was buried in Oakwood Cemetery in Raleigh.

Luke wrote of Barnabas, "he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith." (Acts II: 24a.) These words describe Howard Peterson Powell.

Dr. Powell's life bore the fruits of the Spirit of Jesus Christ. In personal and official ways he endeavored to sink his roots deeply into the soil of the Spirit. He was a disciplined man; in prayer daily, selfgiving in pastoral responsibility, careful in sermon preparation and attentive to the life of the church. But such discipline was not a matter of self adorning; it was a thankful response to the initiating love of God which had captured and controlled his life.

Dr. Powell was a helpful preacher. Books were his constant companion. He learned early to read, mark and inwardly digest the Word of God and from a warm heart he preached the Word. With ardor and accuracy, with dignity and delight, he related the timeless message of the Bible to the timely needs of the people whom God and the Church had given him to serve.

Dr. Powell was diligent in prayer. He made it his business to "meet God in the morning when the day was at its best." His prayer book was an inspiration to behold. It began by listing persons and things for which he prayed daily. Then came a section for each day of the week. On these pages were written the name of each member of his congregation. He was a man intent on giving "My Utmost for His Highest."

Someone who knew him intimately and loved him deeply wrote "Howard Powell did not amass treasures of silver and gold on earth. He had treasures laid up in Heaven in the form of men and women rescued from the power of sin. Countless numbers have been inspired to love God and around the world the joyful sound of the gospel has been heard because he was a man of one purpose and passion to which he gave himself wholly."

At the concluding session of a conference at which Dr. Powell was presiding, he looked over the crowd and said, "Remember, Christians never see each other for the last time." He believed in the resurrection. He believed that Jesus Christ is alive and because He lives we also shall live. And in this faith, he lived and died and now lives eternally in that City whose maker and builder is God.

He attended the public school in Easley, Pastor's school in Orangeburg, South Carolina. He received a good Christian heritage from his forebears. Among many other virtues his life was characterized by steadfastness in service, kindness in life's relationships, unusual gratitude, unfailing graciousness, sincere humility, genuine unselfishness and monumental patients.

JAMES HERBERT MILLER

James Herbert Miller was born in Hertford, N. C., on May 4, 1889, the son of James Henry Miller and Alethia White Miller.

He attended Belvedere Academy and received an A.B. degree at Trinity College, Durham. He also studied at the Seminary of Vanderbilt University. After teaching one year at Ormondville in Greene County, he entered the ministry joining the North Carolina Methodist Conference in 1912 and served for forty-nine years in the active ministry. He first served Belhaven; then, Hallsboro, 1914; Wilmington, Seagate, 1915; Wilson, First Church as junior pastor, 1918; Pinetops, 1922; Southport, 1926; Biscoe, 1929; Middleburg, 1932; Whiteville, 1933; Hookerton, 1936; Morehead City, First Church, 1941; Elizabeth City District, 1944; Laurinburg, 1950; Raeford, 1953; Durham, Calvary, 1957.

In 1925, he married Elsie McGlaughon of Wilmington. There are three sons — the Reverend James H. Miller, now District Superintendent of the Fayetteville District; D. Edmond Miller, MD., of Durham; and Kenneth McGlaughon Miller, Director of Secondary Education in Danville, Virginia. There are three granddaughters and one grandson.

Brother Miller died at his home, 309 West Cornwallis Road, Durham, on October 17, 1974. Funeral services were conducted at Calvary United Methodist Church in Durham, with burial at Cedarwood Cemetary, Hertford. Bishop Robert Blackburn, the Reverend Frank Lloyd, and Dr. Paul Carruth conducted services. Sisters surviving are Mrs. H. T. West of Ayden and Mrs. May Perry of Winfall, N. C. Brothers are Elmer L. Miller and B. M. Miller of Winfall.

Herbert Miller was my friend and brother worker for sixty years. Assisting him in revivals and working with him were blessings enchanched by the times spent with him and his family in their home.

Elsie and Herbert encouraged their children to get an education — no matter the sacrifice — and to go wherever they could serve most effectively.

I bear witness that Brother Miller never sought out his appointments. He asked only for a place to serve and accepted his place gladly. He loved his people and they loved him. They knew their humble and thoughtful pastor to be a man of great faith and love.

His ministry imparted to us guides to Christian living so that we all rejoice in his life, not mourn his death.

CARL WEBSTER BARBEE
1904—1974

Carl Webster Barbee, son of the late John Logan and Deborah Vester Barbee, was born December 5, 1904 in Spring Hope, N. C. After graduation from high school he attended Wake Forest University, receiving the Bachelor of Science degree. He later enrolled in the Duke Divinity School and was graduated with the Bachelor of Divinity degree. Carl was admitted into the North Carolina Annual Conference at its session in Kinston in 1929.

On December 24, 1929 Carl W. Barbee and Miss Gladys Newman of Clinton, N. C. were married. Two daughters were born to this couple. They are Mrs. Leo LaJoie of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Mrs. James W. Gray, Jr. of Norfolk, Va. Mrs. Barbee died of a heart attack August 11, 1972 at their home in Clinton.

Carl's active ministry spanned forty-three and one-half years. During those years he served the following appointments: Pamlico, Seven Springs, Bahama, Swansboro, Elizabethtown, Clayton, Person Charge (Roxboro), Enfield, Bethel, Plymouth, and Pittsboro. Upon retirement in 1972 at the annual conference session in Durham, Carl and Gladys made their home in Clinton. The day following the purchase of a house in Clinton, Mrs. Barbee died of a heart attack.

Carl's service to Christ and the church was characterized by his genuine commitment to Christ and his sincere and deep devotion to the church. He loved the church, and gave himself unselfishly to its call to service. At the annual conference session he retired from the active ministry, Carl said to this writer, "I have enjoyed my ministry, and if I had my life to live over I would answer the same call to Christ and his church."

This was one Methodist minister who will long be remembered for his happy, friendly disposition. This quality made him a real joy among all people. His daughter Patsy (Mrs. Gray) said of her father: "He truly loved his fellowmen, and while I always thought he preached wonderful sermons, it was his pastoral care and concern, not only for members of his church, but for others in the community, and also for strangers who made their way to the Methodist parsonage down through the years." Truly his winsome manner endeared him to all.

In addition to his ministerial duties, Carl served on the secretarial staff of the annual conference from 1953 to 1972. This writer had the rich experience of serving with him on the staff during those twenty years. This service spanned the years during which Rev. W. Carleton Wilson served as conference secretary.

On June 14, 1973, Carl remarried, this time to Mrs. Mattie Ward Sadler of Kenansville, N. C. This marriage was a short one, he died October 31, 1974, after several months of illness. In addition to his two daughters and widow, Brother Barbee is survived by two sisters: Mrs. N. H. Stallings of Spring Hope, and Mrs. G. H. Pierce of Tom's River, N. J.; two brothers: G. W. Barbee of Hertford, N. C., and Allen Barbee of Spring Hope; one step-son: Dr. Emory Sadler of Greensboro; five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held November 3, 1974 at the First United Methodist Church, Clinton, conducted by Rev. Ben H. Wilson, III and Rev. C. Freeman Heath. Interment was in the Clinton Cemetery.

It is appropriate here to quote from a letter which Carl wrote to his district superintendent, Rev. E. B. Fisher, on April 22, 1970: "Rather than to be remembered for any one outstanding ability—I would want to be remembered as a minister of love, and I am fond of the statement in Luke 4:18 'He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted'."

REVEREND KEY WESLEY TAYLOR
1907—1975

The Reverend Key Wesley Taylor was born at Charleston, Arkansas, July 30, 1907, the son of the Reverend John W. Taylor and Rose Anderson Taylor. He died at the Pines Rest Home near Louisburg, North Carolina, March 10, 1975, following failing health extending over several years and serious illness since September 1974.

Memorial services were held March 12, 1975, from the Louisburg United Methodist Church at 11:00 a.m. and from Wesley United Methodist Church in Pitt County at 3:00 p.m., with Reverend C. Wade Goldston presiding.

His father, a Methodist minister, died when Key was a small boy, and he and his widowed mother lived with his maternal grandparents at Magazine, Arkansas, until he was about thirteen years old. He moved to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, with his mother around 1920.

Key and his mother moved to California in 1922, and he was graduated from Fullerton High School in 1924. Following graduation he went to work. For six years he was employed by Kroehler Manufacturing Co., furniture manufacturers, where he rose to the position of supervisor.

He joined Trinity Methodist Church, Los Angeles, which was being served by the well known preacher and crusader R. P. "Bob" Shuler. Key was quite active in this famous church. A letter to the Dean of Asbury College, Wilmore, Kentucky, in September where Key had enrolled in September 1932 as a ministerial student by one of Trinity's ministers, stated: "Think I can say nothing stronger than Key has been our finest leader among the young people in Trinity. We have many, many wonderful characters there, as you know, among that class of people. We all prophesy a life of real service in the ministry for Mr. Taylor. His qualifications are the best for his chosen field."

After two years at Asbury, Key transferred to Gordon College, Boston, Massachusetts, from which he was graduated in 1936.

Following graduation from Gordon, Key went South where he worked in an ice cream establishment at Conway, South Carolina. In December 1936 he was appointed to the Shepherds Charge, a four-point circuit in the Statesville District, Western North Carolina Conference.

He entered the Duke University Divinity School during the fall of 1937. Here he continued to exert the kind of leadership he had demonstrated at Gordon. Here also he developed a friendship with the late Dr. J. M. Ormond, professor of Rural Church Administration, and devoted friend of the rural church. Here, too, Key made the full commitment of his life to the rural church.

After three years of study at Duke, he was admitted on trial in the North Carolina Annual Conference, was ordained deacon in 1942 and elder, in 1944. His first appointment was Walstonburg, which he served eleven years, pioneering in new forms of ministry to his three congregations and extending his influence throughout the Conference.

Other appointments during his 32 years of pastoral service included: Windsor, 1951-52; South Mills, 1952-57; Chapel Hill Circuit, 1957-58; Brooksdale, 1958-65; Eno, 1965-68; Glendon, 1968-69; Wesley, 1969-71; Lucama-Sims, 1971-72. He retired in June 1972, but returned to serve Wesley Church until November 1973. Following retirement, he moved to Louisburg where he continued to work on a book centered around the life and ministry of the late J. Rufus Moseley, well known mystic and dedicated Christian layman, whose ministry Key extended over the Conference by scheduling appointments for this unusual leader.

Throughout his ministry, Key Taylor put the needs of the rural church and its people first and foremost. Indeed, since he never married, the rural church was his bride and rural people his family. For sixteen years he was the indefatigable Chairman of the North Carolina Conference Commission on Town and Country Work. His work with the Commission brought him into close working relations with other boards and agencies. During the late Forties he sparked a campaign that netted $50,000 to establish the J. M. Ormond Fund at Duke Divinity School. He was author of a volume "Roots, Religion and Revival," which points the way to renewal in the church. In recognition of the scholarly qualities as well as the timeliness of this book, Duke University conferred upon Key in 1973 the Master of Divinity degree, letting it stand for the thesis he did not write while he was a student at the institution.

His interests included church extension and Christian higher education. He was in the forefront of these causes during the "Garber Era," when scores of new congregations were begun and two new senior colleges were established. For thirteen years he served on the North Carolina Wesleyan College Board of Trustees, never missing a meeting of the board or a committee of the board of which he was a member.

During most of his years, he served on minimum salary. He lived frugally, spent little on himself, but gave generously to help others—particularly the sick, and needy, the elderly, college youth and children.

It is characteristic of his life that in his will he bequeathed his house in Carrboro and other assets to establish Haven For Rest, Inc., to serve temporarily sick pastors and their families; an insurance policy to the C. Wade Goldston Scholarship Fund of Louisburg College; an insurance policy, to his stepmother; an insurance policy, to enable the daughter of a close friend to attend college; all of his clothes, to Church World Service; his eyes, to the eye bank to help a blind person to see; his body, to the University of North Carolina Medical School to be used for research in the battle against diseases.

In life Key Taylor gave all he had to Christ and His church. In death he gave all that remained—even his body—to be a continuing blessing to his fellowman. The greatest gift he left behind was his magnetic, contagious spirit.

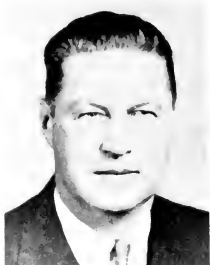

A few years before he died, Key was given many revelations of the Heavenly Realm. Messages from that Realm came through to him that amazed him and represented ideas that were contrary to many he had held across the years. He knew that these messages were colored by him, but at times he felt strongly that they were not of him but only coming through him. In moments of questioning and uncertainty he used to ask: "How does one test such revelations so as to distinguish between the real and the unreal?" When one answered that we test them by the Mind, the Spirit, and the teachings of Jesus Christ, this did not always seem quite to satisfy his incisive and inquisitive mind. However, Key now knows the perfect answer to his question. "For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face," declared the Apostle Paul. He preached a moving and vivid sermon on "Heaven" Homecoming Day in a little country church in Wilson County.

Key was always very modest about his spiritual attainments. He never claimed any of the gifts of the Spirit which Paul speaks of in First Corinthians (12:4ff). However, he had more than one of these gifts, especially the gifts of wisdom and "the ability to distinguish between spirits"....that is, the ability to discern false religions and philosophies. He could readily detect the presence of pretense and hypocrisy, even when it cropped up in himself. His insight and understanding were often highly inspired, but never did this prevent him from keeping his feet on earth and looking straight at the hard realities of a very imperfect Church and World.

In his will, Key had requested that a simple memorial service be held at the Wesley United Methodist Church in Pitt County, a Church which he had organized many years ago and which he served as pastor under three different appointments. Opportunity was given during the service for those present to express their gratitude to God for special ways that Key's ministry had blessed them. Many ministers and lay persons gave beautiful and heart-felt testimonies of his blessings upon their lives. During the singing of the closing hymn most of the people present knelt at the altar for a few moments in prayer to give themselves anew to Christ and the Church which Key loved and served so unselfishly. It was an experience that many will never forget and for which God is to be honored and glorified.

Survivors include his stepmother, Mrs. W. R. Fielder, Yucaipa, California; an aunt, Mrs. Josephine Gillespie, Los Angeles, California; and a cousin, Mrs. Geneva Huggins, Glen Ridge, New Jersey.

LAWRENCE ADAMS WATTS
1894—1975

Lawrence Adams Watts was born on November 18, 1894, in Lynchburg, Virginia, the son of Robert White Watts, groceryman, and Ida Burford Watts. The youngest of five children, he attended public schools in Lynchburg, Virginia and—following military service in World War I—operated a grocery store there in partnership with his brother, Harry S. Watts.

On January 23, 1921, at Bristol, Tennessee, he married Lallah McCoy Brown of Greenville, North Carolina, who was then a student at Randolph Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, Virginia. He worked two years as a Field Representative for Armour Company while he lived in Williamson, West Virginia.

Having given his life to Christ in his early teens, in 1921, he decided to go into the Christian ministry. He was licensed to preach August 18, 1894, received on trial on November 18, 1923, and was ordained Deacon and received into Full Connection in the Methodist Episcopal Church South in 1925 in Fayetteville, North Carolina. After completion of the four year course of study by correspondence at Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia, he was ordained Elder on November 21, 1927 by Bishop Edwin Mouzon in Raleigh, North Carolina.

He served the following churches:

Burgaw-Rocky Point-Jordan-Watha-Herring Chapel	(1923-1927)
Richlands-Jacksonville-Haw Branch-Gum Branch-Verona	(1927-1932)
Seaboard-Pleasant Grove-Sharon-Concord	(1932-1937)

Carthage-Cameron-Center	(1937-1938)
State Prison Chaplain, Raleigh, N. C.	(1938-1945)
Nashville-Red Oak-York	(1945-1951)
Selma-Brietz Chapel	(1951-1955)

Stokes-Vernon-Parmelea	(1961-1965)
St. James, Greenville - Associate Pastor	(1965-1969)

After his retirement, he served the Stokes Charge (1961-1965) and St. James Greenville (1965-1969) as Associate Minister. He enjoyed writing poetry which was sometimes shared with the congregation. He wrote letters to his children almost every day. His keen wit was evident at Administrative Board meetings which added a wholesome joy.

He lived in his own home in Greenville from 1965 until 1973 when he and his wife moved to Timrick Retirement Home near Concord, North Carolina. His entire ministry in the United Methodist Church was spent in North Carolina: thirty-eight (38) years as a parish minister and six (6) years as North Carolina State Prison Chaplain.

He was a patient at Cabarrus Memorial Hospital, Concord, North Carolina, when he died March 31, 1975. Funeral services were held at St. James United Methodist Church, Greenville, North Carolina, on April 1, 1975, with the Reverend F. Roderick Randolph and the Reverend Howard McLamb conducting the service.

It was a service of praise and thanksgiving. In the service, Mr. Randolph said: "Lawrence Adams Watts was an effective minister of the Gospel almost half a century. He was a true Father of Israel who brought men to God and God to men. The family requested that mention be made of their gratitude for what St. James United Methodist Church had meant to their father. That's one of the finest compliments ever given to a congregation."

Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Greenville, North Carolina. He is survived by his wife, Lallah McCoy Brown Watts; his son, Lawrence A. Watts, Jr. of Raleigh, North Carolina; his daughter, Lallah Watts Heath of Kannapolis, North Carolina; one brother, Harry S. Watts of Lynchburg, Virginia, and four grandchildren. Mrs. L. A. Watts continues to live at Timrick Retirement Home near Concord, North Carolina.

He was inducted into the Masonic Order, Lynchburg, Virginia in 1919 and maintained his membership throughout his years in the ministry. He served as Master of lodges in Burgaw, Richlands, and Seaboard. He was actively engaged in Boy Scouts, Red Cross organizations: (1940-1944) served as Chaplain for North Carolina American Legion.

In retirement years, he found pleasure in corresponding with friends of former charges and writing of memories of earlier years. The Reverend Lawrence Adams Watts, having entered God's Hall of Fame, we praise and thank God for his ministry among us. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord . . . their works do follow them."

CHARLES THOMAS ROGERS, SR.
1881—1975

Charles Thomas Rogers, Sr. was born in Newport, North Carolina, on February 22, 1881. He died in Edgecombe General Hospital on May 1, 1975 at the age of 94. Mr. Rogers, before his retirement in 1952, served for 46 years in churches across our conference. He attended the North Carolina State University at Raleigh then known as North Carolina State College.

On June 8, 1904, Mr. Rogers took as his bride Calla Lilly Mann and to this couple were born three sons: James M. Rogers of Newport, Charles Thomas Rogers, Jr. of Tarboro, and the Rev. Harry L. Rogers, one of our retired United Methodist ministers who lives in Raleigh.

In the year 1908 Mr. Rogers was ordained deacon and received into full connection with our conference. Two years later he was ordained elder. Mr. Rogers has stated, "All my ministry has been spent in loving the Lord and preaching from the Bible and I don't feel I ever went wrong." He was a good steward and practiced good stewardship of his life and his talents. The times that I visited him in the hospital, not once did I pray for him, that he did not pray for me afterwards. "God has been good to me and I thank him for everyday" were some of his words that we all need to keep before us.

The appointments that he served while he was in the Lord's service were: Hookerton, Rose Hill and Wallace, Rosemary in Roanoke Rapids, Beaufort, Williamston, Red Springs, Durham, Enfield, Snow Hill, Trenton, Richlands, Wilmington, Scotts Hill, Burgaw and Wallace, and Town Creek.

On May 2, funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Howard McLamb, Greenville District Superintendent and Rev. Caswell Shaw. The committal service was held at the Newport Cemetary by Rev. Shaw and Rev. P. D. Midgett.

MRS. HATTIE MARIE BENGTON OLSON

1896—1973

Mrs. Hattie Marie Bengton Olson was born on October 7, 1896, at Lemont, Illinois. On April 9, 1921 in Chicago, she was united in marriage to Fred H. Diercks. There was one child of this marriage, Dorothy Ann.

After the death of Mr. Diercks in 1943, Hattie continued living in Chicago. In 1953 she was united in marriage to Charles R. Olson, and soon after his retiring in 1954 they moved to Manteo.

They were both life long Lutherans, and since there was no Lutheran church in the community, they worshipped in Mount Olivet United Methodist Church. Soon they were active in the life of the church and joined in 1956. During the Lenten season of 1957, Mr. Olson shared in the No Silent Pulpit program, serving the Collington Church and the Dare Charge. Later he served the Dare Charge as an assistant, and then as the pastor; the charge having three churches, Stumpy Point, Mann's Harbor and East Lake. In this work he had the loyal and helpful support of his wife.

Hattie was a faithful member of the Women's Society of Christian Service, served on the boards and committees of the church, and taught Sunday school classes at Manteo and Mann's Harbor.

When the writer became pastor of Mount Olivet in 1968, Mrs. Olson became the first church secretary, serving as secretary, financial secretary, and bookkeeper, later serving also as treasurer. Hattie was an excellent secretary in every way, helping the pastor in so many ways as he endeavored to learn a new congregation. Since the pastor's study and secretary's office was the same room, many brief conversations took place about what it really means to be a Christian. Her wonderful Christ-like spirit witnessed to her close relationship with our Lord and Savior. The lives of many people are much richer because they were privileged to know Hattie Olson. Certainly, the writer is a better Christian because of his friendship with this good woman.

In 1971 Hattie suffered a slight stroke, which caused her to be absent from work for a short time, but soon was able to resume her duties at the church. As we approached the end of the conference year in 1972, we discussed the advisability of her resigning to enable a new secretary to be in the office the last year of my pastorate, enabling the transition in pastors to be smoother because both pastor and secretary would not be leaving at the same time. At the age of 76 Hattie resigned as church secretary, having served in an outstanding way for four years. After retiring, she continued to live a full life, and taught for a number of months as a volunteer in special education classes in one of the school programs.

Hattie had expressed to the writer several times the hope that she would die suddenly, not wanting to be a burden to anyone or to live beyond a useful life; so on October 30, 1973 her hope was fulfilled, when she suffered a fatal heart attack. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Ann Beasley of Nags Head, one grandson, John Walter Beasley, two stepsons, Robert and Arthur Olson, and six step grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at Mount Olivet United Methodist Church, Manteo, by her pastor, the Reverend Henry A. Bissell, assisted by the writer. Burial was beside her husband, Charles R. Olson, in the beautiful cemetery at Mount Carmel United Methodist Church, Mann's Harbor.

MRS. CLARA LAMBE CRAVEN
1889—1974

Clara Lambe Craven, the daughter of A. A. and Ella Wilson Lambe was born April 4, 1889 in Siler City, North Carolina where she spent her childhood, attending public schools there. She continued her education at Woman's College, now the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She graduated in 1910 and returned to her home town to teach. It was there that she met Eli Baxter Craven, a young Methodist minister serving the Siler City Circuit and they were married, June 25, 1911.

After completing the Siler City appointment, the Cravens served charges in Raeford, Four Oaks, Garner, Conway, Beaufort, Snow Hill, Roxboro, and Fuquay Springs. They returned to Garner in 1942 where ill health forced Mr. Craven's retirement. He died in 1946 after a ministry of thirty-nine years.

For twelve more years, Mrs. Craven continued to make her home in Garner where she was active in both church and civic work. She was a charter member of a book club named in her honor. She held offices in the Garner Woman's Club and the Garner Methodist Church. For a while she served as town clerk.

In 1958 she moved back to Siler City to be near two of her sisters who lived there. She soon became a vital part of the life of the Siler City United Methodist Church and the community at large until an accident forced her to limit her activities.

In 1968 she entered the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham, but continued to make frequent visits to friends and relatives throughout the state. She was visiting her daughter in Charlotte when she became ill and was taken to Duke Memorial Hospital in Durham where she died a few days later on May 30, 1974.

Funeral services were held in Siler City in the Smith and Buckner Chapel, with her pastor, the Reverend Douglas Byrd, and a former pastor, the Reverend R. E. L. Moser of Burlington officiating. She was buried near her late husband in Montlawn Memorial Park in Raleigh.

Mrs. Craven is survived by a daughter, Mrs. J. R. Lowe of Charlotte and a son, E. B. Craven, Jr. of Roxboro. A second son, Jack, died in 1948 while serving in the Navy. Other survivors are three sisters, Mrs. Eugene Allison of Forest City, Mrs. C. C. Brewer, Sr. and Miss Annie Lambe of Siler City, six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

When the news of the death of Clara Lambe Craven reached Siler City, the editor of the local paper wrote a tribute entitled "A Blithe Spirit Departs." No more appropriate words could have been chosen to describe this unforgettable person.

Everywhere she went, her ready wit, constant good cheer, and interest in people won friends for her. Enjoying people was an outstanding characteristic. After attending the dedication service of the Garner United Methodist Church last April, she wrote of how much she had enjoyed the occasion, "especially the folks" and, in return, "the folks" loved and enjoyed her. To the many friends she made in every place she lived, she left a legacy of love, loyalty, and zest for life. As the editor of her paper expressed it, "her unfailing sense of humor attested by the twinkle in her eye made the world so much more livable." Everyone whose life she touched would agree that she has gone to her reward "as well prepared as anyone for the trip."

BERNICE BUCK LEE
1895—1974

Mrs. Bernice Buck Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Buck of Lake Charles, Louisiana was born on November 6, 1895 in Morris, Illinois. She died in Raeford, North Carolina, on August 8, 1974.

It was in a spirit of Christian triumph and faith that funeral services for Bernice were conducted in the United Methodist Church, Raeford, N. C. on Sunday, August 11, 1974 with interment in the Raeford Cemetery. Ministers leading the service were the Reverend James H. Miller, Jr., Superintendent of the Fayetteville District; the Reverend Kelly J. Wilson, Jr.; and the Reverend Gordon Ruggles.

Bernice was a Director of Religious Education, having earned her A.B. degree from Meridian Woman's College, Meridian, Mississippi. She also had a Master's degree from Scarritt College for Christian Workers, Nashville, Tennessee.

She married the Reverend P. O. Lee in November 25, 1920. To this union of over fifty years were born two sons, Robert E. Lee, who is Superintendent of Moore County Schools, who now lives in Carthage, N. C., and Charles O. Lee, who is Assistant Head Master of Wayne County Day School, of Goldsboro, N. C. There are seven grandchildren.

Bernice shared fully, joyfully and faithfully in the ministry of her devoted husband as they served in the North Carolina Conference in various towns and cities. Among them were: Seven Springs, Windsor, Rose Hill, Maxton, Clayton, Stantonsburg, Raeford, Weldon, and Whiteville.

In addition to being an affectionate and helpful wife, a dedicated homemaker, and devoted mother of her two sons, she always found time to be a good neighbor and friend wherever she lived.

Bernice was well qualified through her education and natural ability to be a real helpmeet to her husband in the work of the ministry. She did not miss an opportunity to serve faithfully in her church throughout their long and successful ministry. Never has it been expressed better than these words of wisdom from Proverbs: 31, "The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her—her children arise up and call her blessed; her husband also and he praiseth her."

Mr. Lee and Bernice retired at the 1961 session of the Annual Conference. They had built their home in Raeford during their tenure of service there and it was to this home that they retired.

All who ever knew Bernice Lee loved her. We feel, somehow, that she would have said with the beloved Alfred, Lord Tennyson in "Crossing the Bar,"

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;
For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

MRS. ESTHER ROBERTS EARNHARDT
1898—1974

Mrs. Esther Roberts Earnhardt was born May 23, 1898, in Durham, North Carolina and died on September 26, 1974, in Edenton, North Carolina. Services for Mrs. Earnhardt were held at Bethany United Methodist Church, Durham, N. C., on September 28, 1974. Her sons, the Reverend E. L. Earnhardt and the Reverend Dan Earnhardt, officiated at their mother's funeral. Her body was laid to rest in Maplewood Cemetery in Durham. Surviving are her husband, the Reverend D. E. Earnhardt; two sons, Edwin L. Earnhardt and Dan T. Earnhardt, both of whom are Methodist ministers and a daughter, Mrs. Harold T. Davis, of Goldsboro.

Mrs. Earnhardt was married to Reverend D. E. Earnhardt on January 22, 1918, in Bethany Church, Durham. During their years together she was the president of the Women's Society in nearly every church they served. She played the piano in many revival meetings and took the pulpit and preached on a couple of occasions when her husband took sick. She was a strong ally of her husband as he labored so effectively in the places his church assigned him. Their hearts were one and their unity a great inspiration to the people of their charges. Undergirding her life was a wholesome sense of humor.

In her final illness she maintained her strong faith in God. When she was taken to the hospital for her last stay she told her doctor, "Now I don't want you to try too hard. I have decided to go on to heaven. Just do what you feel you must." She exemplified courage, vision and deep faith.

Esther Earnhardt was a gracious and charming lady. Her winsome manner endeared her to all. Ed and Esther gave me guidance and counsel when I was a young preacher. Their children are a living example of their Christian influence.

As I remember Esther Earnhardt, there was nothing too little for her to do, and no price too great to pay, if she felt duty impelling, or the need of people pressing upon her, or the voice of God speaking in her ears. "Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her."

Thomas Campbell saw deep into reality when he wrote "To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die."

MRS. GLADYS WINN SCOVILLE
1889—1974

Gladys Winn Scoville was born at Graymount, Georgia, July 12, 1889. On October 7, 1907 she was married to the Reverend Virgil P. Scoville who was serving in the North Georgia Conference of the Methodist Church. He transferred to the North Carolina Conference in 1918 where he served Trinity Church in Wilmington for four years. He was then transferred to Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church, Greenville, N. C. While serving this appointment, he died in 1925 and was buried in Greenville.

To this union seven children were born, five of whom now survive: Mrs. M. D. Lasitter, Morehead City, N. C.; Mrs. Harry G. Forbes, Greeneville, Tenn.; Herbert W. Scoville, Arlington, Texas; Mrs. M. L. Starkey and Mrs. Fred P. Sauve of Greenville.

Although Mrs. Scoville was left a widow at the young age of 35 years, she didn't give up or lose her faith but bravely faced the responsibility that was hers. She not only taught her children the way to live but taught them by precept and example, and today they rise up and call her blessed. In her life you saw a loving sympathetic wife, a helpmeet without reservations and motherhood in its finest expression.

These combined in the creation of a home-life that was positive as well as beautiful and in the forming of family ties that bound its members together in loving devotion.

She was a member of The King's Daughters, The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, The Senior Citizens Club, The United Methodist Women in which she held a Life Membership, The Wesley Philathea Class of Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church of which she was a member. She served as an officer in these various organizations, and at the time of her death she had been president of The Wesley Philathea Class for twenty-five years.

She died October 6, 1974 and was buried in Greenville, N. C. Her funeral was conducted at Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church by her pastors, the Reverend James H. Bailey, Reverend John A. Farmer and Reverend Adrian E. Brown.

Who can pay adequate tribute to a life as beautifully lived and unselfishly given in service? Who can fix the bounds of the influence of a Christian life?

The Scovilles so endeared themselves to the people of Greenville that a lot was bought, home built and presented to Mrs. Scoville in loving appreciation of what they had done for the community and church life of Greenville.

And now a picture, "Christ at the Sea of Gallilee," hangs in the Narthex of the church in memory of Virgil and Gladys Scoville who truly lived a life of unselfish service and gave of their best to the Master.

Gladys Scoville's life reminded one of a ripple of water formed by throwing a pebble in a lake. She was ever reaching out to help those with whom she came in contact, and her many friends are filled with Thanksgiving to God for such a life and such a faith.

EDNA MEADOWS SCOTT
1933—1974

The life of Edna Meadows Scott, the wife of The Reverend Julian W. Scott, was cut short tragically, in an unusual automobile accident, October 16, 1974.

Edna, a native of Halifax County, was born May 6, 1933 in Littleton, North Carolina. She was the daughter of Vera Toller Meadows, and the late Harvey Meadows. In 1949 Edna graduated from the Edenton, North Carolina high school, and in 1952 graduated from Southwestern Junior College, at Waxahachi, Texas.

On October 19, 1951 Edna Meadows married The Reverend Julian W. Scott. For over fifteen years this dedicated couple worked as a team, as they served churches in The North Carolina Conference: Pinebluff, Faith, Aaron Lakes, Evansdale-Black Creek, and Plymouth, Edna was always involved in the work of the church. Her special interest was with the youth, and one of her joys was working with youth choirs. Mrs. Scott was a talented singer and guitarist. Her love for the old hymns, the spirituals, and gospel songs enabled her to offer a wide interpretation of her faith. This she did at every opportunity; singing for church groups, civic meetings, and community functions. Her faith was also expressed in her love and concern for people, especially those who had special needs. At the time of her death, she was on a mission with a person of such need. A poem that was used in her funeral expresses her life as well as her faith.

“When my sun of life is low,
When the dewy shadows creep,
Say for me before I go,
‘Now I lay me down to sleep.’
I am at the journey’s end
I have sown and I must reap;
There are no more ways to mend—
‘Now I lay me down to sleep.’
Nothing more to doubt or dare,
Nothing more to give or keep
Say for me the children’s prayer,
‘Now I lay me down to sleep,’
Who has learned along the way—
Primrose path or stoney steep—
More of wisdom than to say,
‘Now I lay me down to sleep.’
What have you more wise to tell
When the shadows round me creep?
All is over, all is well . . .
‘Now I lay me down to sleep.’”

(Bert Leston Taylor)

The funeral was held at Plymouth United Methodist Church, to a stunned congregation, with The Reverend Ray Sparrow and The Reverend Norwood L. Jones officiating. Burial was at the Alamance Memorial Park, Burlington, North Carolina.

Mrs. Scott is survived by her husband, The Reverend Julian W. Scott; a daughter, Mrs. Melody Luther of Greensboro, North Carolina; a son, Julian Warren, Jr.; of the home, her mother; three sisters and four brothers.

VIVIAN CASE DALE NEWTON
1899—1974

On January 26, 1899, there was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Dale of Greene County, North Carolina, a little girl, who was named Mary Vivian. Her mother died at childbirth. Mr. and Mrs. George Case took the baby into their loving care to bring up as their own. Though born a Dale, she was to be known in the future only as Vivian Case.

She was graduated from Eastern Carolina Teachers College in Greenville, now East Carolina University. She also attended summer sessions at The University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill. She taught school for some twenty years, mostly in Farmville.

Vivian met Reverend P. F. Newton when he held a student pastorate nearby. They both felt there was an element of Providence in their meeting. They first found that their singing voices were in tune, and soon realized that their hearts were in tune, also. Vivian Case and Pliny F. Newton were married on May 26, 1936, in Farmville.

They never had any children of their own, but gladly claim Margaret Bradley Johnson, who was so often in their home, and whom they helped educate, as their foster daughter. Mrs. Johnson now holds a responsible position in Educational Work of Children at South Side United Methodist Church in Jacksonville, Florida. She speaks today of the influence the Newtons have exerted in her life, and of the debt of gratitude she owes to them.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton held pastoral charges as follows: Kenly, Rich Square, Enfield, Whiteville, Weldon, and West Burlington. After taking a retired relationship, they served Rock Creek, Alamance County for four years, and Lebanon Church, Orange County for seven years.

At the time of her death on November 4, 1974, they were living in their own home in Graham, North Carolina.

The funeral service was held at West Burlington United Methodist Church, with the Reverend George Ports, the Reverend Nancy Best, the Reverend Barry Lane, and Dr. N.W. Grant officiating. She is buried in Rocky Creek Church cemetery.

Mrs. Newton was interested in every area of the work of the church. On their first charge she organized a vocal training class consisting of six girls. In their recital, some of the songs they used were her original compositions. On every charge they served, she conducted a youth choir. She helped direct Conference Summer Assemblies, and did much of the planning. In the local Youth Fellowship, hers was the guiding voice and hand in the Annual Youth Week programs.

In addition to her contribution to the church as a whole, she was most active in the work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and held offices in each of the churches her husband served. In the district and subdistrict she held the following offices:

1936-37 — Recording Secretary, Tri-County Subdistrict.

1946-50 — District Secretary of Youth Work, Rocky Mount District.

1950-55 — Vice-President, Wilmington District.

1955-56 — Secretary of Promotion, Wilmington District.

Mrs. Newton's record of attendance at church related meetings is phenomenal. She attended five mission study classes held at pastors' schools before the Schools of Missions were established. She missed only one of the Schools of Missions since the first one was held at Pfeiffer College, approximately thirty years ago. She missed only a few of the annual meetings of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Many of us will remember pleasantly her leading the singing each evening on the steps in front of the Chapel at Duke University when the School of Missions was in session there.

In 1956-60 she served as Conference Secretary of Literature and Publications. It was during this quadrennium that she attended Schools of Missions at Lake Junaluska, the meeting of the World Federation of Methodist Women held there in 1956, and a seminar at Literature Headquarters in Cincinnati. She also attended a meeting of our General Missionary Board in New York, and a meeting of the World Council of Methodist Women in Portland, Oregon. She seemed to take seriously the advice given in the second chapter of 2nd Timothy: "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth," for hers was a life of constant growth and spiritual enrichment.

In 1965 she was elected president of the Burlington District and carried out the duties of this office with the same dedication and sincerity of purpose that characterized her entire life.

It was during the years 1956-60 during the pastorate in Weldon, when Vivian and I were both serving as Conference officers of the Woman's Society of Christian Service that I came to know her well. We took many trips together and I came to recognize the true qualities of her character. There was a buoyancy about her, a joy of living, an enthusiasm that made difficult tasks easier, and dark days brighter. She seemed to possess an almost uncanny sense of anticipating your need even before you were aware of it yourself. It does not take a life-time to recognize a person's true worth. It can often be revealed in a moment by some single act. Such moments as these are treasured in my mind and heart.

For her devoted husband and those of us who loved her so well, it is difficult to grasp the fact that she is no longer with us. As expressed in the words of George Eliot, we are confident that she has joined . . . "the choir invisible

Of those immortal dead who live again
In minds made better by their presence," and that she is singing, among other songs, the hymn she loved so much:

"When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!

Then I shall bow in humble adoration
And there proclaim, my God, how great Thou art!"

MRS. ESSIE LEE WILSON WILSON
1897—1974

Mrs. Essie Lee Wilson Wilson was born in Smithcreek Township, Warren County, North Carolina, January 12, 1897. She was the eldest of fifteen children, eight girls and seven boys, born to Samuel Grey Wilson and Carrie Frances Vaughan Wilson. In early childhood her parents moved near Warrenton, the county seat. The change of residence was followed by affiliation with the Warren Plains Methodist Church. Proximity was the deciding factor. It was here that Essie attended Sunday school and church with her family during childhood and youth.

Her formal education began when she entered a private school operated by a Miss Bobbitt, near Macon, N. C. Later she enrolled in the Warrenton Elementary School, and then advanced to the John Graham Academy. Upon graduation from the latter, she moved to Raleigh, and entered King's Business College, having decided on a career in Business Administration. While here she met her future husband, W. Carleton Wilson, of Raleigh, N. C. After a brief courtship, they were married by the Reverend Dr. J. T. Gibbs in a home ceremony at "The Oaks," home of the bride.

During their courtship the young bride-to-be was made aware of the ministerial aspirations of the man she was to marry. Accordingly, the next five years found them in Atlanta, Georgia, pursuing the attainment of this goal at Emory University, in the Candler School of Theology and the College of Liberal Arts. Two children were born to the Wilsons during this period—a daughter, Mary Earle, presently the Director of Choral Music in the Person Senior High School, Roxboro; a son, William Carleton, Jr., deceased. (Casualty, World War II). In the fifth year at Emory, misfortune overtook her husband when he fell victim to Typhoid fever. Prolonged serious illness resulted in the termination of their residency in school, and they returned to North Carolina, planning to return to Atlanta if and when they were able. They never did, however.

The offer of a Teaching position was accepted, and her husband joined the Faculty at the Masonic Orphanage High School, Oxford, N. C., as the Director of Religious Education and Physical Training. By comparison, these were pleasant, carefree days for Essie, now engaged happily in preparation for the birth of their third child, Leonard Truman, born December 10, 1925. (Currently, Pastor of the Ayden United Methodist Church, Ayden, N. C.)

In November, 1926, Essie witnessed her husband's reception On Trial at the Annual Session of the North Carolina Conference held in Durham, N. C. Two years later he was admitted into Full Connection. In the ensuing years she was to share equally both the mountain top and valley experiences of eleven pastoral appointments. In each of these, "Miss Essie" as she became affectionately known, might well have been the woman described in the 31st., chapter, Book of Proverbs. She was a woman of queenly grace and winsome appeal that won the admiration and love of people generally. Her innate goodness, sincerity and equanimity were quickly sensed and felt. She was altogether without pretense and guile. Her very presence usually quited tempests in little teapots. She both believed and practiced, in an unobtrusive manner, the ministry of conciliation. Essie Wilson was an exemplary wife, a devoted mother, and withal a lovely christian lady. Never demonstrative, or diffusive, this modest and somewhat reticent woman possessed an expansive heart filled with human understanding and kindness, compassion and good will, from which no one was ever consciously excluded. Truly, she was one of God's Noble women, blessed with a natural disposition for doing good and being helpful. Her usefulness in the church and community was enhanced greatly by a versatility beautifully expressed in her native talents and acquired skills. Dedicated versatility seemed to be the hallmark of this multigifted woman. She knew, however, that whatever gifts and graces she had were God-given, and she was even intent upon using them "to make the world a bit more beautiful and better because she had been in it." This she did to the praise and glory of God, not for self-praise or personal recognition.

Essie Wilson loved the North Carolina Conference, and her long unselfish service was "a labor of love and a work of faith," usually off-stage or behind the scene where commendations and standing ovations are seldom received. Her helpful advice and actual participation in performing the exacting duties of two responsible offices held consecutively by her husband, that of Conference Statistician and Conference Secretary for thirty-two years, may very well be the reason why he was kept in Office for so long. Although seldom seen and never heard on the Conference floor, she was held in esteem and affection by both laity and ministers. Their courtesy, deference and friendship were received as graciously as they were given.

In numerous local churches and several conference Institutions, memorials have been established to honor her Name and perpetuate her Memory. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

For more than a decade prior to her death, ill-health was an almost constant companion, causing her painful distress and sorely limiting her active involvement in the affairs of church and community. Her interest and concern, however, remained constant, and she continued to support them with her prayers and modest means.

Early on Wednesday at 1:00 a.m., November 13, 1974, her breathing suddenly ceased and she quietly succumbed to a massive heart attack. She was at home when the end came. This was the fulfillment of a hope and the answer to a prayer.

The Funeral was arranged and conducted by her pastor and friend of the family, the Reverend Dr. Clyde G. McCarver, Senior minister at the Hayes Barton United Methodist Church, Raleigh, N. C., Friday, November 15, at 11:00 o'clock. The Service was a memorable experience of praise, thanksgiving, and beautiful tribute to the deceased; a true witness to the glory and power of Christ; an affirmation of personal victory and the certainty of life eternal.

Interment took place at the Raleigh Memorial Park Cemetery, located on Highway 70-West. She was laid to rest in the bosom of the good earth on a sloping hillside overlooking the Park's lovely lake. Here rest also her son William Carleton, Jr., and infant daughter Carolyn Lee. The setting is vocal with peaceful silence and undisturbed serenity, bespeaking solace and comfort, and the fulfillment of a glorious hope and promise to come. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his Saints." Ps. 116: 15

Surviving this dear one "loved and lost awhile" are her husband, the Reverend W. Carleton Wilson, Raleigh; Daughter, Mrs. George G. Berger, Roxboro; Son, the Reverend Leonard Truman Wilson, Ayden; Sisters, Mrs. Harry Wake, Silver Spring, Maryland; Mrs. Stephen B. Hamlet, Wilson; Mrs. Flora W. Stanley, Durham; Miss Myldred Wilson, Clearwater, Florida; Miss Kitty P. Wilson, Greensboro. Seven grandchildren; three great grandchildren.

"Well done thou good and faithful servant, . . . enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

MRS. MARY D. WEAVER
1908—1974

Mrs. Mary Davis Weaver was born April 15, 1908 to John Robert Davis and Susan Gunn Welch Davis in Steel Creek Township, Mecklenburg County, near Charlotte, N. C. Mary was the third of nine children—five sisters and three brothers.

Her first experience at school was at Flint Hill School, about ten miles from Pineville, N. C., and just across the state line in South Carolina. During the years of her youth she attended, with her parents, the Flint Hill Baptist Church—which is said to be one hundred and eighty years old and the mother church of other Baptist churches in the area.

Mary completed her formal education at Steel Creek School in Mecklenburg County North Carolina.

On May 5, 1935 Mary was married to Dennis A. Weaver of the Steel Creek Community. In due time a son, Dennis A. Weaver Jr., was born to them in High Point, N. C. After her marriage Mary moved her church membership to the Central Avenue Methodist Church in Charlotte, N. C., and was soon actively involved in the life of that church.

After returning to Charlotte, Mary worked for Efirds Department Store for a time before going to Charlotte Memorial Hospital to work as a nurse's aid. During all these years and throughout all the years of her adult life Mary was very active in the work of her church and gained a reputation as a woman with a beautiful warmth and compassion. She was happiest when she was doing something for others for which she expected no reward other than the joy and privilege of serving. I found Mary to be a soft spoken, kindhearted woman with a simple, but dynamic faith in God:

Dennis entered the ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference in June, 1960 and served the Faith Methodist Charge until June, 1962. Thereafter, Mary dedicated all her energy toward helping Dennis in his work. The testimony of those who knew her is that she was always ready to help whenever her help was needed. Dennis and Mary transferred to the North Carolina Conference in June, 1962 to serve the Dublin Charge, Dublin, N. C. in the Wilmington District, and were serving the Macon Charge in the Raleigh District at the time of her passing. During the years Dennis and Mary served here Mary won the love and esteem of all the people of the Charge. They will not soon forget her.

Mary had been in failing health for some time and passed into Eternal Life on December 2, 1974. Her funeral was December 4, 1974 at the Macon U. M. Church, Macon, N. C. with the Reverend Grady Haynes and Reverend H. Robert Warren conducting the service. Burial was at the Steel Creek Church cemetery, Charlotte, N. C. Mary is survived by her husband The Reverend Dennis A. Weaver, a son Dennis A. Weaver Jr., and several sisters and brothers.

The eulogy for Mary was closed with this poem from John Greenleaf Whittier:

WHEN ON MY DAY OF LIFE

When on my day of life the night is falling,
And, in the wind from unsunned spaces blown,
I hear far voices out of darkness calling
My feet to paths unknown;
Thou, who hast made my home of life so pleasant,
Leave not its tenant when its walls decay;
O Love Divine, O Helper ever present,
Be thou my strength and stay.
I have but thee, my Father! let thy Spirit
Be with me then to comfort and uphold;
No gate of pearl, no branch of palm I merit,
Nor street of shining gold.
Suffice it if—my good and ill unreckoned,
And both forgiven through thine abounding grace—
I find myself by hands familiar beckoned
Unto my fitting place—
Some humble door among thy many mansions,
Some sheltering shade where sin and striving cease,

GRACE EDITH MACLEAN BROWN

1883—1975

Grace Edith MacLean Brown was born on June 5, 1883, in Vineland, New Jersey, the daughter of Calvin Barber MacLean and Carolyn Frances Dayton MacLean. She died at the age of ninety-two in Raleigh on March 17, 1975. Her body was placed to rest in Montlawn Cemetery, Raleigh, beside that of her husband, Robert E. Brown. Services were conducted by the Reverend Jack Hunter and Reverend Brooks Patten.

Mrs. Brown is survived by two children, Robert MacLean Brown, of Raleigh, and Mrs. Robert T. Kroll (Edith Marion) of Silver Springs, Maryland, and five grandchildren. Her death marks, as it were, a milestone in the history of Highland United Methodist Church, Raleigh, for it was with the developing life and ministry of this congregation that she devoted the last twenty years of her life.

Edith Brown, throughout her long life, was a most unusual person. Following her graduation from the public schools of Vineland, New Jersey, she received the Bachelor of Arts Degree in three years from Temple University in Philadelphia. She was awarded the Master's Degree in Romantic Languages from the University of Pennsylvania, and immediately continued her studies at the University of Heidelberg, Germany, where she earned her doctorate in 1907. She first taught at Friends University in Wichita, Kansas, and later at Southern Methodist University, Georgetown, Texas. It was here that she met her future husband, Robert E. Brown, of Waco, Texas, whom she married on June 7, 1922.

At the time of her marriage she had served as Assistant Dean of Students at Winthrop College, Rock Hill, South Carolina, and also as head of the Department of Modern Languages for two years. She and her husband then lived in New York City where they both did graduate study at The Biblical Seminary. To their union was born a son, Robert MacLean Brown, on December 29, 1923. Upon completion of his seminary training Robert E. Brown joined the North Carolina Annual Conference in 1925, serving the Goldsboro Circuit as his first appointment. A daughter, Edith Marion, was born to the parsonage family on May 30, 1926.

There followed many years of effective ministry at various appointments. Among them were St. Paul's, Goldsboro; First Church, Henderson; Hay Street, Fayetteville; Duke Memorial, Durham. Bob Brown enjoyed a rich and rewarding ministry as a warm and compelling preacher with deep evangelical concern. In no small way Edith Brown shared his winning appeal by her wise counsel and personal love of Christ.

Through the years Mrs. Brown used her unusual scholastic training and theological background as an invaluable guide and resource for the congregations they served. She gave continued encouragement to the church women and the mission work of the U.S.C.S. As church school teacher and counselor-to-teachers she gave precise and scholarly interpretation and was a detailist in history and record-keeping. She carried out her role as mother and pastor's wife with a delicate understanding and desire always to be supportive and give preeminence to the work of her fine preacher-husband. As expressed by her son, she was "in the limelight, but not in the spotlight."

It was with this sense of stewardship that Edith Brown "came into her own" shortly after her husband's death in 1952. At the time, he was serving as District Superintendent of the Raleigh District and plans were being envisioned for response to the dramatic need for new Methodist congregations in Raleigh. When Highland Church was begun in 1954 she encouraged the young congregation in every way. Her home was the center of church life and became affectionately known as "church house." She began serving as a volunteer church secretary and continued in this capacity until declining health forced confinement to her home. But the mission of the church and fidelity of its mission was her central concern to the very end. As long as she was able she represented Highland Church as a member, and for several years as secretary, of the Raleigh Board of Missions and Church Extension. Pastors and lay persons found in her a devoted colleague in ministry.

As she gave of herself in her unique abilities so did she receive the respect and love of those closest to her. In her days of physical incapacity with developing arthritis she responded whole-heartedly and devotedly to a group of ladies from the Highland congregation, whom she termed her "angles." Through them she knew a ministry of love and profound affection which fulfilled the richest meaning of Christian love.

Symbolic of her mind and heart was the small bud vase in her window, which was always filled with a lovely flower—a reminder to all who passed her way of her valiant spirit and living faith. We rejoice in the work of her hands and in God's blessing upon her life. "Well done, good and faithful servant . . . enter into the joy of your master."

ETHEL LERLENE HARRIS
1897-1975

Ethel Lerlene Harris, daughter of Robert Benjamin Brown and Polly Lilly Brown, was born November 6, 1897 in Martin County, North Carolina. After graduating from high school she furthered her education at Woman's College, then called State Normal, in Greensboro, North Carolina from which she received her Bachelor of Arts Degree.

Following her graduation from College she taught for several years in the public schools because she loved children, and from her childhood had aspired to make teaching her life work. The same dedication with which she carried out her responsibilities as a teacher characterized her labor of love as she took to herself the new responsibilities of being a wife and help-mate to her husband. She met Hyman LeRoy Harris while she was a member of the Wendell Christian Church, and he was an aspiring young Methodist Minister. They were married September 2, 1929 in Wendell Christain Church by the Reverend John Waters.

They began their life together serving the Pink Hill appointment, and for thirty-three years the ministry took them to Maysville, Saxapahaw, Knightdale, Carolina Beach, Garland, West Rockingham, Cobb, Macon, and Person Street in Fayetteville. Not only did she serve in making the parsonage a Preacher's Home for many fellow ministers, but a place of welcome for all who entered, especially those seeking help. She also found time to serve in the church and community wherever they lived. She was President of the P.T.A. in Pink Hill. Often she served as President or in other offices in the Woman's Society of Christain Service. She was honored by the ladies on the Cobb Circuit with a life membership in their Society on April 9, 1958 with the declaration that this honor "is only a symbol of the esteem, appreciation and love we feel for you." She served as local correspondent for two daily newspapers for a number of years.

In 1962, with her husband retiring from the active ministry, they returned to their home in Wendell. She did not take kindly to the idea of retirement, and as long as she was physically able remained active in church and community life. She was a member of the Woman's Club of Wendell, serving as chaplain several terms. In the church she remained active in the W.S.C.S., as Assistant Teacher of the Asburian Ladies Class and Leader of a Wednesday morning prayer group.

Following an extended period of declining health she suffered a stroke on the morning of March 12, and her earthly life ended at midnight March 31, 1975. She is survived by her husband, Rev. Hyman LeRoy Harris of Wendell; a son Richard LeRoy Harris and one grandson of Carolina Beach; a younger sister, Mrs. Clyde Cline of Raleigh.

A memorial service was held in Wendell United Methodist Church on Wednesday afternoon, April 2, 1975 by her pastor, The Reverend Samuel L. Wood. Interment was in Gethsemane Memorial Gardens in Zebulon.

Mrs. Lerlene Harris has left her influence as a dedicated Christian on the community where she grew up and, later in life, where she returned to live out her days. Her faithful service is a heritage left to all who knew her.

CONFERENCE REPORTS, LEGISLATION AND RESOLUTIONS

Group A Agency Reports

The Committee on Church Architecture

The Annual Conference Committee on Church Architecture, composed of representatives from Conference Agencies, District Superintendents, architects and ministers, has joined with state and church resources to promote excellence in planning at the local church level. Such planning includes complete review of the local church's ministry, the needs and potential of the community, and the possibilities for an expanded ministry.

In the fall meeting, special attention was given to the role of the District Superintendent and the District Board of Church Location and Building. Representatives from the North Carolina State Building Code Commission provided instruction and direction for both churches and architects.

The annual joint meeting was held at Duke Divinity School March 17 - 18, 1975. The two-day consultation centered upon the task of the church of small membership, particularly in the areas of worship and education. Drs. John Bergland and John Westerhoff of the Divinity School faculty were the resource leaders. Plans are being developed for consultations in local areas as these may be requested by district leaders.

"Guidelines," a brochure based on the disciplinary requirements, is a step-by-step directive for local congregations and district committees. Copies are available upon request from the Annual Conference headquarters and the Office of Rural Church Affairs of The Duke Endowment.

In the early 1900's the towers and steeples became more ornate as Methodists built churches that have become landmarks in North Carolina.

The Commission on Archives and History

The Commission on Archives and History is composed of one layman and one clergyman from each of the districts comprising the North Carolina Annual Conference. Members of this Commission are dedicated toward the preservation of our rich ecclesiastical heritage while striving to make themselves and their fellow Methodists worthy heirs of this heritage.

Members of the Commission met at historic Zion Church in Montgomery County on March 2, 1974 to participate in the unveiling of an historical marker noting that church's establishment in 1786.

This was the year that Methodist Archives was established at The Methodist Building in Raleigh with the Reverend C. Franklin Grill designated as archivist. District Conference minutes are actively being solicited to be deposited in the archives for safe keeping and to be available for researchers.

The Southeastern Jurisdiction Commission on Archives and History met in July at Shenandoah College in Winchester, Virginia and the meeting was attended by five delegates from our Commission. The chairman was appointed to help secure a place for the meeting during the 1976 bicentennial year.

While the file of church histories has been expanding, local churches not already having done so are requested to prepare a history of their church and send a copy to the archives in Raleigh. A research project was begun to secure the founding date and other historic information of all churches in the fifty-six counties of our Annual Conference. This information will be prepared in a church directory to be distributed in 1976.

Our researcher, Joe Watson, has begun a project to search the oldest recorded deed in each county registry for the existing churches of our Conference to add to the church directory.

A task force was appointed to plan for special events during the bicentennial year and the Reverend John Young was elected chairman. He, along with the Chairman of the Commission and the Conference Staffperson assigned to our agency are representatives to a Joint Committee to plan the Bicentennial Celebration to be held jointly with the Western North Carolina Conference at Duke University on April 3, 1976. This committee has begun to arrange the program and special events for that day when the 200th anniversary of the Carolina Circuit, the birth of our Republic and the golden anniversary of the Duke Divinity School will be celebrated.

Both of the historic churches our Commission sponsors have begun to make plans to form private endowments to perpetuate their buildings and continue to provide special services monthly and during the Christmas season as well as an annual Homecoming.

On September 7, members of our Commission met at historic Bahama Church in the Durham District which was an outgrowth of Crossroads Meeting House established in 1740. An interesting program on Methodism in that area of the state was presented.

The Bishops' Call For Peace And The Self-Development of Peoples

The 1972 session of the General Conference of the United Methodist Church inaugurated a quadrennial program on Peace and Self-Development. Pope Paul VI reminded the universe "that peace cannot be limited to the mere absence of war. Peace is something which is built up day by day, in pursuit of an order intended by God, which implies a more perfect justice among men." The late G. Bromley Oxum said, "Peace is like bread, it must be made fresh daily." The writer of Ephesians wrote "(Christ Jesus) is himself our peace. . . In his own body, flesh and blood has broken down the enmity which stood like a dividing wall. . . For he (came) to create. . . a single new humanity in himself, thereby making peace." It was the decision of the General Conference that the convictions expressed by these and many other Christians be implemented in the life and works of the United Methodist Church.

Through the quadrennium the North Carolina Conference Task Force on Peace and Self-Development appointed by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn has been striving to lift the Bishops' Call to a place of concern in Methodism in Eastern North Carolina. There are only nineteen months left in the quadrennium. At that time, the Bishop's Task Force will cease to be an active organization. The success of the four-year venture will depend upon the extent to which the concerns of the Bishops' Call have changed the feelings, the commitments and the actions of United Methodist people in our North Carolina Conference.

In an attempt to have the greatest impact possible, certain commitments have been called for by the Task Force. These are enumerated below:

1. The General Conference called for "each Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church to implement the Bishops' Call, developing its own initiatives and utilizing its distinctive opportunities and expertise." In attempting to fulfill this call, the North Carolina Annual Conference has made the Call for Peace and Self-Development one of its priorities for 1976.

The Bishop's Task Force implores the boards and agencies of the Conference to continue to search out new ways that the Bishops' Call can be implemented. Many boards and agencies have already planned significant and innovative activities designed to lead North Carolina United Methodists to a greater commitment to peace. These programs are outlined in the report of the Council on Ministries. It is hoped that many others will be developed in the year ahead.

2. A second aspect of the General Conference Call was "Each United Methodist congregation is called upon to develop study and action programs designed to create peace-seeking communities of faith at the grass-roots level of the church's life." In an attempt to deal creatively with this charge, teams from each district in the Annual Conference were trained at a tri-conference consultation in Charlotte in April. These teams have been charged to go into the congregations of their respective districts and help them understand the Bishops' Call and to design ways of implementing the Call in the local church and community.

It is only as the concerns of the Bishops' Call reach the local level that it can hope to have any success in the lives of people. With only nineteen months remaining in the quadrennium, a great responsibility is placed upon us as an Annual Conference, as members of conference boards and agencies, and as Christian people to be active witnesses and servants for peace.

Board of Church and Society

We continued our efforts throughout the past year to relate the gospel of Jesus Christ to our church members and to persons and structures in our society but not in our churches. In our attempts to demonstrate the reconciliation brought about by God in Christ and its call for personal, civic, and social righteousness, we did the following: promoted Human Relations and World Order Sundays; encouraged a church-wide study in each parish of the Social Principles and frequent use of the Social Creed; participated in the Responsibility Workshops in each district; conducted an Adult Study Tour to New York and Washington; sent delegates and in some cases provided leadership for Southeastern Jurisdiction and statewide meetings on Church and Society and Prison Reform; led in the implementation of our four tri-district workshops on using United Methodist curriculum in teaching courses for junior highs on Human Sexuality; cooperated with other Christian and humanitarian groups in sponsoring a Peace Education Booth at the State Fair; assisted with the funding of LASER for our youth; and worked with our Conference Task Group and their counterparts from the Western North Carolina and South Carolina Annual Conferences in planning and developing the Carolinas Consultation of the Bishops' Call for Peace and Self-development.

We did not do as well as we would have liked in obtaining members in the Legislative Information/Action Network established by the North Carolina Council of Churches, nor did we meet our goal in getting new members for IMPACT, the federal version of the aforementioned state network. However, we hope to do better in the future.

The North Carolina United Methodist Commission on Continuing Education for Ministers

The challenges, the opportunities and the accomplishments in the field of Continuing Education are set forth in the report of the Annual Conference Committee on Continuing Education. The statewide Commission, composed of representatives of the Committees on Continuing Education of the North Carolina Conference, the Western North Carolina Conference, the Duke Divinity School, and the Duke Endowment, gives full support to the work of the individual committees and provides assistance in coordination of programs and financial resources.

Of particular significance is the joint effort to maintain high quality programs with a wide variety of offerings of subject matter, types of presentations, and locations. Special attention is given to content and length.

Officers of the Conference Committees serve as officers of the State Commission.

We notice that as the economic crunch has progressed into deep recession, the rate of growth has slowed. It would have stopped entirely and our assets would have declined, but for the thrifty members among us. They have continued to practice thrift in spite of the recession.

Now we invite all our pastors and the staff and employees of all our conference institutions and agencies to join with us in the practice of this basic credit union way of life. Let your Credit Union help you practice thrift.

The comparative balance sheet and statement of income and expenses as of May 31, 1973, 1974, and 1975, will illustrate the practice of thrift by your Credit Union. We are constantly trying to improve our operation and curtail expenses for the good of the members.

We quote from our President's report to the Annual Membership Meeting, January 27, 1975, to verify the contention that the Credit Union is operated for the good of its members:

"For the year we earned a total of $69,207.29 on all our business activities. Of this amount the members and depositors received total benefits of $40,472.12, divided as follows:

Dividends on shares	$19,539.84
Interest on deposit accounts	5,176.24
Loan Protection Insurance premiums	4,381.99
Life Savings Insurance premiums	3,778.47
Legal Reserves (for member protection)	5,427.08
Undivided Earnings	2,168.50

This represents more than 58% of the total income returned in dividends, reserves, and protection for our members.

"Bitter sweet" is the name of two different plants, but is better known as a description of the flavor of one of our most popular candies. It is a good description of the experience of your Credit Union since last Annual Conference.

We have shared with you the sweet across the years. Now we must share the bitter, which we wish were not necessary. For the first time in history we "charged off" a few accounts. Our State Administrator of Credit Unions advised us it would in the long run be "beneficial" to the other members. The total charged off was $11,371.64. Most of this was in accounts of members who had left the ministry of our church and declared personal bankruptcy. Not a member now serving in our Conference was involved in this experience. Some of this we have a reasonably good chance of recovering in the future.

This "bitter" experience has a "sweet" part in it. Our delinquency control has been strengthened appreciably and will be pursued diligently—and we seek the co-operation of all borrowers in keeping their accounts current. Stronger collection procedures have been instituted. After "writing off" this amount, we ended 1974 with legal reserves, other reserves, and undivided earnings up a little more than $2700.00 over December 31, 1973. Our shares are $5.00 each, but they were worth a little over $5.25 each on December 31, 1974.

Since organization November 18, 1938, we have loaned over $3,936,894.00, giving us a loss ratio of 0.0028885%.

You belong to your Credit Union, and your Credit Union belongs to you. We take the bitter and sweet together. We invite you to use your Credit Union in two ways:

1. Invest your money in shares and/or deposits.
2. Borrow where the interest rate is favorable and the fringe benefits and rights are great.

In either case, you are practicing thrift!

Credit at other places runs from 12% APR to well above 36% APR, without any loan protection insurance. Some of our preachers are borrowing outside the state where the interest is even higher. Your credit union loans are insured with the premiums paid from the earnings of your Credit Union.

Some are investing for a quick return. At times this is good and necessary, but we call your attention to the fact that generally your best buy is in Credit Union shares.

Study the information below relative to the true value of the first $2,000.00 in Credit Union shares. Even a one-year-old gets a better buy than "passbook" savings at other institutions. By age 12 the true value of credit union shares exceeds the current rate on the lowest yield certificates in comparable amounts. The older you get, the better the true value.

The True Value of Credit Union Shares

Insurance Age of CU Member	Annual Premium Per $1000.00 Whole Life Ins.	Premium Cost Commuted to Annual % Rate	Current Divi- dend % Rate On CU Shares	Effective Annual % Yield From CU Shares
1	$ 12.48	1.248	4.5	5.748
12	15.36	1.536	4.5	6.036
35	31.20	3.120	4.5	7.620
45	46.56	4.656	4.5	9.156
55	75.84	7.585	4.5	12.084
65	124.32	12.432	4.5	16.932
75	224.16	22.416	4.5	26.916

The "true value of your credit union shares is shown in column 5 above. You receive not only the dividend (column 4), but a bonus of life insurance on your insurable shares (the first $2,000.00).

The cost of "Whole Life" insurance per thousand at selected ages (column 1) is shown in column 2. This information is from the "agents' manual" used by an insurance company licensed in North Carolina.

Your cost of insurance per thousand (column 2) has been commuted to dividend equivalent in column 3. Add this to our 4.5% dividend, and you have the "true value" of your shares.

In addition to this, your shares earn accidental death, loss of sight, and dismemberment of limbs in the principal amount of your Life Savings Insurance in force to age 65.

Remember, the insurance ration on your Credit Union shares is:

$1.00 per $1.00 to age 55	on the first $2,000 saves
$0.75 per $1.00, age 55-60	on the first $2,000 saved
$0.50 per $1.00, age 60-65	on the first 2,000 saved
$0.25 per $1.00, age 65-70	on the first $2,000 saved

The insurance coverage remains at the ratio which was applicable at the time the shares were invested, and does not decrease with age.

"The field of membership in this credit union is limited to those having the following common bond of association, occupation, or residence: The resident Bishop, ministers of or serving in the North Carolina Annual Conference, United Methodist Church, spouses of aforesaid ministers and members, and children, natural born and adopted, of any of these. Full-time employees of institutions and agencies of or related to the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, the spouse and children, both natural born and adopted, of the eligible employees."

Article II, Section 1.

If you are eligible under this field of membership, please avail yourself of Credit Union services.

So let us save and serve together this year. Let us make thrift our way of life in 1975. "Keep thrift alive in '75!"

Respectfully submitted,
C. M. Mitchell, Treasurer

Burlington District

NICHOLAS W. GRANT - DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT

As we come to the close of another conference year and take account of our work on the Burlington District we are impressed with the progress made in a number of areas. May I express our gratitude for the devoted service which has been rendered by many in our District.

SPECIAL MINISTRIES - The most outstanding endeavor has been the progress made in Caswell County as the Caswell Cooperative Parish was organized. Fifteen churches on the six charges of the county worked together in such programs as the Christian Worker's School, a prison ministry, a youth program, and the establishment of a County Office which is rendering service to all of the charges through the employment of a secretary who serves all.

A second area of work which has been outstanding has been programs of service by local churches across the District to the aged and exceptional people. The following local churches were involved in this work: Cedar Grove, Front Street, Emmanuel, Cedar Cliff, Palmers Grove, Swepsonville, and Yanceyville.

MEMBERSHIP - Nineteen charges enjoyed a net gain in membership during 1974 while 27 charges suffered a loss. The net loss for the District was 283. Though no emphasis was promoted in the matter of "cleaning up the church roll," several churches were involved in this practice. The Hightower and Milton Charges gave emphasis to this matter. However, this brought no great effect on our work for when it was accomplished we discovered we had the same weaknesses we had before.

BUILDING AND IMPROVEMENTS - Over a half of a million dollars was spent in 1974 on the improvement of our church property. A new church plant was started for Cedar Cliff. Emmanuel Church was completed. Faith and Hebron Churches were dedicated. A District parsonage was purchased. A new parsonage was built at Hebron. The Fairview, Lebanon, Phillips Chapel, and Salem parsonages were dedicated. Front Street made extensive improvements to its parsonage.

FINANCES - At the beginning of 1974 the District had accepted 90.6% of its Single Figure Fair Share Quota or more than 5% above its acceptance the previous year. At the close of the year the charges made 100% payment on their acceptances. In other areas of Conference finances the District increased its percentages as follows: Ministerial Education 8%, Black Colleges 31%; Interdenominational Cooperation 24%; while it doubled its participation in the Junaluska Fund.

In conclusion I would like to express our appreciation to Mrs. T. J. Jones, President of United Methodist Women and to George H. Forehand, District Lay Leader for their superb leadership. Both have given untiring service to their areas of work. Especially, would I like to thank the District Lay Leader for the tremendous support he gave the work of the District in attending most of the 1974 Fall Charge Conferences. At no time in my ministry have I enjoyed such help.

We thank God for the faithfulness of all who have been a part of our work this year.

Elizabeth City District

NORWOOD L. JONES, SUPERINTENDENT

This report reflects some of the dedicated involvement of the thirty-six ministers and the hundreds of Christian Laypersons serving the seventy-two churches of the thirty-five charges in the Elizabeth City District. Like all reporting, those things which are obvious and appealing, and reflect success are called to attention, while the truly significant and meaningful events and experiences often remain hidden.

MEMBERSHIP AND EVANGELISM - We point out with much joy that one hundred and eighty-three persons were received into the churches by Profession of Faith, and of great importance are the two hundred and forty-three members received by transfer of membership. This gives a total of four hundred and twenty-six members which is the largest ingathering of members in this district within the last ten years. We also lift up the one hundred and sixty-five persons who received the sacrament of Christian Baptism.

MISSIONS AND BENEVOLENCES - One of the main thrusts of this year was Missions. We see some of the impact of this thrust by the $13,082 raised in Mission Advance Specials. The response to the several General Church Special Offerings was $2,462; the Ten Dollar Club was $1,260 and $1,928 for the Lake Junaluska Campaign. This makes a total of $19,018 raised for "Others." In addition to this amount $286 was raised at the District Lay Rally for the District Scholarship Fund.

LAY LIFE AND WORK - The District is fortunate to have Mr. Donald Craft as the Lay Leader. His leadership in the No Silent Pulpit Program during Lent, and with the District Lay Rally is exceptional. Our District Board of Lay Life and Work has provided able leadership to the total program of the Conference. The United Methodist Women, with Mrs. Herbert Mullen as President is one of the pillars of Methodism in this district. The District Lay Rally was attended by three hundred and fifteen persons and three hundred and thirty-eight were present for the Missions Conference. We have one thousand, nine hundred and fifty-seven members of United Methodist Women and twelve United Methodist Men Groups. In our other Lay Leadership opportunities we had one hundred and forty-nine in attendance.

DEDICATIONS AND BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS - Education Buildings and Fellowship Halls were dedicated at Sharon, Currituck Charge; Mount Hermon, Creswell Charge, and Sharon, South Mills Charge. The Kinnakeet Charge dedicated a beautiful new parsonage. Kitty Hawk has begun construction of its new sanctuary. Mount Olivet, Manteo dedicated a new organ, and Newbegun dedicated a new organ and piano. Altogether $363,991 was spent in building improvements and payment of loans and interest, which indicates the new surge towards adequate and beautiful facilities.

SPECIAL MINISTRIES - Our district is unique in its opportunity to provide a special ministry on the beaches. The Circus Tent Ministry at Kitty Hawk, with its Christian Book Store, gardens, and performances each night ministered to over 49,500 people. The Show Boat, which travels up and down the beach, giving special puppet shows to children, the elderly and shut-ins to over 6,000. A regular Sunday morning worship at Bells Island camp ground provided worship for 836.

The United Methodist Churches of the District provide meeting places for twenty-two Alcoholic Anonymous, Al-Teens and Al Anon groups. Also our churches sponsor fourteen Scout groups which include Boy Scouts, Explorer Scouts, Cub Scouts, and Brownie Troops.

Saint Paul in his letter to Philippians says, "I have not yet reached perfection," but then adds, "but I strain to reach the goal." We in the Elizabeth City District have not yet reached perfection, but we are straining to reach the goal.

Goldsboro District

J. PAUL EDWARDS, SUPERINTENDENT

This report reflects the work of the dedicated ministers and laypersons in the Goldsboro District for the year 1974.

LICENSE TO PREACH - Three mature and dedicated Christian men were given the license to preach at the District Conference: Thomas B. Bacote, James Lee Jacobs and Linwood Sutton Jones. In addition there are five young men now working on the Course of Study for the License to Preach.

MEMBERSHIP - The churches of the district have received 271 persons on Profession of Faith and 387 by Transfer for a total of 658 additions. Many pastors brought their rolls up to date and 284 were removed by action of the Charge Conference. As a result we show a net loss of 91.

LAY WORK - The United Methodist Women, under the leadership of Mrs. Edith Holloman, has been very active. Workshops were held in each of the sub-districts. A net gain in membership of 50 was shown. Thomas Strickland, the District Lay Leader, gave strong leadership in every area. The No Silent Pulpit Program was followed during the period of Lent, district workshops were held for Presidents of United Methodist Men and Church Lay Leaders and 461 attended the Lay Rally.

BUILDING PROGRAMS AND DEDICATIONS - Friendship Church on the Turkey Charge built a fellowship hall at a cost of $15,000, Wallace Church completely renovated its sanctuary at a cost of $93,000, Trinity Church on the Institute Charge built a $35,000 parsonage and St. Paul Church in Goldsboro built a $100,000 parsonage. Whitley Memorial Church, Smithfield, dedicated their church plant and Brogden Church dedicated their church building.

FINANCES - For the fifth consecutive year the Goldsboro District paid 100% of its acceptance on the Single Figure Asking. The churches raised pastors' salaries on average of 10% for 1975.

APPRECIATION - The many wonderful things that have happened in the Goldsboro District to advance the work of God could not have happened if it were not for the forty five ministers serving in this area and the dedicated laypersons in the seventy two churches who gave of themselves, their time, talents and material substances. It has been a joy working with each and every one of them during the past year.

Purpose was to start new churches as needed and assist older small churches get needed facilities. Recent focus of the society has been on the older small churches, and many of them have come to new life because of our prayers and encouragement. Financial support is from the annual Christmas offerings and our budget of $10,000 was more than raised in the recent Christmas offerings of the churches.

Rockingham District

JOYCE V. EARLY, SUPERINTENDENT

The new Rockingham District was organized in 1972 and has made good progress in the work of the Kingdom. The first Rockingham District was organized in 1892 and served until 1932 when it was discontinued after 40 years. Then 40 years later the present district by the same name came into existence. It embraces 77 churches located in Richmond, Robeson, and Scotland Counties, with a total membership of 16,271.

EVANGELISM - During 1974 the pastors received 199 by profession of faith; 229 by letter, and 115 from other denominations, for a total of 543. The average attendance at the weekly worship services was 6,799, and the average attendance at Sunday School came to 5,387.

BUILDINGS AND IMPROVEMENTS - Salem Church on the Cedar Grove-Salem Charge was completely remodeled and the church brick veneered; new furnishings, pews, carpeting added. New Zion on the Pembroke Circuit greatly was improved with new pews, carpeting installed. First Church, Laurinburg remodeled the Ed Guest Building, and painted the church. Ledbetter on the Roberdel charge completed their new educational building, as did Hickory Grove on the Prospect charge. Plans perfected for the construction of a new church at Ashpole with work to begin this summer.

PARSONAGES - The parsonage at Fellowship Church, Hamlet was dedicated by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn on November 10, 2974.

The handsome new district parsonage was purchased on May 24, 1975. It is located at 1417 Carolina Drive in Richmond Park, Rockingham. This nine room house has four bedrooms, a large paneled family room with fireplace, living room, formal dining room and kitchen. There are three baths, and a double carport. The purchase price was $52,445 plus furnishings.

LUMBERTON RETIREMENT HOME - This new home is under construction and is due for completion by the spring of 1976. We are grateful to Chestnut Street Church, Lumberton, for taking the lead in securing $425,000 to meet the conference requirements to assure the location of this facility in Lumberton.

MISSIONS - Giving to Mission Specials has greatly increased during the year. Each charge conference accepted a special. A team was sent to Nicaragua. A week-end "Adventure in Missions" was promoted in February 1974 with seven churches participating.

THE LAITY - The district Lay Rally was held in Scotland High School with the largest attendance ever, 1,012. In addition the laypersons attended well the missionary rally, the Council on Ministries information sessions, and the pre-conference briefing session.

DISTRICT FINANCES - The charges accepted $274,586 for Single Figure on an asking of $286,627 or 95.7%.

30 charges or 2/3 accepted in full their Fair Share quota

11 additional charges accepted an increase

5 did not take an increase

More than $11,000 was raised for World Hunger by the churches

Pastors' salaries for 1975 were increased by $31,019.00 or 10%.

The district is consistently among the top three or four districts in the conference in the percentage paid montly on the Single Figure.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN - This organization continues to make good progress. Mrs. Allen C. Lee had to resign as president due to her health, and Mrs. George Briley of Lumberton is the new president of the district.

The Rockingham District has had another wonderful year. To witness blacks, whites, and native American churchmen working together for Christ and His Church is truly an inspiration. I am grateful to God for the opportunity I have had to lead this district during the first three years of its existence and pray His continual guidance upon the ministers and laypersons in the years ahead.

Rocky Mount District

JOHN M. CLINE, SUPERINTENDENT

The Rocky Mount District is blessed with dedicated ministers and laypersons. The fruits of their labors in the work of God's Kingdom are partially contained in this report.

YOUTH - With the special emphasis of the Conference on Youth and Young Adults our district has been led in this area very ably by Rev. Robert Flynn, Coordinator of Youth Work for the District. Two hundred youth of the district participated in an all-day rally and workshop at North Carolina Wesleyan College. Youth were included both in the planning and the presenting of the program for the District Lay Rally.

EVANGELISM - Through sub-district listening sessions conducted by the District Council on Ministries our leadership learned that evangelism is top priority among the people of our district. Three teams of pastors and youth attended a workshop at Methodist College for training in personal evangelism. During 1974 there were added to the memberships of the churches of the District: By Profession of Faith - 259; By Transfer - 416; Total Additions - 655. There was a net loss of 23 for the year.

STEWARDSHIP - The 43 pastors of the district received increases in salary totaling $36,114. Increases in Single Figure total $13,907. These and other increases in every facet of the budgets for conference program reflect a genuine concern on the part of our churches to do their best in the challenges and opportunities of Christian stewardship.

DEDICATIONS AND BUILDINGS COMPLETED - Middlesex Church was dedicated on June 2, 1974 by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn. The Educational Building at Jackson was dedicated on October 13, 1974 by the District Superintendent. These facilities have been completed and are adding effectively to the life and ministry of the churches using them: the fellowship hall at Mount Pleasant; the fellowship hall at Spring Church; the sanctuary and educational building at Shiloh, Gaston; Elm City has made extensive renovation of their fellowship hall, kitchen and basement classrooms.

DISTRICT PARSONAGE - The family of the district superintendent moved into the modern and beautiful new district parsonage at 3621 Sheffield Drive, Rocky Mount on December 13, 1974.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN - How pretty they were - the ladies of the Rocky Mount District as they filled the Scotland Neck United Methodist Church for their District Annual Meeting to share in a program presented by members of the Bolivian team. Three well-attended sub-district meetings followed during the year with the theme, "To Be Alive."

LAY LIFE AND WORK - The District Lay Rally was highly successful and inspiring with 500 in attendance. Three scholarships for higher education were granted to youth of the district from funds received through the District Lay Rally.

For the achievements of the year special tribute should be paid to James R. Watkins, District Lay Leader and Chairman of the District Council on Ministries; Mrs. C. H. Banks, Jr., District President of United Methodist Women; Earl Baysden, District Treasurer; and Robert Bourne, Chairman of the Building Committee for the District Parsonage. These persons have given unstintingly of their time and energies to furnish leadership for the district program. Others have supported them and followed their leadership.

Sanford District

JAMES H. McCALLUM, SUPERINTENDENT

Credit is given to God and to the faithful laypersons and pastors of the Sanford District for another year of progress.

MEMBERSHIP - Our District gained a total of 696 members, but had a loss of 727, making a total net loss of 31 members. We are very sorry to report this loss but accept this loss as a great challenge.

STEWARDSHIP - The Single Figure giving increased 9.54% and the total increase for pastors' salaries is 10.40% compared with last year. An intensive stewardship emphasis was conducted in most of the charges with great results.

PROGRAMS - The District Council On Ministries, the Reverend Reginald W. Ponder, chairperson, has given supportive leadership to the work in the District. The workshop in local church leadership was successful. The Laity Rally was held at St. Luke under a new format and 800 persons attended. The Reverend Charles S.

Hubbard and Bishop Blackburn were the speakers. L. M. Lutterloh is Lay Leader. Fifty-seven lay-speakers traveled 2,056 miles to supply pulpits during the "No Silent Pulpit," conducting 103 worship services attended by 3053 persons. These lay-speakers are rendering a service which cannot be measured. Three United Methodist Men's organizations have been organized or reactivated. Forty-five men gathered at Camp Crestmont for a week end retreat and another retreat is planned for this year. The work of the United Methodist Women is progressing under the leadership of Mrs. C. P. McMillan, president. They met at Pittsboro for the annual meeting and a retreat was held at Lemon Springs. Large numbers attended both meetings. The Reverend Tommy Herndon, Jr., Coordinator of Youth Ministries and Miss Lynn Safrit, President of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, have given splendid leadership to the young people.

BUILDINGS AND IMPROVEMENTS - The new Mount Carmel Church on the Pleasant Hill Charge has been completed. This lovely modern building is serving the needs of this congregation. Beautiful parsonages have been completed on the Asbury-Bethlehem Charge, the Chatham-Zion Charge and the Goldston Charge. The Trinity Church on the Poplar Springs-Trinity Charge and the District parsonage have been dedicated.

Again, I wish to express my thanks to the wonderful laypersons and pastors for their loyal support.

Wilmington District

W. J. NEESE, DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT

I am pleased to express here my profound gratitude for the Christian faithfulness and the cooperative spirit of the pastors and lay persons of the Wilmington District. Their diligent efforts have resulted in a fruitful year of substantial accomplishments in many of our churches. I am happy to make this report to the North Carolina Annual Conference on their behalf.

MEMBERSHIP - During the 1974 calendar year, 709 members were received into our churches, with 249 of these coming by profession of faith. Due to the fact that some of our churches reported substantial losses resulting from Charge Conference action, the District reported a net loss of 68. However, several of our churches had encouraging net gains in membership. The total church membership of this District on December 31, 1974 was 14,940.

FINANCES - For the period covered by the calendar of 1974, the churches of the District paid 90.0% of their Single Figure Apportionment—or a total of $216,983. It should be said that our District paid 99.0% of our Single Figure Acceptance. The following amounts were raised for some of our other important causes: General and Conference Advance Specials - $7,844; Ministerial Education Fund - $11,862; Black College Fund - $2,722; and Lake Junaluska Fund - $1,278.

BUILDING PROJECTS AND IMPROVEMENTS - The building of Bethesda Church on the Old Dock Charge was dedicated; The new sanctuary building of the Pine Valley Church was completed; a new educational-fellowship building was completed at Wrightsboro; at Zion Church on the Town Creek Charge, the entire present structure was brick-veneered; the interior of the Burgaw sanctuary was re-decorated; and the interior of the Wesley's Chapel educational building was re-decorated.

SPECIAL MINISTRIES - There is a very effective Resort Ministry at Long Beach which is being sponsored by Ocean View Church. St. Paul Church of Carolina Beach is participating in an ecumenical Resort Ministry at Carolina Beach. Camp Shallotte and Shallotte Circuit are participating in a Resort Ministry in the Calabash area, which had its beginning last summer. We are participating in an ecumenical ministry to Seamen coming into the port of Wilmington through the Seamen's Service Center.

The accomplishments of the past year encourage us to believe that the current year will be an even better one for Christ and His Church within the Wilmington District and in those areas throughout the world in which we serve.

In the celebration of its first fifty years The Duke Endowment Rural Church Program placed emphasis on the future challenges more than past accomplishments. The Division of Evangelism

In reflecting upon 1974-75 as a year of evangelism in our conference, two events emerge as highly significant. One was The New World Missions conducted across the Districts during the month of March. Basically, this was an attempt by the Division to involve us in the world outreach of Methodist evangelism, and to participate in a people-oriented effort to equip both Clergy and Laity in a continuing Christian Witness at the local church level. All reports on these missions have been favorable, for which we are deeply grateful.

The second event was the Youth Conference on Creative Evangelism, held at Methodist College in Fayetteville February 22nd, 23rd, 1975. The purpose of the Conference was to train Youth teams in all Districts as resource persons in Youth Evangelism at the local church level. Therefore, we were deliberately selective in determining the number to attend, in order to include the most competent and committed young people. Leadership was drawn from our General Board of Discipleship, our District Directors of Evangelism, and Conference Staff persons responsible for Youth and Outreach Ministries, and the results were rewarding.

In offering direction for the 1975-76 conference year, the Division of Evangelism submits the following recommendations for the approval of the 1975 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

43. That each local church or charge shall consider holding Lenten preaching services emphasizing Christian Commitment. To be implemented by the local church Council on Ministries.
44. That we shall consider training 24 pastors as "New Life Missioners" during August of 1976. To be implemented by the Division of Evangelism.
45. That a pilot "New Life Mission" shall be held in at least one local church in each District during September and October of 1976. To be implemented by the District Council on Ministries.
46. That a Task Force on Black Evangelism shall be appointed for the purpose of exploring new models of ministry to the Black Community. The Task Force shall be composed of: The Chairperson of the Division of Evangelism, the Coordinator of Outreach Ministries, The Director of Black Studies at Duke Divinity School, The Coordinator/Enabler for Special Ministries, three black Pastors, and three black Lay Persons, selected by the Division of Evangelism. To be implemented by the Division of Evangelism.
47. That the recommendations of the Task Force on Black Evangelism become the basis for a pilot project on "Black Evangelism" conducted in 1976 in a selected community in the North Carolina Conference. To be implemented by The Task Force on Black Evangelism and the Division of Evangelism.
48. That each local pastor shall hold at least one period of Confirmation Training during 1976. To be implemented by the local pastor.
49. That each local church Administrative Board shall set a goal of the number of new members to be received on Profession of Faith during 1976, and that this goal be reported to the District Superintendent at the 1975 Charge Conference. To be implemented by the District Superintendent.
50. That there shall be Tri-District workshops on Contemporary Evangelism, February 23-26, 1976, for pastors, local church Chairpersons of the work area of Evangelism, and Chairpersons of the local church Council on Ministries. To be implemented by the Division of Evangelism.

We recommend the reappointment of the Reverend Tommy Tyson as Conference Evangelist for the 1976-76 Conference year.

Methodist Foundation, Inc.

During the past year—our twentieth—the investment policies of your foundation were really tested, and I am pleased to say that our long range objectives to date have proven to be sound, Earnings and distributed dividends—since inceptions—have shown an uninterrupted year-to-year improvement. During 1974, dividend distribution was in excess of $260,000—by far the largest earnings distribution to date.

During the year, we again experienced a dramatically weak equities market with many quality names showing a market deterioration of 50% or more. Our proven policy of continuing to add the quality names during this depressed period has again proven to be most sound in that a remarkable recovery has been made from the low period of December, 1974.

During the year, we have further consolidated the fixed income sector of the portfolio into larger units and have added both to the fixed income and the real estate mortgage sectors at historically high interest yields.

There is reason to believe that the coming year will again reflect a continued improvement in our overall performance—and the amount of disposable income that can be distributed.

Methodist Information

Angels do not need publicity, but the church does. Through Methodist Information, we seek to inform with factual information the events and stance of the United Methodist Church. Our reading, listening and viewing audience goes beyond United Methodist, and thus we are taking our message "to all the world."

Two major events have had excellent coverage during this church year. One, the appointment of Preston Jones to Cokesbury United Methodist Church, Raleigh, received not only local coverage but national coverage in the church and secular press. CBS-TV covered his first preaching service, with a crew from WBT-TV in Charlotte and aired this event on the CBS Morning Show.

The concerns of North Carolina Wesleyan College, Rocky Mount, have received local and national coverage in the church and secular press.

We wish to commend the many local news media that are giving coverage to local events. They are too numerous to list, but a special commendation goes to the Wallace Enterprise for the coverage of the Workshop on Religion and Race held in Wallace and other local church news. The Rocky Mount Evening and Sunday Telegram also receives our special commendation for coverage related to Wesleyan College.

United Methodists in eastern North Carolina should know of the consistent cooperation of the following outlets: Associated Press and United Press International (Raleigh bureaus), the News and Observer, the Durham Morning Herald, the Fayetteville Observer and the Fayetteville Times. Radio station WPTF (Raleigh) and the North Carolina News Network, composed of 78 stations, Channel 5 (WRAL, Raleigh) and Channel 11 (WTVD, Durham), have all been very cooperative. Channel 6 (WECT, Wilmington) and Channel 5 (WRAL, Raleigh) have covered this conference.

The North Carolina Advocate continues to give excellent coverage to local and major events within the Conference.

WPTF and the North Carolina News Network are carrying taped reports of this conference.

Several daily newspapers have or will cover the proceedings of this conference, and AP and UPI wire services are being provided copy for distribution across the state.

A Conference Pictorial Directory is in the planning for the 1976 Annual Conference session.

The Committee on Interpretation Report to Annual Conference

I. RECOMMENDATIONS:

- A. That each district in the North Carolina Annual Conference have "Operation Understanding" during the 1976-1980 quadrennium. This program is designed (1) to get an interpreter from one of the general boards or agencies of the Church into each charge; (2) to interpret the World Service dollar and other benevolences in each local charge; and (3) to train district lay persons to be interpreters of the benevolent causes of the United Methodist Church.
- B. That the Committee on Interpretation continue to publish annually an interpretation brochure that can be distributed to each United Methodist family in the conference. Each local church will be responsible for devising a plan for distribution.
- C. That each local church inform its members about Info Serv 1-800-251-8140.

II. REPORT:

- A. The Committee on Interpretation shared with the Division on Stewardship in conducting "Finance-Interpretation Workshops" in most districts.
- B. Published a study guide on finance for the North Carolina Annual Conference. Copies were provided for all Administrative Board members in the conference.

The Division of Interreligious And Ecumenical Concerns

Regular meetings of the Division are taking place in communities in which there are note-worthy ecumenical projects. The spring meeting was held at Duke Divinity School, where the work of Durham Center City Council was explained. The fall meeting took place at Centenary, Smithfield and here the work of "Contact" (telephone ministry) was presented.

Two classes on the work of Councils of Churches were led at R & R by Dr. Tom Collins.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is being observed with enthusiasm in a number of communities in our Conference.

A newsletter was mailed to local chairmen in which ecumenical projects were shared. This is to be published yearly.

Dr. Cecil Bishop, President of the N. C. Council of Churches, was the speaker for the Annual Ecumenical Breakfast at Annual Conference.

We would be remiss if we did not report on the excellent work which is being done by the N. C. Council of Churches and its director, Dr. Sam Wiley. Church Women United, a Department of the Council, which sponsors World Day of Prayer, May Fellowship and World Community Day also does many other things. It promotes the Migrant Ministry (which has spiritual emphasis), Church World Service Clothing Appeal and many other projects. The Council gives Service Awards and Communication Awards. The most significant development in 1974 has been the Council's ministry with the Aging. Reverend Richard McCleery, a United Methodist Minister, is serving as its director. He is developing two models for Church ministries with the aging. A weekly broadcast (over WPFT) "This Week in Religion," is sponsored by the Council. The work of Reverend Collins Kilburn, Director of Social Ministries, has been commendable. He works mostly with state-level issues, both secular and ecclesiastical. A major thrust of his work is with legislation. He is a liaison/lobbyist person with the General Assembly. Tax reform; prison reform and ministry (he collaborates with our Yokefellows groups); E. R. A.; ethics legislation; hunger and child care are some of the issues with which he deals. An exciting innovation has been in the work of the Commission On Christian Unity. The group has met with area leaders of District level from several denominations. They have held conferences in two areas of the state at which time they discussed, "What are the problems of this area and how can they be faced in the context of theological insight?" These conferences faced issues dealing with health care, youth counseling, interracial trust, poverty and hunger, urban and prison ministry, etc. The Commission served as an enabler to these groups.

The phrase "ecumenical movement" is an apt one, for truly ecumenism is a movement in North Carolina.

Mr. Henry Goodwin, Secretary

Ministerial Course of Study School

Our theme for the 1975 Ministerial Course of Study School is, as our brochure suggests, "Theology Plus." We are concerned that the lay pastor have a basic education in theology—with a course in each of the five years of study on the Bible, with a course each year on theology, with basic and advanced courses in church history, and finally in our theological scheme much emphasis is placed on practical theology—church administration, preaching, counseling, and worship. These areas are presented to the students from a theological perspective. That's theology. The "plus" relates to the many positive dimensions to our school which can not be exhausted by course titles themselves. Several of these extras are: the morning coffee break, mid-point between four hours of classroom work, the banquet, the choir, the putt-putt golf tournament. These are the "pluses," at Duke MCOS.

School sessions will be June 23-July 18. Our total enrollment for 1974 was 238, with 70 students from the North Carolina Annual Conference. This year we anticipate the overall enrollment and participation from your Annual Conference to be commensurate with last year.

Two individuals from the Conference merit special mention in their arduous support of the school: William W. Sherman, and Robert F. Bundy. During the current year both Messrs. Sherman and Bundy have given creative and supportive leadership through the Division of Ministry to the training and preparation of the lay pastors. My deep appreciation to them and to the District Superintendents and Boards of Ministry who have been so supportive and encouraging in this area of your Conference's activity.

Committee on Parsonage Standards

Following the 1974 Annual Conference Session, the Committee on Parsonage Standards edited and published a brochure entitled "A Guide For Locating, Building, Furnishing, and Maintaining Parsonages."

We used the Coordinated Mailing of the Council on Ministries to distribute approximately 1800 copies of the brochure: one to each minister; each minister's spouse; and one to the chairman of the parsonage committee in each charge. Additional copies of the brochure are available from the Director, Program Council, Box 10955, Raleigh, N.C. 27605, or from the Chairman of the Committee.

Since the mailing, there have been numerous requests for additional copies of the guidelines, so our feeling is that we have helped to meet a need.

Division of Stewardship

We have had another great year of enlarging the scope and activities of our Division. We are grateful for the leadership, interest, and encouragement Bishop Blackburn has given us. Also, our thanks to the Reverend Charles H. Mercer, our Conference Director of the Council on Ministries, for his support of our work. The Reverend C. Franklin Grill, Coordinator of Resources, gives creative leadership to our Division, for which we are grateful.

Our Executive Committee was enlarged to include Chairpersons for various responsibilities. The Reverend E. C. Lancaster is the Chairperson for The Christian Stewardship Crusade; the Reverend J. C. Parker is Chairperson for The Commitment Plan; the Reverend Argel H. Payne is Chairperson for the Division budget matters; and the Reverend D. L. Byrd is Chairperson of the Department of Gifts and Wills.

In January, 1974, Dr. Gordon Danielson from our General Board of Discipleship, came to Raleigh to prepare our Division to lead the churches in the use of The Commitment Plan. The Reverend Gene Williams, who had just been employed by the Board of Discipleship to head up the implementation of The Commitment Plan throughout United Methodism, accompanied Dr. Danielson. Mr. Williams returned to our Conference in August to lead in the Tri-District Training Workshops on The Commitment Plan. The Commitment Plan was used by 25 churches in 1974 in our Conference.

During January, 1974, the Division furnished leadership in the Administrative Workshops throughout the Conference.

The Christian Stewardship Crusade was developed during 1974, and available for the first time to the churches of the North Carolina Conference. There were workshops held in each District for The Christian Stewardship Crusade during March, 1974. There were 10 churches in the Conference that held The Christian Stewardship Crusade.

Wills and Estate Planning Seminars were held in four churches with a goal to hold one in each district.

We urge each church in the Conference to use The Commitment Plan in 1975, or the Christian Stewardship Crusade, to supplement its stewardship emphasis and budget build-in the church.

The Office of Coordinator of Resources provided thousands of pieces of stewardship materials for the local church use as requested.

Various members of the Division, and our Coordinator of Resources, have participated in Conference, Jurisdictional, and National events to coordinate our program in stewardship with that of the general church.

Department of Gifts and Wills

YEAR 1974

The Department of Gifts and Wills operates in an administrative role through the Division of Stewardship to promote deferred giving and invest funds in The Methodist Foundation, Inc., according to the terms of the donor. Most of these are scholarship funds, some charitable remainder trusts, and others are invested funds for the benefit of the camping program. One local church has its bequest handled through this department to receive annual income.

The advantage of having the Department of Gifts and Wills to administer trusts and bequests is there is no service charge. More individuals may benefit by this saving by directing the department to carry out their wishes in favoring some Conference institution or local church after provisions for their appointed beneficiaries have been met.

Assets of over $128,000 are on deposit in Methodist Foundation in specific trust accounts; however, most of the wills solicited through this agency have been paid directly to the specified beneficiaries.

United Methodist Women

We have been United Methodist Women for a full year now and the organization is moving out of the transition, experimenting, doubting, stage. The transition period will continue for some time as units of United Methodist Women learn how to be purposeful, while open; how to embrace those whose membership has been in the former organizations or in neither; how to best utilize the skills and experiences of women who are employed and those who are not; how to assist members in their understanding of the Purpose and to translate it into measureable goals.

To prepare for this year, all conference officers attended the Regional School at Lake Junaluska for training by Women's Division members and staff.

During the R and R weekend at Methodist College in August, all of the Executive Committee spent a day in building community and setting goals. We were guided by a member of the Women's Division Staff, Mrs. Betty Cathcart. Our first goal was to build the group into a team.

We were invited to send a representative to the Board of Global Ministries in New Orleans in October. We sent the Conference Secretary, Mrs. E. G. Craig.

The first Annual Meeting of N. C. Conference United Methodist Women was held September 14-15, 1973 at Methodist College. The keynote speaker was the President of the Women's Division, Mrs. Clifford Cummings. The annual Love Offering went to Robeson County Church and Community Center and has now amounted to $5,642.63. The Candle burned for missions in honor of and in memory of Methodist Women. This gift to missions was $869.65.

To encourage districts to recruit new members, a fifty dollar ($50) gift to missions will be given to the district acquiring the largest number of new members during the year. The award will be made at the next Annual Meeting in October.

In October 1973, about sixty Methodist Women from the N.C. Conference met the other 8,000 women who attended the National Assembly of UMW in Cincinnati. All Conference Officers attended, also two young women under thirty (non-members) whom we sponsored.

The entire Executive Committee, including District Presidents, gathered for a two day in depth training session at Methodist College in December. Ms. Maryruth Nickels from the Regional Office in Atlanta guided the group. This was preparation to train District Officers, who in turn will train local offices.

Scholarships in the amount of $2725.00 were given to young women to attend Methodist Colleges; special gifts of $1,200.00; transit gifts of $2,507.00 were also given during this time. As of December 31, 1973 the Conference UMW sent to the Women's Division $215,067.70 for the on-going program of the Division. We have again budgeted $10,000 for the five projects in the Conference.

In January, United Methodist Women, participated with the Church Conference in workshops on the Administrative Board. In each district a Conference officer instructed the group of local United Methodist Women in their duties and their relationship to the Administrative Board and Council on Ministries on the local level. Other UMW women conducted groups on Nominations and Finance.

In 1974 a new format for scheduling training events, conferences, etc. was put into effect. Districts were divided into clusters of four and conference events have been and will be held in central locations in each cluster. In this way mileage can be saved, more people can be reached, and events can be tailored to suit the particular group and needs. So far, Leadership Training Events have been held and Christian Personhood Conferences for all clusters have been completed. Rev. Lucy Norton of Asheville led the Christian Personhood Conferences.

Under the leadership of our Mission Coordinator of Christian Social Involvement, Mrs. A. B. Roberts, we have been informed of legislative issues. She and other members of this committee have attended legislative events and seminars in New York and Washington. One issue that United Methodist Women are vitally interested in Child Advocacy. In April this Conference was invited by the Women's Division to be a part of a model worksope on this subject, in collaboration with the North Carolina Committee for Children and Youth and the North Carolina Conference for Social Services. This Conference and the Montana Conference were the two models for this type of workshop in the entire United States. Miss Ruth Gilbert from the Women's Division, Mrs. Kern Holoman from the North Carolina Conference for Social Services and Rev. Arthur Phillips from the North Carolina Committee for Children and Youth aided our Coordinators, Mrs. A. B. Roberts and Mrs. Marvin Vick. This was a high level conference and we are hoping that all districts will have workshops on Child Advocacy and other pertinent issues. Several districts are making plans to do so.

The Women's Division has asked that all United Methodist units increase their giving by 5% this year in order that the programs already planned may be carried out on all levels. Our pledge to mission this year is $195,000.00. In view of the increased financial needs, financial promotion is a vital part of our program of education and training.

This has been a year of real learning, much enthusiasm and hope for our new organization. The next will be a time of putting into action the training and planning that has been done.

Rev. Belton Joyner has been the staff person assigned to United Methodist Women. He is leaving the Methodist Building staff to take a church. We wish to express to him our very great appreciation for his help, his patience. He has been invaluable to us in every way that a resource person could be, even writing and appearing in some of our Annual Meeting programs. Our appreciation and best wishes go with him in his new endeavor.

Division on Worship

Though having to operate in 1974 within the restrictions of a limited budget of just $1,264,000, the Conference Division on Worship was nevertheless able to make a significant contribution to the program of the North Carolina Conference, the continuing education of ministers, and the worship experiences of many local churches.

The program of the division is as follows:

On February 4 through 8, six three-hour workshops on the Sunday Morning Worship were held. These workshops were under the leadership of Dr. H. Grady Hardin, Professor of Worship and Preaching, Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University. Meetings were held on Monday, February 4, at Amity Church, Chapel Hill; on Tuesday, February 5, at Wallace Church, Wallace, and at Vanceboro Church, Vanceboro (3:00 p.m.); on Wednesday, February 6, at First Church, Elizabeth City; on Thursday, February 7, at Haymount Church, Fayetteville; and on Friday, February 8, at First Church, Rocky Mount. These workshops were well attended by both ministers and laypersons.

In 1974 the Chairperson of the Division on Worship and the Chairperson of the Council on Children's Ministries appointed a task force to explore ways in which congregational worship could be made more meaningful to children. Members of the task force were Fred Falls, Jr.; F. Belton Joyer, Jr.; F. Gerald Peterson; Robert S. Pullman (Chairperson of the task force); William D. Sabiston, III; and Frank Thomas. The task force completed its work under the able direction of Dr. Pullman on April 7, 1975. A handsome brochure titled "Making Worship More Meaningful For Children" was distributed to all ministers through the May 1975 coordinated mailing.

In March 1974, the Division on Worship again assumed responsibility for the Bishop's Meeting with Young Methodists (held in the Spring each year for young people in Confirmation Classes). These meetings were under the direction of Dan Miller, Chairperson; Milton Gilbert; and Roger Searles. Meetings were held on Saturday, March 16, at Edenton Street Church, Raleigh, with Jim Marshall and Marvin Vick assisting; on Saturday, March 23, at Jarvis Memorial Church, Greenville, with Troy Barrett and Charles Smith assisting; and Saturday, March 30, at Haymount Church, Fayetteville, with Frank Lloyd and Ed Smith assisting. These meetings were attended by more than 1500 ministers and young people.

The Division on Worship, in consultation with the Conference Council on Ministries, provided leadership for workshops for the Chairpersons and members of the local church Work Area on Worship. These workshops were held throughout the twelve districts at the direction of the Conference Council on Ministries.

The Conference Division on Worship continued to provide leadership for the planning and implementation of worship services at the Summer R & R in August, 1974. The Communion Services were under the direction of Dr. Robert Pullman, and Worship Services were under the direction of Belton Joyner. The Division on Worship also provided leadership at Annual Conference in 1974 for the 8:15 a.m. services of Holy Communion on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings in Hensdale Chapel. These Services were under the direction of Angus Cameron.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE ON DISABILITY Ministers' Emergency Fund

1. The Sustentation Fund is to be used for emergency relief in the form of grants to effective ministers and lay pastors serving appointments whose salary is paid by the local church or conference treasurer, and who become disabled to the extent that they are unable to continue their work, and those whose income is not adequate to meet emergency needs.
2. Emergency appropriations shall be used to bring the disabled minister's income up to a maximum of $4,320 per conference year. If the applicant receives other personal income in the excess of $4,320 such additional income shall be deducted from the emergency grant. In no event shall the emergency funds be used to supplement an applicant's income of $4,320 or above.
3. Payment of this $4,320 will be on the basis of $360 per month. Payment will be made only during those months the applicant qualifies for Emergency Funds. No funds will be appropriated without three-fourths approval of the Joint Committee on Disability. Secretary must place all necessary forms in the hands of the Cabinet members at the beginning of each conference year.
4. The Joint Committee on Disability secretary must place all necessary forms in the hands of the Cabinet members at the beginning of each conference year.
5. In all cases the applications - the district superintendent, the doctor, and the applicant - shall be completed and forwarded to the chairman of the committee before approval of funds will be made. Any minister expecting to receive Emergency Funds at the beginning of the conference year should make application not later than two weeks before the annual conference convenes.
6. The Joint Committee on Disability may require physiological and psychological examination when deemed necessary by the committee. These will be done by a doctor approved by the committee and results of tests will be sent to the committee. In such a case the committee may share the expense of the examination in an amount not to exceed $100.
7. Funds will be made payable within thirty days following committee approval.
8. In cases where application for Emergency Funds occur during the session of the annual conference, the applicant's district superintendent, and the applicant, when possible, shall present an oral application to a joint committee of the Cabinet and at least three members of the Joint Committee on Disability. At this time appropriate action will be taken in keeping with the best interest of the applicant and in the spirit of the Emergency Fund. The written forms must be completed and placed with the committee within thirty days of this meeting.

9. All cases shall be reviewed at the middle of the Conference year to determine progress made in each case. It shall be the responsibility of each applicant's district superintendent to see that the progress reports - statements from the doctor and the district superintendent - are completed and placed with the committee. Should this review of the applicants' disability reveal that he is capable of reassuming work, it shall be the responsibility of the Joint Committee on Disability to bring this information to the attention of the Cabinet.
10. Should the disability continue beyond one year or through one annual conference we call attention to the fact that the General Board of Pensions makes medical disability payments, based on a man's service years. We also call attention that it is possible that in some cases retirement may offer specific advantages over Emergency Fund Aid.
11. Should the disability continue beyond one year or through one annual conference, the Joint Committee will conform to Disciplinary Requirements as found in paragraph 357 which demand annual conference approval.
12. We recommend that expenses of travel, telephone, postage, etc. for committee be paid from the Emergency Fund.
13. Be it resolved, that the Joint Committee on Disability and the Cabinet work with the agencies and institutions to utilize talents and abilities of disabled ministers. It is recommended that where it is possible to give full or part-time employment by matching a need of the institutions or agency, to that of the disabled minister, it is strongly urged to do so. It is recommended that the administrative head of each institution and agency supply a list of possible positions to the Cabinet, and to the Joint Committee on Disability, who will work for mutual satisfaction and placement. The final decision will rest with the Cabinet.
14. That the Joint Committee on Disability shall assume the conference coverage of Group Life Insurance and Health Insurance only for that time that a person is on Disability. This is an addition to the monthly basic grant of $360, provided no other provisions for such insurance is made.
15. The committee urges that the church and/or interested individuals recognize the contributions made by the Conference by providing rent free house for those men who are disabled and cannot continue their pastoral work.

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS

"Receiving my certification as an 'Associate in Christian Education' symbolizes to me that my work over the past years has been made legitimate. It means I am recognized as a professional worker by the church." So summarizes the statements of one of the individuals interviewed by your committee this past year.

It has been the goal of the committee to contact all salaried church educators in our conference and challenge them to establish a proper relationship with the church through our certification program. The feeling of achievement and the knowledge others recognize your abilities is well worth the time and effort. The program of study is more than a learning process—it is a growth process.

Our conference staff working with Duke University, Christian Educator's Fellowship, and the General Church provide educational opportunities for anyone interested in working toward certification. The following are recommended for certification:

BISHOP'S COMMITTEE HIGHER EDUCATION PLANNING AND STRATEGY

Members of the Committee from the North Carolina Annual Conference, approve the following statements of their position and their recommendations.

When the Joint Committee on Higher Education Planning and Strategy began its deliberations in 1973, it seemed logical to assume that a state-wide plan for Methodist higher education in North Carolina could be developed. It was thought that a thorough study would show how the resources of the seven colleges could be marshalled in such a way as to provide a more economical and effective operation. As we proceeded with the various subsections of the study, the complexity of the problem became more evident. However, most members of the Joint Committee continued to hope that a unified state plan might eventually evolve; but when in the fall of 1974 the Committee was confronted with the various alternative courses of action that might be followed, the members from the North Carolina Conference became convinced that advocacy of a plan that would involve precipitate withdrawal of Conference support from one or more institutions would accomplish nothing constructive and would probably result in irreparable damage to all three of the institutions in this conference.

The North Carolina Conference members arrived at the above conclusion after considering many alternatives. Among these were the consolidation of all Methodist institutions in North Carolina under a joint board with a reduction in the number of institutions; the clustering of certain institutions throughout the state that are located geographically in areas where joint utilization of faculty, facilities, and administrative resources would be feasible; the sale of one or more institutions to the State and the concentration of resources on fewer institutions; and the simple expedient of withdrawing Conference support from one or more institutions. The immediate adoption of any of these alternatives appeared to members of the Committee from the North Carolina Conference to promise more problems than solutions.

Measures that might be practical for the institutions in the Western North Carolina Conference did not appear to be suitable for those in the North Carolina Conference. The North Carolina Conference members believe that a state-wide approach, initially at least, is not feasible due to the fact that the condition of the colleges in our Conference is more tenuous than that of the colleges in the Western North Carolina Conference. The two senior colleges in the North Carolina Conference have been in existence less than 20 years and have, therefore, not had an opportunity to build the cumulative support that comes from a long period of providing church-related higher education. Their oldest graduates are, as a group, well below 40 years of age. As a result, these colleges are less able to cope with the increased cost and declining enrollments which higher educational institutions have experienced in the past few years. Furthermore, of the five senior Methodist colleges in this state, those in our Conference have the heaviest indebtedness. They depend to a considerable degree on the communities in which they are located for support, and anything that might discourage either student applications for admission or continued local support would be catastrophic.

In spite of their difficulties, the officials of all three colleges in the North Carolina Conference insist that with continued support from the Conference at the current level they can achieve a viable status. Under these circumstances, the Committee members from the North Carolina Conference were faced with a heavy responsibility in deciding what they should recommend. They considered as mentioned above, but did not pursue, the possibility of a favorable disposition of one of the senior colleges on the theory that there might be an interest in it as a public institution. Any move in this direction, however, would have to originate with the college trustees and/or the college community.

Louisburg has just announced the election of a new president. Methodist has completed only two years under a new president. Over the past four years enrollment has declined at Methodist College 24.2%, at North Carolina Wesleyan College 15.2%, and at Louisburg College 15.5%. The decline at Methodist College and Louisburg College continued during the past fall term. Wesleyan had a slight increase. Under these circumstances the Committee members believe it would be unfair and unwise to take any action which might make the task of the administration and trustees of these colleges more formidable.

Members of the Joint Committee came to a realization that the colleges are legally controlled under their charters by their respective Boards of Trustees. It is true that the Conference has two important checks: (1) the power to grant or withhold funds and (2) the power, after nomination by the trustees, to elect trustees of Louisburg, and to both nominate and elect trustees of Methodist and Wesleyan. Moreover, each institution has its supporters and followers in a conference, and a divisive issue that might result in bitter conflict could be created by the assertion of either of these powers in any situation short of an imminent emergency. This leaves a conference, once it has authorized the establishment of a college, and the college has received a charter from the State, in a position where under ordinary circumstances it has only the power of admonition.

In view of the foregoing, the members of the Committee from the North Carolina Conference, recommend the following:

1. That the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference continue to cooperate in planning, providing, and supporting the campus ministry program.
2. That the North Carolina Conference continue its present level of support to High Point College and Greensboro College.
3. That the North Carolina Conference continue its present level of support to the Duke Divinity School.
4. That the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference join in establishing a Joint Higher Education Committee to continue to examine, coordinate and make recommendations of the two conferences in higher education on a state-wide basis.
5. That the North Carolina Conference continue the present level of financial support at Louisburg College, Methodist College, and North Carolina Wesleyan College for three additional years and that a special committee appointed by the Bishop in consultation with the Division of Higher Education shall monitor and study the activities and financial operations of each of the three institutions and make a recommendation in June of 1978 concerning its support from the Conference, thereafter. The Conference shall continue to support the colleges by encouraging the enrollment of students.
6. That the Division on Higher Education present to the 1976 Annual Conference a plan by which the Boards of Trustees of our three colleges can be consolidated into one Board of Trustees and a plan by which the necessary charter revisions can be made to facilitate the consolidation.
7. That the three colleges be required as a condition to receiving Conference support to institute accounting and auditing practices that will make possible analytical and comparative studies of their sources of revenue, current expenditures, liabilities, and net worth.
8. That the Trustees of the three colleges be urged to take a more active and effective role in assessing the leadership, academic programs, and financial operations of their institutions, with the consultation of two students from each of the three respective institutions.
9. That the Division of Higher Education shall cooperate with the colleges to interpret their work and need to the local churches and participate in recruitment of students.

We believe that the Trustees should have some additional time to undertake measures that might increase the attractiveness of their respective institutions to students through curricula improvements, better maintenance, improved library and laboratory facilities, and improved student services to the end that larger numbers of students will seek admission to their institutions. Furthermore, the Trustees should have an opportunity to carry out development and fund raising programs to finance any needed improvements.

In addition, we know that the three institutions are valuable assets to the communities in which they are located, and we think that those communities should have the opportunity to cooperate in an effort that might secure to them the continued vitality of these symbols of culture, social consciousness, and religious leadership in their midst.

Finally, we believe that carrying out the above recommendations would provide the trustees and administrations of the three colleges an opportunity to devise a course of action which reflects the Joint Higher Education Planning and Strategy Committee's assessment of the status of private higher education in general, and our North Carolina Methodist Colleges in particular. It seems clear from the Committee's study that if our colleges are to survive as viable institutions it will require ingenuity, innovation, energetic and efficient management, academic programs that are attractive to students, and more involvement of the trustees. These recommendations should allow each institution an opportunity to demonstrate its ability to adapt to the changed status of higher education in order better to serve the academic community in which it must operate. They would also provide the special committee referred to in Item 5 above a basis upon which to predicate its recommendation for financial support of the 1978 Annual Conference.

TASK FORCE TO STUDY ELECTION PROCEDURES

As a result of questions asked at the last annual conference regarding the procedure for electing delegates to the General and Jurisdictional conferences Bishop Blackburn appointed a task force committee to study these procedures and make recommendations for any improvements they deemed advisable.

All twelve districts were represented including six pastors and six lay persons plus one youth representative.

The task force committee recently met and listed below is the report of their recommendations:

Recommendations

We wish to thank the Stark Committee for making their proposal. We feel they have raised an important question of procedure that needed to be studied. It has influenced and stimulated our examination and recommendations.

Whereas the Bishop had ruled out of order the proposal at Annual Conference in reference to election of delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences on the grounds that the violated the Discipline and prohibits the process of electing delegates before Annual Conference; we as a task force wish to state that our own judgment after examination sustains the Bishop in his ruling.

After thorough discussion and examination of various alternatives, we recommend to the Annual Conference that our present voting procedure be continued as it is, with consideration of the following recommendations.

We believe that it is divisive and contrary to individual freedom to circulate lists, but we respect the right of a person working to elect an individual.

Methods of Implementation

1. Announcements should be made at District Conferences, Lay Rallies, District Training sessions, etc., for Annual Conference delegates to think of persons in different categories so that every area of the United Methodist Church be represented.
2. We make public the findings of our inquiry and the policies formulated by this committee so as to clarify the conduct, procedure, and attitude for this next election.
3. The Conference Secretary or someone the Bishop designates will contact immediately any delegate elected to determine if he can attend the Jurisdictional and General Conferences. The person contacting will explain to that individual the duties and time required. If he replies that he cannot attend, it will be recommended to that person that he be asked to decline the nomination.
4. We ask the Bishop to make a statement concerning guidelines of conduct and attitude expected in our election process.

THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

Recommendations for 1976

1. The Schedule of Minimum Salaries through the Commission on Equitable Salaries for 1976 is as follows:

A. Regular recommendations:

Full-Time Conference and Associate Conference Members	1976
--	------

One or more dependent children	$8500
--------------------------------	--------

Married	8300
---------	------

Single	8100

--------	------

Student

One or more dependent children	6900
--------------------------------	------

---------	------

--------	------

B. Special Recommendations:

1. We endorse the report of the Parish Travel Committee. All additional funds remaining in Equitable Salary will be allocated by the Equitable Salaries Commission to help churches receiving Equitable Salary funds meet the established travel allowance. The Commission requests permission from the Annual Conference to make such adjustments as necessary in Equitable Salary schedules for the fiscal year 1976 so as to expend all available funds.

2. Retired Supply Pastors: $3,500 (including utilities).
3. Part-time Supplies: Ministers of any status who are serving part-time will receive income from Equitable Salary funds, if any, on a basis negotiated with the church, the pastor, the District Superintendent, and the Equitable Salary Commission.

II. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Salary Funds

The Pastor's salary is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the charges should so group themselves as to assume full pastoral support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Salary funds, its minister, and District Superintendents to administer the affairs of the charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward full financial support. To enable the conference, the commission and the superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

1. The family or marital status of the pastor at the time of assignment to the charge and as of January 1 shall govern the amount paid the minister.
2. In considering the salary for the charge, all income, including salary, utilities, bonuses, and expense allowances (excluding travel) are included as salary in determining appropriations from Equitable Salaries Commission.
3. It is expected that charges will provide two-thirds of the total salary with the Equitable Salaries Commission giving only one-third, excepting newly-established congregations. Charges must be arranged so that no more than one-third of the total salary be supplemented from Equitable Salary funds. Charges asking for more than one-third supplement must make an additional application, indicating the reasons for being given special consideration.
4. Beginning at the 1974 Annual Conference, full-time Pastoral Charges of less than 400 members, in order to receive Equitable Salary funds, must appear before a committee from the Equitable Salaries Commission before September 10 and show cause why supplementary funds must be made available for that charge. When division of charges is desired, Equitable Salary funds will be used only upon recommendation of the Bishop, or the "Bishop's Task Force on the Division of Circuits" and Cabinet approval.
5. In the Division of Circuits in which one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such church assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of single-figure asking.
 - a. It is recommended that the remainder of the division pay two-thirds of pastoral support, and its share of single-figure asking.
 - b. The Commission on Equitable Salaries further recommends that each charge which has received, or shall hereafter receive Equitable Salary aid, shall reduce this aid by 10 percent each year until the charge has accepted full self-support. The District Superintendents are to inform all charges receiving aid or expecting to receive aid in the future of this regulation. This requirement must be kept in mind in preparing for any requests.
 - c. When a charge has been established as a student appointment and desires to be served by a full-time minister, this change may take place at such time as the charge shall pay two-thirds of the amount needed to provide such full-time ministerial support and shall agree to reduce the aid by 10 percent each year.

- d. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, the charge must pay two-thirds of said salary.
6. Any Equitable Salary supplement will be terminated immediately upon a full-time pastor's taking other employment or not continuing full-time pastoral employment. Such a pastor may be reinstated at any time upon returning to full-time ministerial status.
7. The North Carolina Conference authorizes and instructs the Commission on Finance and Administration to make Funds available by supplemental appropriation or any other means necessary and available to them, but shall not in any way change this year's commitment to Equitable Salaries Commission, making these Funds available by July 15, 1975, so that this loss may receive redress by or before July 25, 1975, as provided in the original amendment. (Editor's note: The original amendment referred to was part of the legislation of the Equitable Salary Commission Report of 1974.)

The Reverend Paul G. Bunn, Vice Chairperson
The Commission on Equitable Salaries

INSURANCE COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATIONS

The Conference Insurance Committee met on March 7, 1975, to consider the annual report of analysis and recommendations presented by H. Gray Hutchison and Associates, Inc., Raleigh, North Carolina, consultants to the Conference Insurance Committee on its group insurance benefits. Among the principal issues discussed were:

- (1) Action needed by the Annual Conference to place the fiscal year of the Group Life and Group Health Insurance Programs on the same basis as the fiscal year of the Annual Conference.

- (2) The need for improved Blue Cross-Blue Shield benefits with increased premium rates and renewal of the group life insurance program at the present rates.

Renewal Dates and Benefit Improvements

Now that the North Carolina Conference operates its fiscal year on a calendar basis, consideration needs to be given to two alternatives for establishing the future renewal date for the Blue Cross-Blue Shield Health Insurance plan and the Ministers Group Life Insurance plan. Both plans now operate under a renewal date of July 1 of each year which results in any required rate adjustments being made effective in the middle of the Conference Fiscal Year.

ALTERNATE I:

Amend the group insurance contracts to change the renewal date to January 1 of each year and further to vest in the Insurance Committee the full authority to review and implement any proposed rate adjustments and/or benefits improvements to become effective January 1, 1976. Any increase in cost is to be pro-rated between the church and the minister on the same basis as is now in effect. This would apply to Group Life and Group Health Plans.

ALTERNATE II:

Retain the present renewal date of July 1, of each year and that effective July 1, 1975, the Ministers Group Life Insurance Program be renewed at the present rates and the Blue Cross-Blue Shield Health Plan be amended to increase surgical benefits to a $1,000.00 surgical schedule, increase hospital physicians benefits to $15.00 for the first day to $10.00 for the next two days and to $5.00 for the next 67 days and increase the Major Medical maximum to $250,000.00.

The total cost of improved benefits including at 14.5% rate adjustment, because of experience is:

- (1) Individual $54.12 per quarter
- (2) Parent and child $107.73 per quarter
- (3) Family $153.36 per quarter

The breakdown of the cost of the coverage to the ministers and churches per quarter based on the same formula as is now in effect is as follows:

	Church	Increase	Minister	Increase
Individual	44.92	6.76	9.20	1.55
Parent & Child	89.42	14.06	18.31	2.41
Family	127.29	19.86	26.07	4.05

After consideration of all facts, the Insurance Committee recommends the adoption of Alternative I so as to have the fiscal year of the Group Insurance contracts coincide with the fiscal year of the Conference, thereby eliminating the problem of mid-year cost adjustment.

STUDY: The Insurance Committee shall make a study of disability insurance and report to next Annual Conference for possible recommendations.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE LAY WORKER

The Discipline of the United Methodist Church defines a Lay Worker in paragraph 501 in this manner: "A Lay Worker in the churches is a person other than the clergy whose decision to make a career of the work (either full-time or term) in the employed status in the church or church-related agencies is accompanied by the meeting of standards of excellence in the chosen field of service and who has been consecrated by a Bishop."

RECOMMENDED FOR CONSECRATION AS A LAY WORKER

(Par. 502, Discipline)

Miss Margaret Ann Biddle, University United Methodist Church, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514 (Director of Christian Education)

The Committee on the Lay Worker calls the attention of the Annual Conference and especially the attention of local churches employing Lay Workers to Par. 507.1 of the Discipline of the United Methodist Church: "The employing agency shall include the Lay Worker in the retirement plan of the Lay Employee Pension Fund (Par. 1377.12) or other such appropriate plan as provided by the Board of Pensions or other boards or agencies of the United Methodist Church". The Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund is available from the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church, 1200 Davis Street, Evanston, Illinois, 60201. For the sake of uniformity, we recommend that the pension plan for Lay Workers in the North Carolina Conference be based upon an annual contribution of 9% of the employee's salary—6% to be paid by the employing agent and 3% by the employee (or some combination of percentages to add up to 9%).

We encourage local churches employing Lay Workers to pay the premiums for the Blue Cross-Blue Shield Insurance plan, and to participate, in their behalf, in the Conference program of Group Life Insurance.

The Committee on the Lay Worker also calls upon all local churches within her bounds to consider a pension program, as well as hospitalization and life insurance, for ALL lay employees—not just those who qualify as Lay Workers.

REPORT OF THE DIVISION OF MINISTRY

Prelude

The ordained ministry of our United Methodist Church has a proud heritage in calling and service to God's people through nearly two centuries. Its ancestry moves back through both its Wesleyan tradition and its relationship to the holy catholic Church in the recognition that the Church is called to seek and to save the lost, to disseminate the spirit and life of the date of Pentecost, to spread scriptural holiness, and to transform all peoples and nations through the Gospel of Christ. In preparation for such a task in today's society, men and women are called by the Spirit to be ministers of the Gospel, and within the framework of the Discipline are guided in their preparation for ministry in the United Methodist Church by the Division of Ministry.

The world of the second half of the 1970's has become a complex society in which many occupations and vocations call for highly specialized training. The minister in most communities of the not-too-distant past was one of a few educated and widely-traveled persons to whom many looked not only for spiritual guidance but for some judgement upon life-styles and the conduct of one's daily life. The wisdom of the minister was rooted in great degree in a formal education and training that provided a broad base of exposure to the cultural climate of the time, an experience that is now more difficult in an age of ever-mushrooming information and ideas. Education remains a powerful force in the development of every individual, and must be a priority claim in the preparation for ministry. To this end, the Division of Ministry recommends that the minimum educational requirement for full membership in the North Carolina Conference be a Master of Divinity degree, or its equivalent, beginning with those received into probationary membership at the 1978 Annual Conference.

We initiate a new day in the life of the North Carolina Conference at this particular session as we welcome with our recommendations for full membership two women, Helen Gray Crotwell and Gladys Ruth Williford. These pioneer women mark a strong new influence in the ministry of the Church, reflected by a 25% female enrollment in seminaries across our land. Our division recommends a joint meeting of our Division, the Commission on Role and Status of Women, and the Cabinet at an early date in the Fall to discuss this growing influence and its possibilities for the North Carolina Conference.

We urge each local church to observe Ministry Sunday on September 21, 1975 (or the nearest convenient date) to focus attention upon and to raise up a call for ministers to serve in the pastoral ministry. Each minister might well use this opportunity to share his/her sense of calling, and of the joys and frustrations, the disappointments and pleasures, that the minister's life contains.

We remind each local church to look upon the Ministerial Education Fund as their one basic opportunity to participate in the preparation of new ministers for the Church. We urge all churches to keep alive in their hearts the goal of full acceptance and full payment of this important apportionment that provides an undergirding for our seminaries, scholarship funds for students in college and seminaries, and growing numbers of opportunities for short-term continuing educational experiences.

Committee on Continuing Education

THE ROLE OF THE COMMITTEE The Annual Conference Committee on Continuing Education is an integral part of the Division of the Ministry, however, it does have representation from other boards. Its tasks are to encourage the parish minister to update and enrich his professional skills and knowledge without interrupting his work at the parish level, to enable him to participate in continuing education events.

Continuing education for ministers is defined as a structured and organized experience of education in which the minister is a student and in which participation is a requirement. This definition is not intended to exclude events such as conferences and convocations but is designed as a guideline for scholarship aid. It is the aim of the committee to encourage and aid every parish minister serving full time to participate in a life long career of continuing education and development.

FINANCIAL RESOURCES Scholarship Aid for Continuing Education endeavors is available from these sources.

- (1) Local Churches. More and more local churches are placing an annual amount in the budget for the continued education of the minister.
- (2) The Duke Endowment under their guidelines aids ministers serving rural churches.
- (3) The center for continuing education at the Duke University Divinity School has limited scholarship aid. This is administered by Dr. McMurray Richey.
- (4) The Conference Committee on Continuing Education has a budgeted amount each year. This is administered by the Conference committee. Most of these funds are used for individual grants and district programs of continuing education.

A REPORT ON OUR WORK

The Bishops Seminar on Preaching has been planned and is set for April 7-9, 1975 at The St. Marks United Methodist Church in Raleigh. Three outstanding leaders have been secured. They are:

The Reverend Doctor David H. C. Read, Minister, Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York, New York.

The Reverend Doctor Chester A. Pennington, Professor of Preaching and Worship, The Iliff School of Theology, Denver, Colorado

The Very Reverend Edward H. Patey, Dean of Liverpool, Liverpool, England

District Workshops were held for administrative leaders. The need of the parish minister to engage in continuing education experiences was highlighted in the sessions held for Pastor-Parish Relation Committees.

Continuing Education in Scotland The following ministers attended an educational program on the theme "The Living Word and the World," at Edinburgh, Scotland June 24-July 9, 1974: Angus Cameron, Wade Goldston, Clingman C. Capps, R. L. Bame, R. Steward Brodie, Wilbur I. Jackson, Norman D. Holcomb, Jr., Robert Lee Baldridge and T. M. Mason.

Individual Grants We were able to give partial scholarship aid to three ministers engaged in continuing education events outside the North Carolina Conference (Candler and Princeton). We were able to help fourteen ministers with partial scholarship aid for continuing education events at the Duke Divinity School.

A Consultation-Workshop on Continuing Education for the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences was held September 30-October 2nd 1974 at the Duke University Divinity School. Persons from the North Carolina Conference who attended were: James A. Auman, Robert L. Bame, William I. Clarke, John H. Crum, Clarence Garner, Jack L. Hunter, Wilbur I. Jackson, Al Fisher, Rick Commander, Clyde McCarver, Charles H. Mercer, Bruce Pate, W. S. Smith, Jr., Charles E. Sparks, Charles Smith and Herman Winberry.

Rev. Clyde McCarver, sponsored by the Committee on Continuing Education, attended a pilot seminar on "Biblical Preaching Today" at the Court Street United Methodist Church, Lynchburg, Virginia October 15-16, 1974.

Dr. Samuel Womack compiled and presented a report on how the resources of the United Methodist Colleges in North Carolina could be used for the continuing education of ministers.

Duke Endowment We express heartfelt appreciation for the Duke Endowment which has for fifty years served the rural church and the ministers of rural churches in the North Carolina Annual Conference. In this report we wish to give special thanks for that part of the endowment that has been related to the continuing education and career development of ministers serving rural churches. We convey thanks to Dr. Wilson Nesbitt, Director; and Reverend Albert Fisher, Assistant Director, of the Duke Endowment. We gladly take note of the fact that the Duke Endowment is celebrating its 50 anniversary.

Policy adopted for the operation of the Ministerial Education Fund:

The general policies noted here refer to the disbursement of the funds retained by the North Carolina Conference (25% of funds remitted by the local church) for the education and training of its own ministers.

ELIGIBILITY:

1. Aid may be granted to students during their junior and senior years in undergraduate school and in each of their seminary years while working on the M. Div. degree or its equivalent.
2. Aid may not be extended to graduate students in other than the M. Div. program or its equivalent. Persons intending to be DCE's, likewise, are not eligible through this source.
3. Students must be enrolled as "full-time" students. This means 12 hours minimum in undergraduate school and 9 hours in seminary per semester.
4. Students must maintain a C average throughout their academic pursuits.
5. Students must be intending to become members in full connection with the N. C. Conference of The United Methodist Church. This means the ordained ministry with special reference to willingness to serve under the Bishop's appointive powers, more specifically as an itinerant minister in the Conference.
6. This fund is not to be viewed by anyone as a salary supplement. It is intended to relieve financial pressure on a student while pursuing his academic goals.

(Ordinarily, lay pastors exceeding minimum salary standards shall not be considered for loans.)

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS NOT HOLDING A VALID LICENSE TO PREACH:

Students who do not serve as lay pastors in their undergraduate years and who, therefore, do not hold a valid license to preach in The United Methodist Church shall do the following in order to qualify for aid:

1. be recommended by their "home" charge conference;
2. submit a letter of commendation from their home church pastor to the MEF committee;
3. be interviewed by their district superintendent as to their plans for pursuing the professional degree in the ordained ministry;
4. submit to the district committee on the ministry and to the MEF committee a written statement concerning their "call" to the ordained ministry of the Church. (Par. 318.8 of the Discipline may be of some help in preparing this statement.)

THE APPLICATION FOR SERVICE LOAN:

1. All applicants must write for forms through the MEF chairman, or the district superintendents may request the forms for persons they feel are eligible.
2. Application forms must be filled out in their entirety. Directions should be carefully followed. Failure to do so may result in a student not getting the aid he has requested.
3. All applications must be received by the MEF chairman on or before the announced deadline. All late applications, except for the gravest of circumstances, shall be treated in the same fashion: postponed for consideration 'til the following semester. For the first semester this means the second semester with possible retroactive aid. For the second semester the student forgoes any consideration for that academic year and must submit another application for the new academic year.

AMOUNTS THAT CAN BE BORROWED:

1. For aid to be granted, financial need must be demonstrated. For this purpose, a unit system has been worked out and adopted to aid the Committee in making an equitable distribution of the Fund.
2. Aid shall be granted on a per semester basis. The maximum at this time is $300. Such maximums shall be established by the MEF committee for each academic year at its summer meeting, depending on the money available through local church support of the Ministerial Education Fund.

INTERVIEWS BEFORE THE COMMITTEE:

1. Interviews shall be conducted by the Committee for all first-time applicants. If the interview time is utterly impossible for the student, he must submit, in writing, his reasons for not being able to attend. Further, the applicant shall arrange to have his district superintendent or home pastor to represent him at the interview time assigned.
2. Previous recipients of grants may or may not be requested to meet the Committee for interviews. Interviews may be required by either the Chairman or the Committee as a whole.

THE SERVICE LOAN AGREEMENT (Repayment)

1. Money received through this source shall be termed a "scholarship-loan." It shall be a scholarship for as long as the student is pursuing degrees that will aid him in the ordained ministry. It becomes a loan when the student either earns his professional degree(s) for the ordained ministry or alters his intentions to become a full member of the N. C. Conference of the United Methodist Church.
2. Loans are repayable at the rate of $200 per year plus 3% per annum on the total amount borrowed until the debt is paid in full.

3. Loans may be paid off by years of service in the N. C. Conference as a member in full connection. Each year of such service shall pay off $200 plus that year's interest. The maximum years of service required to pay off the loan shall be six, except in very special cases.
4. For each academic year that aid is granted the student will be required to sign a properly witnessed legal note (the Service Loan Agreement).

THE COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP:

The MEF Committee shall be responsible to the Division of Ministry, and its membership shall be composed of members of the Division, provided that one to two laypersons may serve in an advisory capacity.

TRANSFERS INTO THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE:

Persons transferring into our Conference should immediately make the Bishop, the Division of Ministry, and the Chairman of MEF aware of obligations through this source in another conference. At the effective date of transfer, we will make every attempt to assume this liability, either in full or in part, and we hope that other annual conferences will likewise reciprocate when we have a transfer out.

OTHER USES OF THIS FUND:

The MEF Committee, upon request of the Conference Division of Ministry, may act to set aside a portion of its monies for the education and training of lay pastors and for the Conference Committee on Continuing Education.

THE NORTH CAROLINA PASTOR'S SCHOOL AND DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL CONVOCATION, 1974

The North Carolina Pastor's School and Duke Divinity School Convocation was held at Duke University, October 28-30, 1974. Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr. of the Charlotte Area and Bishop Robert M. Blackburn of the Raleigh Area were the Convocation Preachers. The James A. Gray Lecturer was Dr. Paul Ramsey, Professor of Religion, Princeton University, speaking on "The Marriage of Christians." The Frank S. Hickman Lecturer on Ministry was Dr. Colin M. Morris, General Secretary of the Methodist Missionary Society, London, with "The Word and the Words" as theme. Seven Divinity School Faculty members offered three-session "mini-courses"—Professors Lloyd R. Bailey, Waldo Beach, Herbert O. Edwards, Thomas A. Langford, Jill Raitt, David C. Steinmetz, and John H. Westerhoff III. The Reverend Martha M. Wilson, of the Division of the Ordained Ministry, and The Reverend Helen G. Crotwell, Associate Minister to the University, led another "mini-course" and a special Tuesday afternoon Forum on Women in Church and Ministry. Other features of the program included the Alumni Class Reunion, the Alumni Association Luncheon, and a Luncheon for Ministers' Wives, Women Ministers, and Women Ministerial Students. The Divinity School Choir led in worship through music.

The 1975 Convocation and Pastors' School is scheduled for October 27-29.

McMurtry S. Richey, Director

THE BISHOPS' CALL FOR PEACE AND THE SELF-DEVELOPMENT OF PEOPLES

The 1972 session of the General Conference of the United Methodist Church inaugurated a quadrennial program on Peace and Self-Development. Pope Paul VI reminded the universe "that peace cannot be limited to the mere absence of war. Peace is something which is built up day by day, in pursuit of an order intended by God, which implies a more perfect justice among men." The late G. Bromley Oxum said, "Peace is like bread, it must be made fresh daily." The writer of Ephesians wrote "(Christ Jesus) is himself our peace . . . In his own body, flesh and blood has broken down the enmity which stood like a dividing wall . . . For he (came) to create . . . a single new humanity in himself, thereby making peace." It was the decision of the General Conference that the convictions expressed by these and many other Christians be implemented in the life and works of the United Methodist Church.

Through the quadrennium the North Carolina Conference Task Force on Peace and Self-Development appointed by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn has been striving to lift the Bishops' Call to a place of concern in Methodism in Eastern North Carolina. There are only nineteen months left in the quadrennium. At that time, the Bishop's Task Force will cease to be an active organization. The success of the four-year venture will depend upon the extent to which the concerns of the Bishops' Call have changed the feelings, the commitments and the actions of United Methodist people in our North Carolina Conference.

In an attempt to have the greatest impact possible, certain commitments have been called for by the Task Force. These are enumerated below:

1. The General Conference called for "each Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church to implement the Bishops' Call, developing its own initiatives and utilizing its distinctive opportunities and expertise." In attempting to fulfill this call, the North Carolina Annual Conference has made the Call for Peace and Self-Development one of its priorities for 1976.

The Bishop's Task Force implores the boards and agencies of the Conference to continue to search out new ways that the Bishops' Call can be implemented. Many boards and agencies have already planned significant and innovative activities designed to lead North Carolina United Methodists to a greater commitment to peace. These programs are outlined in the report of the Council on Ministries. It is hoped that many others will be developed in the year ahead.

2. A second aspect of the General Conference Call was "Each United Methodist congregation is called upon to develop study and action programs designed to create peace-seeking communities of faith at the grass-roots level of the church's life." In an attempt to deal creatively with this charge, teams from each district in the Annual Conference were trained at a tri-conference consultation in Charlotte in April. These teams have been charged to go into the congregations of their respective districts and help them understand the Bishops' Call and to design ways of implementing the Call in the local church and community. It is only as the concerns of the Bishops' Call reach the local level that it can hope to have any success in the lives of people. With only nineteen months remaining in the quadrennium, a great responsibility is placed upon us as an Annual Conference, as members of conference boards and agencies, and as Christian people to be active witnesses and servants for peace.

HOUSING EXCLUSION ALLOWANCE

REPORT II

INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE DOCUMENT NO. 5045 (10-67) DECLARES:

"Rental Value of Home Furnished a Clergyman, and cost of utilities paid for him, as part of his compensation for carrying out his duties as a clergyman, are not income to him, if he is duly ordained, licensed, or commissioned."

A Rental Allowance to Clergyman, paid as part of his compensation, is not income to the extent he used it, in the year received, to provide a home, or pay utilities for a home furnished him. However, the church, or organization which employs him must have officially designated the payment as a rental allowance before the payment was made."

"The above rules are also applicable to retired clergymen where a rent-free home or rental allowance is furnished him in recognition of past services in carrying out his duties as a clergyman."

A REVISED RULING, 63, 156, 163-2 CB 79 STATES:

"... the rental value of the home furnished to a retired minister as part of his compensation for services is excludable from his gross income under Section 107 (1) of the Code. Also, the rental allowance paid to him as part of his compensation for past services is excludable under Section 107 (2) of the Code, to the extent used by him for expenses directly related to providing a home." (See Code Sec. 107, Reg. 1.107.1—1103.01)

Therefore the following resolution is presented to the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, meeting in Fayetteville, North Carolina:

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has a tradition of providing housing (a parsonage) for its ministers, or in instances where no parsonage is owned by the charge, giving the minister a housing allowance;

Whereas, Retired Ministers of the North Carolina Conference are entitled to the same privileges as those in the Effective Relationship; and

Whereas, the most practical method of providing housing for the Retired Ministers is by means of rental allowance;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the amount of $3,000.00 per year be set as a fair and reasonable rental allowance for each Retired Minister of this annual conference; that the first $3,000.00 paid to a Retired Minister each year by The Board of Pensions of The North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and $2,100.00 of this is designated as the payment of this Housing Allowance and $900.00 for Utility Allowance. The Housing Allowance is specifically designated as compensation to the minister for the cost of renting or providing housing for himself and his family and those costs related thereto, pursuant to the Code as stated in Document 5045 (10-67).

The Board of Pensions emphasizes that the Retired Minister who uses this Housing Allowance must be able to furnish proof that he made expenditures in the amounts claimed. If the full $2600.00 cannot be substantiated as expenditures, then claim should be made only for those amounts which can be verified.

We also remind the minister who uses this allowance, that the amount he claims as a Housing Allowance exclusion must be included as Income in reporting his Social Security. It is possible that reduced Social Security benefits would offset any claims for the Housing Allowance exclusion. Please consult your Social Security Advisor about this matter.

Further, the Board of Pensions absolves itself of any responsibility in the event the Internal Revenue Service disallows any housing allowance claimed.

MINISTERS RETIREMENT FUND CONSTITUTION AMENDMENT REPORT III

To provide desirable changes in eligibility and to create an improved tax advantage when the minister retires we recommend the following revisions in the Constitution (see pages 299-301 of the 1970 Journal).

- I. Eligibility for Membership: The first paragraph now reads as follows: "Each minister in the probationary relationship, in full connection, or associate member, and lay supply minister who is serving full time in a charge or other work by episcopal appointment, and such work contributing to the minister's pension credit shall be eligible to join. Membership into this fund is certainly in the minister's best interest, but it is not mandatory. Members may not be received retroactively. Ministers transferring into the conference, in the above categories, are eligible to join the fund in the year following the annual conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Eligible ministers, already members of this annual conference, may join the fund at any time, although no member shall be eligible for the dividends until he has been a member in good standing for 10 years."

We recommend this paragraph be revised to read as follows: "Each minister in the probationary relationship, in full connection, or associate member, and lay supply minister who is serving full time in a charge or other work by episcopal appointment, and such work contributing to the minister's pension credit shall be eligible to join. Membership into this fund is certainly in the minister's best interest, but it is not mandatory. Members may not be received retroactively. The period of enrollment for all ministers is January 1-31 of each year. Ministers in the above categories transferring into the conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the fund in January of the year following the annual conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total remuneration for the 7 months between June 1 and December 31 computed to 12 months."

- II. Dividends: We recommend that the last sentence of this section which reads: "The total dividends, etc. . . prior to retirement," be omitted since this material is covered in other sections.

- III. Death Benefits: The first sentence reads as follows: "If a participating member of the fund dies while in the active service, the treasurer shall pay to his named beneficiary or beneficiaries designated, otherwise pay to his estate the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the dividends added to his credit."

We recommend that "while in the active service" be deleted so that the sentence shall read: "If a participating member of the fund dies, the treasurer shall pay to his named beneficiary or beneficiaries designated, otherwise pay to his estate the full amount of the balance accrued to his credit."

- IV. Following the section Death Benefits add a new section entitled Payment of Retirement Benefits, as follows: A Minister who retires with less than ten (10) years credit in the fund will be paid immediately following the session of the annual conference at which he retires the total amount as prescribed by the formula for superannuated members. A Minister with ten (10) or more years credit in the fund shall be paid, immediately following the annual conference session at which he retires, an amount equal to the total which he has personally contributed to the fund. The remainder of the amount accrued to the minister's credit shall be paid to him in a lump sum between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister retires. This amount will draw simple interest from June 1 to December 31 computed at the annual pass-book savings rate in effect on December 15 prior to the January payment. The total January payment should be reported as ordinary income for income tax purposes.

- V. Withdrawing from the Fund: The second paragraph now reads as follows: "If a minister is approved for disability leave he may submit an application to the Board of Pensions requesting permission to withdraw funds held in the Minister's Retirement Fund. If the application is approved, he will be paid the lump sum equal to the amount he would be paid if he were retiring at the current session of the annual conference. If a person on disability leave makes application to withdraw from the fund between sessions of the annual conference, and if the application is approved, he will be paid a lump sum payment on the basis of what he would have received if he were retiring at the previous session of the annual conference."

We recommend this paragraph be revised to read as follows: "If a minister is approved for disability leave he may submit an application to the Board of Pensions requesting permission to withdraw funds held in the Minister's Retirement Fund. If the application is approved, he will be paid on the same basis as if he were retiring at the current session of the annual conference. If a person on disability leave makes application to withdraw from the fund between sessions of the annual conference, and if the application is approved, he will be paid on the same basis as if he had retired at the previous session of the annual conference."

MINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND CONSTITUTION

The Constitution of the Ministers' Retirement Fund is herein restated to incorporate all of the modifications and revisions as contained in the reports of the Board of Pensions and adopted by the 1970, 1971, 1973, 1974 and 1975 sessions of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

The Principal of the Fund:

The Ministers' Retirement Fund is established to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship to the retired relationship by paying a lump sum benefit at the time of retirement. The fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Single Figure Askings and by assessment to each minister who has membership in the fund. Since all churches contribute to this fund, it is the desire of the annual conference that all ministers participate in the fund. We do not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers Retirement Fund as an additional benefit for their minister, but a benefit for all ministers of the conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those which he himself contributed to the fund. We vigorously emphasize that this is for the minister's retirement, and not any kind of emergency fund to be made available indiscreetly.

The treasurer of the North Carolina Conference shall serve as treasurer of this fund. He shall promote this work, receive reports from the district superintendents, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of collections and benefits paid. The treasurer shall obtain the names of all ministers retiring at each annual conference, who are eligible to receive the lump sum payment, and pay them promptly any benefits to which they are entitled. Retirement benefits are to be paid only to those ministers who are retiring either because they have reached 65; because they have accrued 40 years of approved service; or in special situations retired on Medical Disability.

Eligibility for Membership:

Each minister in the probationary relationship, in full connection, or associate member, and lay supply minister who is serving full time in a charge or other work by episcopal appointment, and such work contributing to the minister's pension credit shall be eligible to join. Membership into this fund is certainly in the minister's best interest, but it is not mandatory. Members may not be received retroactively. The period of enrollment for all ministers is January 1 - 31 of each year. Ministers in the above categories transferring into the conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the fund in January of the year following the annual conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total remuneration for the 7 months between June 1 and December 31 computed to 12 months.

A lay supply pastor may continue as a member of the Ministers' Retirement Fund only during the time he is serving under episcopal appointment.

Each new member to the fund shall file an application form. Upon the filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his membership becomes effective.

Assessments:

Each charge in the conference shall be required to pay into the Ministers' Retirement Fund annually an amount equal to 1% of the conference average salary as determined by The General Board of Pensions for each minister under episcopal appointment to that charge.

Each minister shall pay into the fund one per cent (1%) of all money he receives each year from the charge or charges he is serving, and/or conference sources (this includes salary, travel and utility allowances, minimum salary fund payments, Duke Endowment funds, and missionary sources.)

All other ministers who participate in this fund shall pay a sum equivalent to 2% of their annual gross income and if such minister has no such annual income shall pay 2% of average salary. These persons shall make an annual payment into the fund, an amount equal to 2% of the average salary of the conference, as determined by the report of the General Board of Pensions, for the year or years affected. However, in the case of ministers appointed to the forenamed categories whose salaries or income is below the average salary of the annual conference, these persons shall pay 2% of the new salary level of the charge they are leaving. The amounts for these salary levels are to be supplied to the Board of Pensions by their respective district superintendents. In the event the district superintendent does not furnish the salary information, these persons shall make their annual payment on the basis of the conference average salary, as determined above. The Council on Finance and administration shall make provision for payment equal to 1% of salary usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers employed by the Council on Ministries. District superintendents and Council on Ministries ministerial employees shall pay 1% of salary, travel, and utility allowances. Those persons affiliated with the Council on Ministries staff shall include in their total income received, and pay 1% of this amount, the first $1500 designated as automobile travel expenses. Funds appropriated for travel above this amount shall be exempt. Also, any income from the Council on Ministries directed towards utilities shall be included as income, and payment made on these funds.

Deadline for Receipt of Payments:

The fiscal year of the Ministers' Retirement Fund shall be the same as that of the annual conference fiscal year; January 1 through December 31. Each member of the fund shall submit the required payment no later than January 31 of each year. The Conference Treasurer shall notify all members that this payment is due. This notice shall not be made later than December 1 of each year. Payments AFTER January 31, will be credited to the minister making the payment. However, this delayed payment extends the benefit payment for one year, if he has been a member less than ten (10) years. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he will collect no dividends for the year or years of the delayed payments.

Base Benefits shall be paid to superannuated members of the Retirement Fund as follows:

If superannuated at the end of one year of membership	$ 200.00
If superannuated at the end of two years of membership	$ 300.00
If superannuated at the end of three years of membership	$ 400.00
If superannuated at the end of four years of membership	$ 500.00
If superannuated at the end of five years of membership	$ 600.00
If superannuated at the end of six years of membership	$ 700.00
If superannuated at the end of seven years of membership	$ 800.00
If superannuated at the end of eight years of membership	$ 900.00
If superannuated at the end of nine years of membership	$1,000.00
If superannuated at the end of ten years of membership	$1,100.00
If superannuated at the end of eleven years of membership	$1,200.00
If superannuated at the end of twelve years of membership	$1,300.00
If superannuated at the end of thirteen years of membership	$1,400.00
If superannuated at the end of fourteen years of membership	$1,500.00
If superannuated at the end of fifteen years or more of membership ...	$1,600.00

After ten years of membership, a member is eligible to receive dividends credited to his or her account and payable in addition to the Base Benefit upon retirement.

Dividends:

Any funds remaining after retirement benefits have been paid to eligible members retiring at the annual conference shall be divided into equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for ten years or longer and are not in arrears for the previous year(s).

Death Benefits:

If a participating member of the fund dies, the treasurer shall pay to his named beneficiary or beneficiaries designated, otherwise pay to his estate, the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the dividends added to his credit.

Each member shall provide the Conference treasurer and the Board of Pensions a statement, naming the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom these funds are to be paid in the event of death before retirement.

Payment of Retirement Benefits:

A Minister who retires with less than ten (10) years credit in the fund will be paid immediately following the session of the annual conference at which he retires the total amount as prescribed by the formula for superannuated members. A Minister with ten (10) or more years credit in the fund shall be paid, immediately following the annual conference session at which he retires, an amount equal to the total which he has personally contributed to the fund. The remainder of the amount accrued to the minister's credit shall be paid to him in a lump sum between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister retires. This amount will draw simple interest from June 1 to December 31 computed at the annual passbook savings rate in effect on December 15 prior to the January payment. The total January payment should be reported as ordinary income for income tax purposes.

Penalties:

Upon superannuation or the death of any member who has failed any year or years to contribute one per cent (1%) while serving a charge, or two per cent (2%) for years in which he did not serve a charge, there shall be deducted from any benefits, an amount equal to twice the amount he should have paid during the year or years he did not contribute. If any member of the fund fails to contribute the required per cent of his salary for three consecutive years or more, he shall have no claim on this fund other than the actual amount he has paid into the fund.

Membership Transferring:

Any minister who leaves the North Carolina Conference will not make any further payment to the fund. He may leave his holdings in the fund until retirement. If this is done, they will earn interest at current passbook rate. If the funds are held, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he may reinstate his payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of re-entry into this conference.

Withdrawing from the Fund:

If a member desires to withdraw from the fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the conference treasurer and the Board of Pensions, he shall receive an amount equal to the amount he has paid into the fund, plus the simple interest computed at the annual bank passbook savings rate which was in effect each year he was participating in the fund, and terminate his membership in the fund.

If a minister is approved for disability leave he may submit an application to the Board of Pensions requesting permission to withdraw funds held in the Ministers' Retirement Fund. If the application is approved, he will be paid on the same basis as if he were retiring at the current session of the annual conference. If a person on disability leave makes application to withdraw from the fund between sessions of the annual conference, and if the application is approved, he will be paid on the same basis as if he had retired at the previous session of the annual conference.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the fund in any way will provide the conference treasurer with a statement indicating that he has received the funds for which he is eligible, and that he is no longer a member of the fund.

New Rules and Constitution:

At the time these rules and guidelines are adopted, all previous legislation regulating this fund shall be null and void.

Constitution Printed:

It is recommended that with the adoption of this constitution by the annual conference, that the constitution be printed in a booklet and copies given to each member of the annual conference.

Reserve Pension Fund Constitution Report IV

The first and second paragraphs of the "Death Benefits for Widows shall be amended to read as follows:

In the event of the death of a ministerial member of the Conference with approved pension credits, who at the time of death was actively engaged in the ministry, or had been placed on approved disability leave, or had been placed in the retired relation but whose benefit payment had not commenced, the widow of such minister shall be entitled to a pension benefit which shall be 75% of such minister's accrued pension benefits up to the date of his death, based on his years of Approved Service accrued to date of death, and the then current Annuity Rate.

In the event of death of a minister in the retired relation after retirement benefits have commenced, his widow shall be entitled to a pension benefit which shall be 75% of his pension benefit.

The following paragraph shall be added:

It is understood that all widows' benefits shall be adjusted from time to time to reflect the current Annuity Rate as approved by the Conference.

REPORT OF THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

General Statement

The Methodist Board of Publication, Inc., owned jointly by the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference has as its major function the publication of the North Carolina Christian Advocate. Since January 1, 1973, when it leased its printing operation to Emporium Printing and Packaging Co., it has ceased to be actively involved in the printing business. Your Board continues to feel that the publication of the North Carolina Christian Advocate can best be carried forward without the direct involvement with operating a printing business.

We have continued to maintain editorial offices in the Advocate Building in Greensboro, but we no longer have any responsibility or active participation in the printing enterprise which is conducted there. Income from the leasing of the building and equipment, in the amount of $1,500 per month plus 3 per cent of gross receipts from Emporium's operation in the plant, is used to defray part of the cost of publishing the Advocate, in lieu of former income from our printing business operation.

In spite of sharp increases in costs, the Advocate has held the price line for the last couple of years, and we are not anticipating any increase during the next year. One of the best ways to avoid further increases in subscription rates is through increasing the number of subscriptions. We believe we are offering North Carolina United Methodists an excellent publication which our people can read with profit and which they ought to read regularly. We, therefore, urge upon our pastors and other leaders that they lift up to their people the importance of being informed Christians, with especial reference to their use of the North Carolina Christian Advocate. This is the official news journal of our conferences, and your Board feels that our Advocate should be vigorously supported. We appreciate the fine way in which the bishops, district superintendents and so many pastors and lay persons have promoted it in the past and call upon all to give it ever greater backing to the end that our publication may become an ever more effective communications instrument in our midst.

During the past the number of subscriptions have ranged between 15,000 and 18,000. Included among subscribers are all pastors, active and retired, and the widows of deceased pastors. The two conferences pay between them $5,000 toward the cost of these subscriptions. We have approximately 330 churches which are now on one or another of our church club subscription plans.

These plans and subscription rates are as follows:

Every Family Plan (at least one for each Five members):	$3.19
All Administrative Board Plan	$3.35
Council on Ministries Plan	$3.49
Individual subscriptions	$3.99

We hope more and more of our churches will take advantage of these special rates for church leaders.

Recommendations

1. That the Administrative Board of each church be asked to take up the question of its adopting the All-Administrative Board Subscription Plan or the Council on Ministries Plan at a meeting prior to the holding of its Charge Conference in the fall of 1975; and that the District Superintendents be asked to receive replies to the question at the Fall Charge Conference and forward them to the office of the North Carolina Christian Advocate. (Promotion materials and forms to be furnished by the Advocate office.)
2. That Sunday, October 19, or an alternate Sunday if necessary, be designated as Advocate Sunday and that the month of October be used for a general promotion of the North Carolina Christian Advocate; that in connection with this observance the pastor and the organized leadership of the church set up and carry out an effective promotion campaign in each church, including a churchwide solicitation for subscriptions.
3. That each District Superintendent be asked to designate a District Director of Promotion for the North Carolina Christian Advocate who will work with the District Council and with the North Carolina Christian Advocate in the promotion of circulation.
4. That N. E. Edgerton of Raleigh, whose term of membership on the Board expires as of June 1975, be elected to honorary (life time) membership on the Board in recognition of his long and outstanding service in support of the North Carolina Christian Advocate and of the operations of the Board.
5. That N. D. McNairy of Greensboro be designated as the legal consultant for the Board.

That Mrs. Robert Stamey of North Wilkesboro be elected to membership on the Board to serve a five year term beginning in June, 1975.

That E. L. Raiford of Raleigh be elected to membership on the Board to serve a five year term beginning in June, 1975.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO STUDY THE COST OF PARISH TRAVEL

The 1974 session of the North Carolina Conference passed a resolution calling for the establishment of a Committee to Study the Costs of Parish Travel to be comprised of a representative from the Cabinet, the Town and Country Committee, the Commission on Equitable Salaries, the Methodist Ministers Credit Union, the Division of Stewardship, the Division of Lay Life and Work, and the Council on Finance and Administration. It was specified that three lay members and three clerical members were to be appointed by the Bishop.

The proposed Committee was charged with the responsibility to:

- (1) Make a study of all policies and programs relating to parish travel operative within the annual conferences of the United Methodist Church.
- (2) Investigate the travel costs necessary for the effective implementation of parish programs in North Carolina.
- (3) Present to the 1975 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference for its consideration such policies and procedures as may eventuate in a consistent, equitable, and effective assumption by each parish of full responsibility for the travel necessary to the program of each parish.

Pursuant to this resolution, the Committee to Study the Cost of Parish Travel as appointed by Bishop Blackburn makes the following report:

Basis of Study

As a basis for its study of the status of travel requirements and reimbursement procedures and formulation of its recommendations to the 1975 Annual Conference the Committee:

- (1) Surveyed all ministers within the North Carolina Conference with respect to their individual travel requirements, their charge's travel reimbursement program, if any, and received comments with respect to the effective and equitable treatment of travel expenses.
- (2) Contacted the Western North Carolina Conference and other conferences geographically located adjacent to North Carolina and requested information with respect to travel expense programs that may be in existence or under study in these conferences.
- (3) Held committee meetings to fully discuss the findings of the survey, responses from other conferences and other pertinent data related to its task.

Findings and Observations

- (1) There exists within the North Carolina Conference a wide variation in the travel requirements of individual ministers, a wide disparity in the procedures followed and amounts budgeted for reimbursing ministers for travel expenses, an apparent misunderstanding of the effects on the minister's "take-home-pay" of inadequate or no reimbursement for travel expenses and an apparent misunderstanding on the part of many local churches of the relationship between the minister's salary requirements and travel expense requirements.
- (2) Unless affirmative action is taken to fairly and equitably reimburse ministers for travel expenses incurred in connection with parish programs, many ministers will suffer further severe hardships because of the rapidly rising costs of automobile maintenance and operation.
- (3) Because of the importance of travel by the minister in the growth of his church and in his ministry to the needs of his parishioners, because of the need to develop a more consistent and equitable travel expense program within the Conference and based on action taken by other conferences in this respect, a sound and practical solution to the existing problems within the North Carolina Conference is urgently needed.

Recommendations

Because of its concern for the future effectiveness of the programs of the United Methodist Church, because of its concern for the equitable ministerial support of every minister and based on the results of its study, the Committee to Study the Costs of Parish Travel submits the following recommendations which, if adopted, would apply to all pastoral charges in the Annual Conference:

- (1) That the Annual Conference adopt the goal that ministers' travel expenses be considered and recorded as a local church expense separate from salaries in all Charge, District, and Annual Conference computations.
For the purpose of making an orderly transition, the basis for appointments made at the 1976 Annual Conference will use, for the minister's salary, the combined total of salary and utilities. The travel allowance and estimated travel will be listed as a separate item.
- (2) That the Annual Conference urge each charge to provide a travel expense item in its budget beginning with the 1976 fiscal year. The budgeted amount is to be based on a formula calculated to have the Charge Treasurer reimburse the minister's automobile travel for parish responsibilities at a rate of 12 cents per mile for the first 15,000 miles and 9 cents per mile for the excess. Two methods of reimbursement may be used; either (a) requisition by voucher based upon records showing the miles driven, or (b) a flat monthly reimbursement equal to 1/12 of the amount budgeted for travel expenses.

To provide an equitable apportionment of travel expense reimbursement, no more than 5/12 of the budgeted item may be expended between January 1st and the assignment of the minister at Annual Conference.

- (3) Upon consultation with the minister, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee and the Committee on Finance will recommend to the Annual Charge Conference the amount to be included in the charge budget for travel reimbursement.
- (4) That travel expenses be exempted in the Single Figure Asking Apportionment Formula, but not to exceed $1,500, for each pastor.
- (5) Recognizing the need for annual review of the base figures recommended and the need for continued study of travel expense requirements, the Bishop will appoint a Standing Committee to conduct such review and study. The Committee will be composed of three at-large ministers, three lay persons and funding for two meetings per year will be provided by the Council on Finance and Administration.

REPORT OF UNITED METHODIST WOMEN N.C. Conference

At the August Planning Session of United Methodist Women, the group decided that the Conference emphasis for 1975 would be on missions. In view of this, our OBJECTIVE for 1975 is: "To increase our understanding of what it means to be in mission today." Out of this came the theme for 1975 "To Be Alive". Our goals are:

1. To be A-Live United Methodist Woman.
 - a. Workshops on mission emphasis.
 - b. Financial Interpretation Workshops.
2. To develop effective communication.
 - a. Newsletter.
 - b. Written communication.
3. To be sensitive to feelings and needs of all women of North Carolina Conference.

A Budget of $219,733 was adopted for 1975. $195,000 of this is the pledge to missions to be sent to the Women's Division for mission projects and support here and abroad.

The Second Annual Meeting of United Methodist Women was held at Queen Street United Methodist Church, Kinston, October 4-5, 1974. The keynote speaker for the meeting was Mrs. Harold Quickel, Vice-President of the Women's Division. A Love Offering of $5,433.53 was given to Noel Salazar from Bolivia, who is studying at N.C. State University.

In January 1975 the Conference Executive Committee, including District Presidents and the entire Conference Committee on Nominations, met for an overnight session to plan the Program for the year. Plans that were tentative at an earlier Planning Session were voted upon and task groups were appointed to implement the various events for the year.

The Conference Executive Committee voted that the Annual Love Gift for 1975 would go to the Methodist Home for Children to be used for a Self-Learning and Remedial Laboratory.

Miss Mary Lou Van Buren from the Women's Division in New York led a very meaningful three day Christian Personhood Conference at Methodist College May 16-18. In addition to this, many districts held Christian Personhood events.

To carry out our goals and to provide on-going educational opportunities for UMW, a Conference-wide Sensitivity Day on Missions was held in March. Dr. Mary Sue Lowery, furloughed missionary to Chile, led the group in commitment, challenge and ideas necessary to fulfill the Conference Theme for 1975 "To Be Alive". In addition, three new Conference officers were sent to Cincinnati for training by the Women's Division; one Conference officer was sent to Birmingham to a Women's Division Seminar on The Role and Status of Women; in June, all elected leadership will be sent to the Regional School at Athens, Alabama, to prepare for the work projected for 1976. We are anticipating sending four people to the National Seminar at Norman, Oklahoma later in the summer. During the whole year we will be holding Financial Interpretation Workshops in the Districts to inform women as to where our mission dollar goes.

In 1974 the N. C. Conference sent to the Women's Division $221,401.30 for the mission program and we are working very hard to add to this in 1975 because of the great need and increasing costs of maintaining programs.

Mrs. E. G. Craig, Secretary

GROUP C—RESOLUTIONS

Committee on Resolutions and Reference

On behalf of the members and delegates of this one hundred and fiftieth session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, the Committee on Resolutions and Reference offers this resolution of thanks and appreciation.

We express our sincere appreciation to Methodist College, Doctor Richard Pearce, President, for the very hospitable manner in which we were accommodated. The auditorium was comfortable air-conditioned, the meals have been tasty and filling, and the dormitories have been "co-ed."

To our official host, the Durham District, we offer our heartiest appreciation. Langill Watson, District Superintendent, and his team of ministers and laity have provided for us in so many ways.

Many arrangements have been carried out to help this session run smoothly. Details and planning by the Committee on Entertainment almost go unnoticed. But to Bill Lowdermilk who saw to it that everything was ready, we say a most hearty, "Thank you."

To John Meares and the press corps for reporting our activities, moods, and deliberations, to the Fayetteville Observer, the Raleigh News and Observer, and the Durham Herald and other members of the media, we express our appreciation.

To the Maus Piano and Organ Company of Raleigh, Mr. Robert Kennedy, consultant, we gratefully acknowledge the use of the Baldwin Church Organ.

To Roger Searles and the North Carolina Conference Chapter of the Fellowship of United Methodist Musicians we say, "You out-did yourselves again!" The music was thrilling and inspiring. Jim Marshall's directing of the special music is without equal.

To the men who brought us inspiring messages in sermons, we offer our gratitude. To Bishop James W. Henley for his sermon to the ordinands; to the Reverend James H. McCallum for his touching memorial sermon, to the Reverend Doctor A. Leonard Griffith for his stirring conference sermons, and the the the Reverend Doctor Oral Roberts for his special sermon to a packed house, we are all indebted. It is our hope that the conference sermons will be a permanent part of our sessions.

To the Commission on Worship we have a special note of appreciation for the Communion Services in Hensdale Chapel.

We thank the Conference Council on Ministries and all the staff of the Methodist Building, and each of the Divisions, Boards, Commissions, Committees, Agencies, and groups of our conference for their long meetings and tireless energies this past year. We have seen and heard the results of those labors encapsulated here this week. We commend the membership of the churches who made it possible for so many activities to happen for the glory of God.

We thank the Council on Ministries and others for the many informative displays in the lobby of the auditorium.

To Sue Henry and her staff at Cokesbury we offer our thanks and praise. We knew a store in Raleigh was what we needed! And they brought the store to us at conference.

We express our appreciation to the Bishop and the Division of the Ministry for a mighty impressive Monday. We appreciate the time given to our new ministers, our ordinands, and to those who have transferred-in to us. The always impressive service of ordination was a special high light of the week.

Again this year our youth and young adult delegates were much in evidence. They and the additional lay delegates added much to the total spirit of this conference. We look forward to your continued interest and enthusiasm in our conference sessions.

To the indefatigable spirit of our lay and clerical tellers goes a rousing cheer! You have counted and tallied many ballots. You have worked long and faithfully. We salute you!

To our conference secretary, James Coile, and his efficient staff for their attention to intricate detail, to major and minor works, we offer our special appreciation. You have prepared and worked long hours to record our whims and our pressing issues in the minutes of our deliberation.

To the Minister's Wives Association and to the wives of the Wilmington District for a different "Finger Buffet" luncheon, goes a word of thanks and appreciation. We understand 'Stel' Hillman was delightfully humorous.

Bishop Robert Blackburn has presided with that certain charm over this conference for the third time. We give thanks to God for the forthright way in which the Bishop has led us through the business and the balloting of this session.

Mary Jeanne Blackburn continues to add her charm and love and beauty to our conference. Thank you, Mary Jeanne, for all your graciousness.

To each man and woman, young or old, who has given of himself and herself to make this conference move and grow, we express our appreciation for each act and each deed; for the favors and the blessings, mentioned and unknown, we offer our praise and thanks to you; and to God the Father, Jesus Christ His Son and our Lord and Savior belong the honor and glory of what has happened here. AMEN.

Herman Winberry, Chairperson
E. M. Thompson, Secretary

Resolution Honoring Mrs. Robert Blackburn

We, the Ministers' Wives and lay women of the North Carolina Annual Conference, would like to express our appreciation to Mrs. Robert Blackburn for her constant presence here, her friendliness to one and all, and for her untiring and effective leadership throughout the year which has been most meaningful and added new dimensions of warmth and love to our Christian fellowship.

Resolution Commending President Ford

I move that we commend our President for his stand on clemency and send him our best wishes and prayers as he seeks to lead us in paths of peace and freedom with responsibility.

Petition to General Conference

That the General Conference direct the Division of Worship to insure that after January 1, 1977, all future editions of The Methodist Hymnal (The Book of Hymns) shall have sequential page numbers clearly marked throughout, in addition to whatever other numbering system is used.

Petition to General Conference

That a person entering the ministry be entitled to meet the requirement and procedures of the Discipline at the time he or she is first made a lay pastor, or probationary member. (Para. 338, 349, and 325.)

Petition to General Conference

Be it therefore resolved that the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, meeting in Fayetteville, N.C., June 4, 1975, express its appreciation to the Council of Bishops, and the Division of the Ordained Ministry for the statements opposing the ordination of homosexuals, and that we petition the General Conference of the United Methodist Church, meeting in Portland, Oregon, to retain in its entirety the language of the current Discipline as found in Part III, Social Principles, paragraph 72c.

Resolution in Behalf of the More Aged of Our Retired Ministers

Whereas, the Board of Pensions is continuously concerned and seeking to provide the most adequate and inclusive aid possible for ministers appointed to the retired relation, and

Whereas, said ministers advance in age with continuing practice and desire to attend the annual and special call sessions of Annual Conference, and

Whereas, increasing age is accompanied by a less and less ability to care self and travel alone to and be in daily attendance at Conference sessions,

Be it resolved that the Board of Pensions, jointly with the Conference Entertainment Committee, encourage the more aged and less mobile of our retired ministers to invite the wife or daughter with whom he resides to accompany him to Conference. This family member already knows the prescribed needs for the said husband or father, i.e., his schedule of need for rest and medication. Be it further resolved that the Conference Entertainment Committee provide live-in arrangements for the caretaker member of the minister's family in the same or adjoining room, this with the understanding that the said wife or daughter would be ready to pay to the Conference the pro-rata cost as paid by the Conference to provide the retired minister's room. (Referred to the Board of Pensions and the Conference Committee on Entertainment.)

Resolution Concerning the General Insurance Program of The United Methodist Church

Whereas, The General Council on Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church in April, 1973, officially established a General Insurance program; and

Whereas, Frank B. Hall, Inc., was named Broker of Record to administer the program and The Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company as the underwriting

Company of Record for The United Methodist Church, and

Whereas, The Atlantic Mutual Insurance has made extensive efforts to have their Safeguard Policy, including rate structuring, filed by the North Carolina Fire Insurance Rating Bureau; and

Whereas, The North Carolina Fire Insurance Rating Bureau has declined to file this policy on behalf of the Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company; and

Whereas, the procedures established by The North Carolina Fire Insurance Bureau for the rating of church properties under their Special Multi-Peril Program are time consuming and expensive; and

Whereas, forty-five (45) states have approved the plan as offered by the Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company; and

Whereas, the approval of this Safeguard Program would allow North Carolina Methodist congregations to participate in a program sponsored by the General Conference of The United Methodist Church throughout the country, achieve premium savings and participate in such dividends as are declared by the Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company;

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church comprising 853 churches in eastern North Carolina does hereby petition the Insurance Commissioner of North Carolina, the North Carolina Fire Insurance Rating Bureau and the General Assembly of North Carolina, if legislation is needed, to take the necessary action to make available in North Carolina the Safeguard Policy including rate structuring offered by The Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company and accepted and approved by forty-five (45) states of our nation with over two thousand, four hundred (2,400) churches already enrolled or covered by the program.

Petition to General Conference

That the General Conference direct that all Rules and Regulations which currently govern The Pension Codes of The United Methodist Church be printed in their entirety in the new Book of Discipline.

Petition to General Conference

In order that we may elect persons to General Conference who will represent our interests, I move that we join other jurisdictions such as the Western Jurisdiction, in declaring candidacy and in announcing our platform.

Petition to General Conference

Be it resolved that the North Carolina Annual Conference in session June 2-5, 1975, petition the 1976 General Conference to include in the 1976 Discipline of The United Methodist Church definitive policies and procedures for the election of delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Resolution Concerning Building at Lake Junaluska Assembly

Whereas, the 1972 Jurisdictional Conference authorized the Junaluska Advancement Fund for the Quadrennium of 1972-1976 for the purpose of raising capital funds for the Lake Junaluska Assembly; and

Whereas, the funds raised to date have specifically complied with the resolution passed by the Conference on July 13, 1972, to wit, the first monies raised going to the dredging of the lake and to correction of sewerage problems; and

Whereas, construction costs and conditions have now changed considerably since the passage of the resolution which stated that "no construction will begin to replace hotel facilities until 75% of the amount needed is on hand"; and

Whereas, some Conferences and some Churches have had to delay Advancement payments, thus upsetting the expected schedule of construction;

Therefore Be It Resolved that this Annual Conference at this 1975 session go on record of eliminating the requirement of 75% of the funds being on hand before any hotel facility can be constructed; that as an Annual Conference we further pledge our support of the Lake Junaluska Advancement Fund, seeking to bring it to a successful conclusion within the year of 1976; and that the Trustees of Lake Junaluska Assembly, Inc., shall have the authority to take such action in connection with the hotel construction as they deem best, including, but not limited to, time of commencement of construction, method of financing the same, execution of such documents as they deem necessary, etc.

Resolution on Hunger

Whereas, it is stated in the 1972 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church: "since the present population of the world in the developed and in the developing nations is already taxing the world's supply of food, minerals, and water, we urge an emphasis upon quality of life rather than number of children . . . (and) further, we support the worldwide distribution of reliable contraceptive information and devices", and

Whereas, the tragedy of world hunger continues; and

Whereas, the problem of world hunger cannot be easily separated from the issue of population;

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church advocates a clear and active public articulation of the position of The United Methodist Church as outlined in paragraph 73, sub-paragraph h, of the 1972 Book of Discipline, to all our christian and non-Christian brethren, and that the North Carolina Conference petitions the 1976 General Conference of The United Methodist Church to also advocate the articulation.

Resolution to the Trustees of Duke University

Whereas, Duke University has provided full tuition grants for children of United Methodist clergy in Nort Carolina for many years; and

Whereas, the practice of granting full tuition heretofore followed is in keeping with the devotion and sense of obligation to the Methodist Church expressed by James B. Duke in the Indenture by which he created the Duke Endowment; and

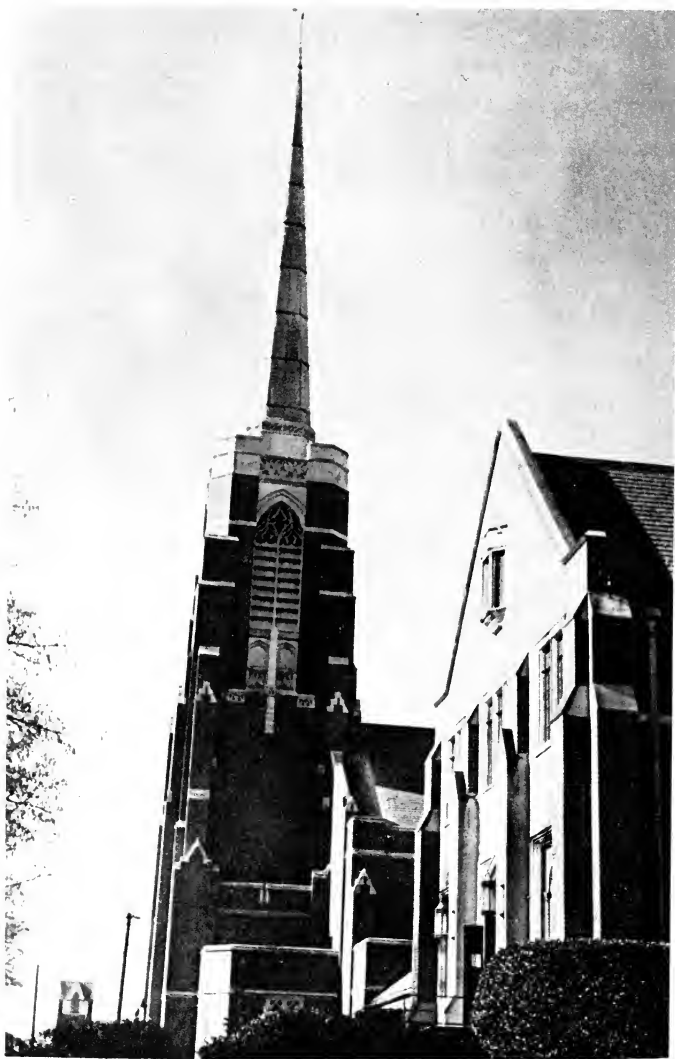

Whereas, the amount of the tuition at Duke University is so great that many of the children of the Methodist clergy in North Carolina would be prohibited from attending the University if required to pay half tuition; and

Whereas, the attendance of the children of Methodist clergy at Duke University historically has strengthened and enriched both the University and the Methodist Church:

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the 1975 session of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church urge the Board of Trustees of Duke University to continue the full tuition grants for children of the ministers of the North Carolina Conference and Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Petition to General Conference

Be it resolved that the issue of spiritual and physical hunger shall be considered a quadrennial United Methodist Church issue for 1978-1981.

The cathedral architecture of North Carolina's cities has also been a part of Methodism building for the glory of God.

STATISTICAL TABLES

Compiled and Edited by
D. D. Traynham, Conference Statistician

NOTE: An explanation of the numbering system:

The charge number for stations or circuits continues in use as heretofore and is subject to change when any change in a name or alignment affects the alphabetical listing.

The new CHURCH members have been assigned to all local churches permanently for the benefit of persons doing research. The letters indicate the county (by abbreviation) in which the church is located. The figures are the church number within its county.

NOTE ON TABLE 2A SINGLE FIGURE ASKING

The Conference Budget is distributed as follows: (1974)

General Fund Number	Percent
44 Ministerial Support	41.3578%
49 Connectional Funds	7.0685%
50 W. S. Conference Benevolences	24.1419%
61 Christian Higher Education	17.5123%
64 Health & Welfare Agencies	9.9195%
	<hr/> 100.00%

Variations of the A-Frame became a favorite structural form for both city and rural churches in the middle 1900's.
